2009 Hall of Fame Induction Class

Joe Gordon

The New York Yankees celebrate the election of Joe Gordon to the Baseball Hall of Fame. He received 83.3 percent of votes (10 of a possible 12) from participating Veterans Committee members, surpassing the 75.0% needed for election. The ballot he was on featured players who began their big league careers before 1943.

Born on February 18, 1915, in Los Angeles and raised for his first five years in meager conditions in a gold-mining town in Arizona, Gordon learned how to play baseball on sandlots in a hardscrabble section of Portland, Ore. He played seven seasons with the Yankees (1938-43, '46) and was part of five Yankees pennant winning teams (1938-39, '41-43), including four World Series champions (1938-39, '41, '43). In the Yankees' five-game 1941 World Series victory over Brooklyn, he reached base in 14-of-21 plate appearances and led the team with a .500 batting average (7-for-14), tallying one double, one triple, one home run and five RBI. In 1942, he won the American League MVP Award, batting .322 (173-for-538) with 18 home runs and 103 RBI. He becomes the second Yankees second baseman enshrined in the Hall of Fame, joining Tony Lazzeri, whom Gordon replaced following the 1937 season.

Prior to the 1947 season, Gordon was traded to the Cleveland Indians (for Allie Reynolds), where he played four seasons (1947-50) before retiring. He later managed three different clubs in four separate stints, skipping Cleveland (1958-60), Detroit (1960) and Kansas City (1961 and 1969). As a player, he was a nine-time American League All-Star, making the team every year aside from his rookie season and the final year of his career.

Gordon finished with a .268 (1,530-for-5,707) lifetime batting average, 253 home runs and 975 RBI. He hit at least 20 home runs seven times and 10 home runs in all 11 of his Major League seasons, finishing in the AL top 10 on nine occasions (six with the Yankees). His power numbers with the Yankees are especially notable given how difficult Yankee Stadium was on right-handed hitters of his era.

With his deft glove-work he earned the nickname "Flash," posting a .970 career fielding percentage while leading or tying AL second basemen in assists four times and in double plays three times. Gordon did not play in the Majors from 1944-45 due to his service in the U.S. Army during World War II. He died on April 14, 1978, in Sacramento, Calif.

Rickey Henderson

The New York Yankees salute outfielder Rickey Henderson as a member of the 2009 Baseball Hall of Fame induction class. Acquired in a trade with Oakland prior to the 1985 season, Henderson holds a special place in Yankees history as the franchise's all-time leader with 326 stolen bases. He accomplished the feat with an 85.1 percent success rate (57 caught stealing), doing so in just 596 games with the club before being traded back to the A's during the 1989 season. He also holds the top three single-season steals totals in Yankees history with 93 in 1988, 87 in 1986 and 80 in 1985.

In each of his four full seasons with the Yankees from 1985-88, Henderson was an American League All-Star. After his 1985 season—in which he batted .314 (172-for-547) with 24 home runs and 72 RBI—he placed third in AL MVP voting and won a Silver Slugger Award. His AL-leading 146 runs in 1985 remain the most in franchise history since Joe DiMaggio scored 151 runs in 1937.

Henderson is widely regarded as the greatest leadoff hitter in baseball history. Having played 25 Major League seasons with Oakland (1979-84, 1989-93, 1994-95, '98), the Yankees (1985-89); Toronto (1993), San Diego (1996-97; 2001), Anaheim (1997), the Mets (1999-2000), Seattle (2000), Boston (2002) and the Dodgers (2003), he is the sport's all-time leader in runs scored (2,295) and stolen bases (1,406), and holds the modern (since 1900) single-season record with 130 steals in 1982.

Bobby Murcer Award

On February 11, 2009, the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) announced the creation of The Bobby Murcer Award to recognize generosity to the organization. B.A.T. provides a means of support to members of the baseball family in need, including former Major League players, managers, coaches, scouts, umpires and front office personnel, among others. Murcer joined the B.A.T. Board in 2001, was elected chairman in 2002 and served in that capacity until his passing.

George M. Steinbrenner III

Principal Owner / Chairperson

Currently the longest-tenured owner in Major League Baseball, George M. Steinbrenner III, will celebrate his 36th anniversary as Principal Owner of the New York Yankees in 2009. Under his leadership, the Yankees have become the leading sports franchise and the most highly recognized sports brand in the world.

On January 3, 1973, a group of businessmen formed and led by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the New York Yankees from CBS for a net price of $8.7 million. It took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the organization back into World Champions. In the 36 years he has been Principal Owner of the club, the Yankees have posted a Major League-best .563 winning percentage (3,205-2,492 record) with 10 American League pennants and six World Championships (also the most in the Majors).

In addition to the team's on-field success, the New York Yankees have consistently shattered franchise and league attendance records at home and on the road. In 2008, they drew an American League-record 4,298,543 fans to Yankee Stadium and became the only franchise in baseball history to draw more than 4 million fans in four consecutive seasons (2005-08). Away from Yankee Stadium, the Yankees continue to be one of the most sought after attractions in all of sports. They have drawn over 7 million fans in combined home and road attendance in each of the last five seasons (2004-08), constituting five of the six largest single-season attendance totals in professional sports history, including the all-time mark of 7,325,051 fans in 2006.

In recent years, Mr. Steinbrenner's foresight into both sports and business has continued to build the value and prominence of the franchise, positioning it for the future. In 2002, the Sporting News named him the No. 1 "Most Powerful Man in Sports." Forbes Magazine has consistently listed the Yankees as the most valuable franchise in all of Baseball. Mr. Steinbrenner's vision led to the creation of YankeeNets, which owned the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and ultimately led to the launch of the YES Network, a trailblazing enterprise that is currently the nation's leading regional sports network. Most recently, Mr. Steinbrenner teamed with long-time friend and Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, a new concession and merchandising company which will operate at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums.

In 2006, his participation in the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Yankee Stadium underscored his role as the principal impetus in moving the much-anticipated facility towards its opening this season.

During the nationally broadcast pregame ceremony prior to the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium, Major League Baseball and the Yankees organization paid tribute to the baseball legend. On a field lined with the 2008 All-Stars and the largest gathering of Hall of Famers ever assembled, Mr. Steinbrenner was given the honor of delivering the ceremonial first-pitch baseball to the pitcher's mound at the center of the infield.

Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig may have best described Mr. Steinbrenner's legacy by saying, "Without a doubt, George Steinbrenner is one of the most accomplished owners in the history of Major League Baseball. His stewardship of the New York Yankees has produced six World Championships, continuing the remarkable tradition of a franchise that is as proud as any in all of sports. George has been a trusted friend since he entered baseball in 1973. Time and again, he has been a source for sound advice and great support. George Steinbrenner is more than just a legendary baseball man. He is simply a great man."

With 36 seasons of ownership now completed, Mr. Steinbrenner's tenure has exceeded that of any other New York Yankees owner by 12 years (Colonel Jacob Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston in January 1915, bought out Huston in 1922, and maintained sole ownership in the club until his death in 1939—a total of 24 years). Since Mr. Steinbrenner became Principal Owner, the other 29 Major League clubs have had over 100 owners or ownership groups while the Yankees have had just one.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world began at an early age. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy (where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame) and at Williams College. He began his successful coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten universities, Northwestern and Purdue. Then he assembled championship basketball teams in the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues. In 2002, he was honored with the highly prestigious Gold Medal Award from the National Football Foundation and College

Hall of Fame for a lifetime of “outstanding commitment, dedication and dynamic leadership in his business, as well as his personal life.”

Mr. Steinbrenner has devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he has to his many other sporting endeavors. He was Chairman of the U.S. Olympic Committee Foundation (1997-2002) and the Olympic Overview Commission (1988-89) that was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the USO program. He also served as Vice President of the USOC (1989-96) and has been honored with the General Douglas MacArthur USOC Foremost Award and the F. Don Miller United States Olympic Award.

Mr. Steinbrenner is a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame’s Board of Directors and has served on the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees since 1990.

Most of Mr. Steinbrenner’s philanthropic endeavors are performed without fanfare. However, he has been repeatedly recognized by the communities in which he immerses himself. In 1993, he earned the Tampa Civitan Club’s “Outstanding Citizen” Award, and in 1998, Tampa Law Enforcement named him “Citizen of the Year” for founding a scholarship fund for the children of slain law enforcement officers. In addition, Mr. Steinbrenner was honored as an “Outstanding New Yorker” by the New York Society of Association Executives in 1997.

In February 2008, the Tampa City Council and the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioner’s Office both passed resolutions endorsing the renaming of Legends Field after Mr. Steinbrenner to pay tribute to his numerous contributions to the area. On March 27, 2008, Mr. Steinbrenner—joined by his family—pulled down a curtain draped above the outfield scoreboard to unveil the new name for the Yankees’ spring training home: George M. Steinbrenner Field.

Harold Z. (Hal) Steinbrenner

Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Hal Steinbrenner begins his 19th season with the New York Yankees organization in 2009 and his first as Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson. On November 20, 2008, Major League Baseball formalized Mr. Steinbrenner's role as the New York Yankees' managing partner.

The 40-year-old son of Principal Owner George Steinbrenner was elected General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership in 1996, and he held that title the previous 13 seasons. In 2007, Mr. Steinbrenner was also named Chairman of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC.

Along with General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hank Steinbrenner, his responsibilities include overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations, and directing financial aspects of the New York Yankees, Yankee Global Enterprises and affiliates. Mr. Steinbrenner has also played a prominent role in the physical and financial planning of the new Yankee Stadium, set to be unveiled this season. In addition, he serves on the Board of Directors for Legends Hospitality, LLC, a new concession and merchandising company with the Dallas Cowboys that will operate at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums.

Mr. Steinbrenner is also Chairman and CEO of Steinbrenner Hotel Properties and holds a seat on both the Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and graduated from Williams College in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Currently residing in Tampa, Fla., he earned a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida in 1994.

Henry G. (Hank) Steinbrenner

General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Hank Steinbrenner begins his second season as General Partner of the New York Yankees. In addition, Mr. Steinbrenner was named Co-Chairperson in 2008. Along with Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hal Steinbrenner, the 51-year-old son of Principal Owner George Steinbrenner is responsible for overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations.

In his first full offseason in his current role, Mr. Steinbrenner was directly involved in the delicate negotiations and eventual re-signings of Yankees All-Stars Jorge Posada, Mariano Rivera and Alex Rodriguez, while guiding the managerial search that concluded with the hiring of former Yankees catcher and 2006 National League "Manager of the Year" Joe Girardi. Mr. Steinbrenner was a part of the collaborative front office effort of the most recent offseason in which the Yankees signed three key free-agents: pitchers CC Sabathia and A.J. Burnett, and first baseman Mark Teixeira.

Mr. Steinbrenner has served as Chairman and Director of Minch Transit Company, Vice President and Director of Bay Farms Corporation, Vice President and Director of Mid-Florida Hotels Corporation, and has been a member of the board of the Ocala Breeders Sales Company. In the Tampa Bay community, he has been involved in a number of children's charities.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and Central Methodist College. He resides in Tampa, Fla.

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal begins her first full season in the role of General Partner / Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees. In 2008, Ms. Steinbrenner held the title of Senior Vice President of New Stadium Public Affairs. The elder daughter of Principal Owner George Steinbrenner previously served in the Yankees Public Affairs Department in 1984-85 prior to spending 23 years actively participating in the philanthropic community.

Her present responsibilities include the implementation and integration of various community programs relating to the new Yankee Stadium. In addition, she serves in a supervisory role for the New York Yankees and Tampa Yankees Foundations, overseeing numerous local, regional and national outreach efforts.

Ms. Steinbrenner has a distinguished record of contributing to community projects and initiatives, including current commitments on the Florida State Fair Authority (Executive Committee, Agricultural Committee, and Chairwoman of the Marketing Committee), Board of Directors of Mary Lee's House (a child protection and advocacy center in Tampa), Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the H.B. Plant Museum, Board of Directors of the New York Pops, and Advisory Committee for the Tampa Salvation Army. She has also held prior board positions with the Children's Cancer Center of Tampa, Boys & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Florida Orchestra, Red Cross of Tampa, and Culver Academies.

A Morehead Scholar and 1981 graduate of the University of North Carolina with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, Ms. Steinbrenner continues her commitment to the university, serving on the UNC Board of Visitors and the Parents Council. Her daughter, Haley, received her undergraduate degree from UNC in 2008, and her son, Stephen, is currently a sophomore there.

Ms. Steinbrenner was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and makes her home in Tampa, Fla.

Jessica Steinbrenner

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jessica Steinbrenner begins her first full season as General Partner / Vice Chairperson for the New York Yankees. The younger daughter of Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner previously served in the role of Senior Vice President for the team in 2008.

In addition, Mrs. Steinbrenner serves as the Chief Executive Officer of Bay Farms Corporation and serves on the board of the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association. She has also authored two childrens books: My Sleepy Room and My Messy Room.

She attended Culver Girls Academy and graduated from Sweet Briar College in Virginia. Mrs. Steinbrenner currently resides in Tampa, Fla., with her husband Felix and her four children.

Joan Z. Steinbrenner

Vice Chairperson

Joan Steinbrenner holds the position of Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees.

Mrs. Steinbrenner has participated in many community projects and supported numerous philanthropic organizations. Among her many dignified community roles, she was named State Chairperson for the Florida Special Olympics in 1981 and 1982, and for two years was on the Board of Directors of the National Society to Prevent Blindness. She was also a charter member of Town and Gown, established in 1977 in an effort to form a bond between community supporters in the downtown Tampa area and the University of South Florida.

In addition, Mrs. Steinbrenner was a longtime board member for Children's Home, Inc., and was one of the original members of the H.B. Plant Museum Society. From 1991 to 2000 she served on the Development Council of St. Joseph's Hospital Foundation Board. She currently is a member of the Junior League of Tampa, the Chiselers, and sits on the Board of Directors for the Florida Orchestra.

A graduate of Upper Arlington High School in Columbus, Ohio, and Ohio State University, Mrs. Steinbrenner earned a degree in dental hygiene. She currently resides in Tampa, Fla., with her husband, George, their four children and 13 grandchildren.

Randy Levine

President

Randy Levine begins his 10th season as President of the New York Yankees in 2009. He was named to his position in January 2000, becoming the first person to hold the post with the club since 1986.

Under his supervision and guidance, the Yankees broke ground for a new Yankee Stadium on August 16, 2006, and will open the 2009 season in the state-of-the-art facility. Mr. Levine was a principal founder of the YES Network, which was recently named the most-watched regional sports network in the United States for the sixth consecutive year (2003-08). In 2008, Mr. Levine was instrumental in creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, a new concession and merchandising company with the Dallas Cowboys. Legends will operate at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums. In 2004, he helped organize Yankees-Steiner, a leading sports memorabilia company.

Mr. Levine has also played a prominent role in the Yankees' international brand expansion, including a first-of-its-kind working relationship with the Chinese Baseball Association. In the summer of 2007, the Yankees became the first Major League team to sign players from the People's Republic of China with approval from the C.B.A. Mr. Levine also helped develop the joint venture agreement in Japan between the Yankees and Yomiuri Shimbun which is the parent company of the Tokyo Giants.

In 2007, the Yankees became the first Major League organization to sign players from the Israel Baseball League. Earlier in 2009, the team embarked on their first-ever large-scale outreach into Taiwan. Members of the Yankees organization—including Chien-Ming Wang—joined the Chinese Taipei Baseball Association in holding a clinic for high school players and coaches in Taipei, Taiwan. Mr. Levine is also the Yankees' principal liaison to Major League Baseball and contributes to player negotiations and contract issues.

Mr. Levine's baseball and business vision has also led to record numbers at Yankee Stadium turnstiles. In addition to establishing the all-time American League home attendance record in 2008, the Yankees have now reached the 4 million mark in home attendance in each of the last four seasons (2005-08), becoming the only Major League franchise to accomplish the feat.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Levine served as New York City's Deputy Mayor for Economic Development, Planning and Administration. He also served as New York City's Labor Commissioner.

From 1995 through 1997, Mr. Levine was Chief Negotiator for Major League Baseball. In 1996, he negotiated the labor agreement that for the first time included revenue sharing, luxury taxes and Interleague play. Prior to that, Mr. Levine served as Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General and Principal Deputy Attorney General at the United States Department of Justice. He has also served as a special delegate to the United States Department of Labor and was a board member for the Hudson River Park. Mr. Levine presently serves on the boards of George Washington University and the ASCPA.

Mr. Levine has been on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and Legends Hospitality, LLC. He is also an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC.

Mr. Levine has been a partner in the New York law firm of Proskauer Rose Goetz & Mendelson and is presently Senior Counsel at the law firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld.

Born on February 22, 1955, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mr. Levine received a Bachelor of Arts degree from George Washington University in 1977 and his J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law in 1980. Mr. Levine and his wife, Mindy, reside in Manhattan.

Felix M. Lopez, Jr.

Senior Vice President

Felix M. Lopez, Jr. begins his fifth season as a Senior Vice President with the New York Yankees in 2009. His responsibilities include overseeing the daily operations of George M. Steinbrenner Field, the Himes Player Development Complex and the Single-A Tampa Yankees. He is also involved with the Yankees' Latin Baseball Academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, as well as player development in Latin America.

Under Mr. Lopez' supervision, the Yankees spring training home in Tampa, Fla., has undergone several structural enhancements and renovations in recent years, including the expansion of field box seating and the redesign of the Yankees' clubhouse facilities.

Fan-friendly amenities have been at the forefront of Mr. Lopez' operational strategy, including the design of the Bighthouse Networks Dugout Club, located underneath the field box seats behind home plate. In addition, Mr. Lopez was instrumental in developing the new Tampa Tribune Deck, which was unveiled in 2008. Located beyond the right field wall, the unique and intimate structure features picnic-style seating for 500 people, private concessions and a full bar.

Mr. Lopez also serves on the boards of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC, and Legends Hospitality, LLC.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Lopez was the president and owner of Architecture Design Construction, Inc., a company specializing in commercial construction in the southeastern United States.

Born on April 1, 1954, in Havana, Cuba, Mr. Lopez moved to Tampa, Fla., in 1969 and later graduated from Cam Tech School of Construction. He is a member of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Florida and Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North America. He also serves on the board of the Gold Shield Foundation and contributes to the efforts of the Police Athletic League (PAL).

Mr. Lopez and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa, Fla.

Lonn A. Trost

Chief Operating Officer

Lonn Trost begins his 10th season as Chief Operating Officer of the New York Yankees in 2009. He was named to the position on January 10, 2000, after serving as the club's Executive Vice President and General Counsel from 1997-99.

Mr. Trost is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Yankees' operations. Under his direction, the Yankees have seen tremendous growth in brand recognition and sponsorship opportunities, while also establishing single-season home attendance records nine times (1998-99; 2002-08). In 2008, the Yankees led the Major Leagues in average home attendance (53,068), outdrawing the Major League average by more than 20,000 fans per game. Since his appointment to COO prior to the 2000 season, Yankees home attendance has increased at a rate nearly three times more than that of Major League Baseball's other 29 teams (30.5% to 11.1%).

Additionally, Mr. Trost, along with Hal Steinbrenner and Randy Levine, has spearheaded the most complex undertaking in New York Yankees history—construction and development of the new Yankee Stadium, which is the largest privately funded building project in the history of the Bronx. Upon completion, the facility will be the most technologically advanced stadium in baseball, yet true to the architectural grandeur of the 1923 original.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Trost was a partner and member of the Executive Committee of the law firm of Shea and Gould from 1972 to 1994. He was also a partner at the New York law firm of Herrick, Feinstein from 1994 through 1997. While with these firms, he served as outside general counsel for numerous sports franchises, institutions and agents. Among his clients were the New York Yankees and Mets, the New Jersey Nets and Devils, the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Little League Baseball and TCI Cable.

Mr. Trost is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC, New York Yankees Partnership, Legends Hospitality, LLC, and other New York Yankees affiliates. Mr. Trost is also active with the Tourette Syndrome Association, where he is a member of the Corporate and Professional Council.

Born on May 8, 1945, Mr. Trost began his legal career in 1971 with the United States Justice Department, Office of Chief Counsel (Treasury Department). A 1968 graduate of Hunter College in the Bronx, Mr. Trost received his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 1971. It's interesting to note that Mr. Trost's initial employment with the Yankees was as a grandstand vendor in the mid-1960s in the original Yankee Stadium. He resides in Monroe Township, N.J., with his wife, Carol. They have two children, Evan and Audra, and one grandchild, Ariella.

Brian Cashman

Senior Vice President, General Manager

Brian McGuire Cashman has literally grown up with the Yankees, moving from the baseball equivalents of the "mail room" to the "board room" over the past 22 seasons.

Mr. Cashman joined the Yankees—at age 19—in June 1986 as an intern in the club's Minor League and Scouting Department. On February 3, 1998, Principal Owner/Chairperson George M. Steinbrenner gave him the opportunity—at age 31—to become the second-youngest General Manager in baseball history. Now in his 12th season, Mr. Cashman is the longest-tenured GM under Mr. Steinbrenner and the fourth-longest tenured GM currently in baseball.

In a franchise marked by milestones, Mr. Cashman has carried on the winning tradition of the Yankees. In his first season (1998), he became the youngest GM to win a World Series and went on to become the only GM in baseball history to win World Championships in each of his first three seasons (1998-2000). He is also only the third GM in baseball history to win at least four consecutive League Championships and was the first to do it in his first four seasons (1998-2001). Only former Yankees General Managers Ed Barrow (four straight, 1936-39) and George Weiss (five straight, 1949-53) have also achieved the feat.

Mr. Cashman is the only General Manager in Major League history to guide a team to the postseason in each of his first 10 seasons from 1998-2007. Since 1998, the Yankees have compiled a cumulative record of 1,074-704, marking the best winning percentage (.604) in the Major Leagues during a period that included nine Division titles, five American League titles and three World Championships. According to Baseball America, Mr. Cashman owns the highest lifetime winning percentage of any General Manager since 1950 (minimum five seasons).

As General Manager of the Yankees, Mr. Cashman has been involved in dozens of high-profile Major League free-agent signings, including A.J. Burnett, Johnny Damon, Jason Giambi, Orlando Hernandez, Jon Lieber, Hideki Matsui, Mike Mussina, CC Sabathia, Alfonso Soriano, Mark Teixeira, and the re-acquisition of Andy Pettitte. Mr. Cashman has also executed more than 70 trades involving nearly 200 players, bringing the talents of Bobby Abreu, Aaron Boone, Shawn Chacon, David Justice, Xavier Nady, Alex Rodriguez, Nick Swisher and Robin Ventura to the Bronx.

Recently, Mr. Cashman has focused on rebuilding the Yankees farm system, while still maintaining World Championship-caliber talent at the Major League level. With the reemphasis he and his baseball operations staff have placed on the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting, the Yankees have seen the emergence of home-grown talent being recognized throughout the baseball industry, including Alfredo Aceves, Dellin Betances, Andrew Brackman, Robinson Cano, Joba Chamberlain, Brett Gardner, Phil Hughes, Austin Jackson, Ian Kennedy, Zach McAllister, Mark Melancon, Jesus Montero, Edwar Ramirez, David Robertson and Austin Romine. Mr. Cashman continues to infuse the roster with youth and experience, anchoring the Yankees drive for the next great dynasty.

There have been three women in Major League history to hold the position of Assistant General Manager and Mr. Cashman has hired two of them: Jean Afterman, the Yankees' current Vice President and Assistant General Manager; and Kim Ng, who is currently Vice President and Assistant General Manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Yankees and Mr. Cashman. He has been honored as "Executive of the Year" three times: by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA in 2000; and in 1999 and 2003 by the New Jersey Sportswriters' Association. The Yankees earned ESPY awards—presented by ESPN—as "Outstanding Team of the Year" in both 1998 and 2000 and they have also been named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and by USA Today in 1999. In 2001, the Yankees GM received his third consecutive "40 Under 40" Award presented by the Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal to recognize the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. He has since been inducted into the publication's "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame. In 2003, Mr. Cashman was honored by the Latino Sports Writers and Broadcasters with their annual "Latino Achievement Award" for his contributions to the Latin media. He was also honored with the 2005 "Ossie Davis Award for Inspirational Leadership," awarded each year to a key leader in an organization that works to promote opportunity in diversity.

On February 11, 2004, Mr. Cashman was given the honor of ringing the opening bell at the New York Stock Exchange. (The market closed at 10,737.70 that day, its highest close since June 13, 2001.)

He was heavily involved in bringing the Yankees to Tokyo for "Opening Series 2004" to honor the 70th Anniversary of Major League Baseball's historic tour of Japan which included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig.

Upon graduation from Catholic University in Washington, D.C., in June 1989, Mr. Cashman became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations for the Yankees. He was later promoted and transferred to Tampa, Fla., where he served as the Assistant Farm Director from 1990 to 1992. He returned to New York and became Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration in November 1992.

Born on July 3, 1967, in Rockville Center, N.Y., Mr. Cashman grew up in Lexington, Ky. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, Md., before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C., to major in history and play intercollegiate baseball. His love for baseball developed when long-time family friends (and former Brooklyn Dodger) Ralph and Ann Branca arranged for him to serve as a bat boy for the Los Angeles Dodgers in spring training in 1982.

He and his wife, Mary, have a daughter, Grace Eva, and a son, Theodore John.

Mark Newman

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Mark Newman begins his 10th season as the Yankees' Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and his 21st season with the Yankees in 2009. Prior to being named to his current position in 2000, Mr. Newman served as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting from 1997 through 1999.

During his tenure, the Yankees player development system has been recognized for producing homegrown talent including All-Stars Robinson Cano, Derek Jeter, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera, as well as 2006 Cy Young Award runner-up Chien-Ming Wang. Under Mr. Newman's supervision over the last few years, the Yankees have drafted and stockpiled talented prospects to evolve into what has been lauded as one of the best player development systems in baseball. Entering 2009, 20 members of the club's 40-man Major League roster were either drafted by the Yankees or signed by the club as a non-drafted free agent.

Over the last three seasons, the Yankees' minor league affiliates (from the Dominican Summer League through Triple-A) have produced the most wins and the best winning percentage among all Major League franchises with a combined record of 1,437-1,057 (.576). The 2008 season saw seven of the Yankees' eight affiliates post winning records with three of the teams making postseason appearances. Double-A Trenton won the Eastern League for the second straight season and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre took the crown in the International League, making the Yankees the first organization since Houston in 1993 (Triple-A Tucson and Double-A Jackson) to have its top two farm clubs win titles. The only other organization to bring home multiple titles in 2008 was Oakland.

In addition to stringing together 13 consecutive seasons of postseason play (1995-2007), the Yankees are one of only two teams, along with the Cleveland Indians, whose minor league affiliates have combined to post winning records in each of the last 19 seasons since 1990. The Yankees were selected as the "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and earned the same honor from USA Today in 1999.

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankees organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began his baseball coaching career at 22 years old as the pitching coach for Southern Illinois University. After spending nine successful seasons there—during which he earned his law degree with honors—he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997. He was inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jean Afterman

Vice President, Assistant General Manager

Jean Afterman begins her eighth season as the Yankees' Assistant General Manager in 2009 (seventh as Vice President) and is only the third female to hold such a position in Major League Baseball history (second with the Yankees). She succeeded Kim Ng, who was Baseball's second female Assistant General Manager from 1998 through 2001.

Ms. Afterman has been an integral part of the Yankees' operations in Asia. In her first year with the Yankees, she was instrumental in developing the club's relationship with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League and the signing of three-time Central League Most Valuable Player Hideki Matsui. She continues to cultivate relationships within the international baseball community, and in 2007 joined team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman on a week-long trip to Asia that concluded in a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association.

In 2004, Ms. Afterman was named one of the "Power 100" by the Sporting News and was selected as one of the "50 Most Powerful Women in New York" by the New York Post in 2003 and 2007. Also in 2007, Ms. Afterman was profiled as one of Crain's New York Business "100 Most Influential Women in New York Business." In 2008, she was profiled by Forbes Magazine as one of the top female executives in baseball.

Ms. Afterman joined the Yankees with a diverse business and legal background, with experience in corporate, labor and immigration law as well as international sports and licensing with an emphasis on US-Japan matters. She has traveled and lectured in Japan on business issues, and in 1996 was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to a federal advisory committee, the National Organic Standards Board. Prior to joining the Yankees, Ms. Afterman managed her own practice, providing athletic representation and management with a specialization in arbitration proceedings.

From 1994 to 1999, she was General Counsel at KDN Sports, Inc. and handled business and legal affairs for international baseball clients, including Hideo Nomo, Hideki Irabu, Masato Yoshii, Alfonso Soriano and more than 30 other Major and Minor League players.

Ms. Afterman graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1979 and was the recipient of the Rosalynn Schneider Eisner Prize and the Mark Goodson Scholarship Grant. She received her J.D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1991. In 2009, Ms. Afterman will be working with an elementary school in the Bronx as part of her involvement with PENCIL, a non-profit organization that partners members of the New York business community with public schools.

Yankees in the Community

The New York Yankees organization takes as much pride in the baseball played on the field as it does in its charitable endeavors throughout the community. The Yankees' community efforts reach far beyond the Bronx and the tri-state area, encompassing programs and donations throughout the United States and even spanning into Latin America and Asia.

The Yankees strive to provide charitable partnerships with programs that support children's initiatives, education enhancement and health awareness. The club's donations, grants, tickets, promotional items and countless other contributions to such programs exceeded $3 million in 2008. The Yankees also donated an additional $1.5 million to New York City-based organizations in conjunction with Major League Baseball and the proceeds from the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium. In addition, Yankees players and front office personnel serve on numerous charitable boards in the New York tri-state area as well as Tampa, Fla.

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

Throughout the season, Yankees players and front office personnel make countless visits to various local hospitals, schools and youth groups.

► On July 31, 2008, the Yankees held their seventh annual Disability Awareness Night. Along with Exceptional Parent Magazine, they honored Donna Mandra as the 2008 Honoree of the E-P Maxwell J. Schleifer Distinguished Service Award for her tireless efforts over the past 20 years to educate children about people who are living with special needs.

► In May, the Yankees held their annual "Military Appreciation Day." Though inclement weather prevented the Golden Knights from parachuting into Yankee Stadium, fans were treated to a special presentation from the Special Operations Warrior Foundation. Country rock star Keni Thomas, a former member of the Army's elite Task Force Ranger Assault Unit and a member of the unit involved in the battle in Somalia that was recounted in the movie Black Hawk Down, sang the national anthem.

As part of Fourth of July festivities at Yankee Stadium, the Yankees once again honored the Wounded Warrior Project. Warrior spokesman Johnny Damon was on-hand to greet veterans from local areas and across the nation who were aided by the Wounded Warrior Project. Army Sergeant First Class Mary Kay Messenger, the official vocalist of the United States Military Academy at West Point Band, sang the National Anthem.

Prior to the Yankees' July 28 game against Baltimore, the club paid tribute to the Disabled American Veterans and the many New York City heroes who have served the country overseas.

► For the fourth straight year, the Yankees sponsored the United Spinal Yankees Wheelchair Softball team in their tournament competitions around the United States, providing jerseys for the disabled athletes.

In addition, the Yankees, along with Major League Baseball, hosted a Little League Challenger division game at Yankee Stadium between Astor, N.Y. and Newark, N.J., prior to All-Star festivities in July. The Challenger Division of Little League provides children with physical and mental special needs the opportunity to participate in baseball.

► In August, the Yankees announced they would team up with New Era, Caps For Kids and Hatworld/Lids to unite again and support the fifth annual "Wear Your Cap to School Day." Intended to raise awareness and funds for children with pediatric cancer, "Wear Your Cap to School Day" encouraged schools to allow students to wear their favorite cap to school on Friday, October 23, if they donate one dollar to Caps for Kids. To date, the program has raised nearly $300,000, benefiting Caps For Kids and more than two thousand of its pediatric oncology patients nationwide.

► In the spirit of Thanksgiving, the New York Yankees, along with Plaza Construction, Tishman Speyer, Tri-line Construction, Turner Construction and White Rose donated 500 food vouchers, which were redeemable for turkeys or other Thanksgiving food, to the local community.

► The Yankees teamed up with Goya to hold the 15th Annual Food Drive at Yankee Stadium on December 11, 2008, to benefit Bronx-area residents in need during the holiday season. Fans donating 25 pounds of nonperishable goods received a voucher valid for two tickets to a Yankees game in April or May 2009 (restriction apply). Approximately 50,000 pounds of canned goods were collected as well as nearly $15,000 in cash donations. The Yankees reinvested the $15,000 to purchase additional canned goods from ACE ENDICO in Brewster, N.Y., with the company making an added food contribution. In addition, Goya matched all donations of Goya products pound-for-pound.

NEW STADIUM OFFERS BRONX INCENTIVES

The new Yankee Stadium is one of the premier building projects to take place in the Bronx in the last 50 years. The hard work and dedication of engineers, architects and construction professionals in building and designing the stadium will make the facility one of the most impressive and fan-friendly venues in Major League Baseball. Equally important is the project's dedication to support local community groups, institutions and residents as the Yankees remain devoted to the long-term development of the Bronx.

Building a new state-of-the-art facility requires an army of talented and experienced professionals. As part of the Yankees' commitment to ensure that the Stadium project creates economic opportunities in the Bronx, the Yankees have made a concerted effort to recruit a wide range of vendors and employees from the local community. Of the 190 contracts awarded, 63 were allotted to local businesses (accounting for over 33 percent of the contracts and over $133 million in money invested back into the Bronx community). The Yankees have stayed committed to hiring at least 25 percent of the total workforce from Bronx residents, again providing incentive to the surrounding community.

In conjunction with the construction of the Stadium, the Yankees also established a $1 million training program to teach local Bronx residents professional skills and knowledge to improve their job prospects and performance. Among initiatives supported by the Yankees' grant was Project HJRE (Help in Re-entering Employment), a proven job-training program at Bronx Community College that taught Bronx residents functional construction skills for practical use in local building projects.

Yankees in the Community

Along with members of the Yankees' 1998 Championship team, local Bronx students helped move home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Yankee Stadium to the new Yankee Stadium in November 2008.

YANKEES SPREAD LEGACY GRANTS ACROSS NEW YORK CITY

In conjunction with the 79th All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium in 2008, the Yankees were awarded a $1.5 million Legacy Grant from Major League Baseball earmarked for community distribution. The Yankees allocated the generous donation to various New York City community organizations with a focus on programs involving education, recreation and social outlets for area youth. The charitable funds went to the development of new playgrounds, facilities and supplies and equipment for numerous community groups.

Additionally, the Yankees made an $800,000 monetary donation to the Bronx Fund Advisory Panel as well as an additional $100,000 donation of sports equipment and $100,000 worth of tickets, which was distributed by the Panel to Bronx-based community organizations.

YANKEES HONOR VIRGINIA TECH VICTIMS

On March 18, 2008, the Yankees traveled to Blacksburg, Va., to play an on-campus exhibition game against Virginia Tech at English Field to honor the victims and aid in the healing process following the tragic events that took place on the college's campus on April 16, 2007. The team departed from Tampa at 8:00 a.m. and proceeded straight to the campus memorial site to pay their respects before heading to the stadium. The Yankees' traveling party included Co-Chairperson Hal Steinbrenner, President Randy Levine, General Manager Brian Cashman, Manager Joe Girardi, captain Derek Jeter, as well as All-Stars Robinson Cano, Johnny Damon, Jorge Posada and Alex Rodriguez. During pre-game batting practice, the Yankees donned a special maroon-colored hat with an orange "NY" logo on the front and white piping. The Yankees players signed the commemorative hats for the university to auction off for charity. For the game, the Yankees wore their traditional Yankees caps with the Virginia Tech "VT" logo and memorial ribbon on the side, signifying the tragedy from last April. Prior to the first pitch, 32 orange balloons were released in memory of each victim lost in the heinous act. The Yankees won the exhibition game, 11-0, in front of a packed house of 5,500 people that included many of the victims' families.

In addition to the exhibition game, the Yankees donated $1 million to the "Hokie Spirit Memorial Fund" on May 23, 2007, prior to their game vs. the Boston Red Sox. The Yankees also wore the Virginia Tech logo on their caps and painted a special Virginia Tech logo on the field for that game. Virginia Tech President Dr. Charles Steger threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch. Also on hand for the ceremony were Director of Athletics Jim Weaver, Capt. Vince Houston of the Virginia Tech Police Department and Jason Dominczak and Matthew Johnson of the Virginia Tech Rescue Squad.

YANKEES TRANSFER FROM OLD TO NEW

In a dual-Stadium ceremony on November 8, 2008, Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jeff Nelson and Paul O'Neill of the Yankees' 1998 World Championship team joined Yankees General Partner/Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal and two selected Bronx youth groups in removing home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Yankee Stadium, and installing them in the new Yankee Stadium across the street.

Yankees in the Community

The participating groups—Youth Force 2020, led by Turner Construction Company, and the ACE Mentor Program at Yankee Stadium, guided by Tishman Speyer—have been taking part in Yankees-sponsored after-school programs relating to the construction and engineering of the new Yankee Stadium.

The Yankees hold annual instructional clinics in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela.

Turner's YouthForce 2020 guides young people toward careers in the construction industry, using an Adopt-a-School Program along with internship and scholarship opportunities. Students from high schools such as the Bronx Engineering

Technical Academy (BETA), Alfred E. Smith H.S. and the Institute of Environmental Learning have attended monthly classes at the original Yankee Stadium covering a curriculum tailored to introduce the construction industry to students.

At the conclusion of the program, five $8,000 scholarships ($2,000 for each year of college) are given to selected graduating seniors who go on to pursue degrees in architecture, engineering or construction. Paid internships are also available to graduates of the program. Ninety-nine percent of paid interns go on to become full-time Turner employees.

The Yankee Stadium-affiliated Architecture, Construction and Engineering (ACE) Mentor Program, is designed to enlighten and motivate Bronx high school students toward architecture, construction, engineering and related careers, while providing mentoring opportunities for future designers and constructors. Over the last two years, volunteers from Tishman Speyer have assisted student teams as they take on challenging construction design assignments relating to the new Yankee Stadium.

YANKEES OFFER HURRICANE AND TSUNAMI RELIEF

Following the devastating destruction caused to the Gulf Coast by Hurricanes Gustav and Ike in the summer of 2008, the New York Yankees pledged to donate $1 million to assist in the area's recovery. The donation was earmarked to be split between the American Red Cross and the Salvation Army and go directly to the support and assistance of all community-based organizations along the Gulf Coast, specifically in Louisiana and Texas.

along with coaches Rob Thomson and Tony Pena, presented a Yankees donation of $25,000 on November 14, in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. Following the donation, Yankees minor league manager Jody Reed, several Yankees minor leaguers and Yankees Latin America scouts held a baseball clinic for 240 local orphans. Edwar Ramirez, along with Yankees Latin prospects and staff, helped distribute an additional $10,000 dona-

A $25,000 donation was also made by the Yankees to the Asociacion San Francisco de Asis in Nicaragua to assist victims of Hurricane Felix, a Category 5 storm that devastated the country in early September 2007.

In September 2005, the Yankees made a $1 million donation to the recovery efforts following the catastrophic destruction of Hurricane Katrina on Louisiana and the Gulf Coast. Then, in April of 2005, the Yankees donated $1 million in proceeds from their April 3 season opener against the Red Sox to victims of the tsunamis that ravaged Southeast Asia. Yankees outfielder Hideki Matsui also gave a donation of 50 million Yen to the cause.

YANKEES PREPARE KIDS TO HEAD BACK TO SCHOOL

Each year the Yankees are excited to assist area youth as they head back to school. Along with Lincoln Medical and Mental Health Center, the 2008 Back to School Immunization Fair allowed more than 350 children between the ages of 6-13 to receive—free of charge—the vaccinations required to attend school during the 2008-09 school year. In addition, families who attended the fairs received various giveaway items.

MVP SCHOLARSHIPS

In an effort to highlight academic excellence, the New York Yankees work in conjunction with the administrative staff and teachers of Bronx-based high schools to identify graduating seniors who excel in academic and social environments. These students are awarded the New York Yankees Community Council Most Valuable Pupil Scholarship to assist with costs associated with attending college. To date, over 350 MVP Scholarships have been awarded.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP CORPS

Striving to acknowledge young people who are providing a positive service to their community, the New York Yankees annually work with the 12 Community Boards of the Bronx to identify five area youths in each district that are making a difference. These kids serve on the New York Yankees Community Council Leadership Corps and are provided with a stipend to assist them in continuing their work in the community.

YANKEES HONORED FOR THEIR WORK DAMON NOMINATED FOR COMMUNITY AWARDS

Yankees outfielder Johnny Damon was selected as the team's recipient of the 2008 Roberto Clemente Award presented by Chevrolet, which was established by Major League Baseball in 2002 to honor the memory of Roberto Clemente and is given annually to the Major League Baseball player who combines outstanding skills on the baseball field with devoted work in the community.

The New York chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America also recognized Damon's charitable efforts with the 2008 Dan Epstein "Good Guy" Award. In addition, Damon was honored at the 2009 Thurman Munson Awards dinner.

Yankees in the Community

As national spokesman of the Wounded Warrior Project, Damon makes frequent appearances to create awareness and fundraise for the organization. He also brings wounded soldiers out to spring training and regular season games throughout the year, giving the soldiers a chance to go on the field and meet other Yankees. Damon also organizes visits to recovering soldiers at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Baltimore, bringing along several Yankees teammates when the team is in town to play the Orioles.

He also continued his work with the Johnny Damon Foundation in 2008, hosting the third annual Johnny Damon Foundation Celebrity Golf Classic and Johnny Jam '08 to raise money for Orlando, Fla.-area charities and the Wounded Warrior Project. In 2009, Damon will once again assume the role as Yankees Home Run Captain, donating money to the Children's Health Fund for each regular season and postseason homer the Yankees hit as a team.

DEREK JETER NAMED FINALIST FOR MARVIN MILLER AWARD

Yankees All-Star shortstop Derek Jeter was selected as one of six finalists for the 2008 Marvin Miller "Man of the Year" Award, which is presented annually to a player elected by his peers as the one who best combines on-field performance with community service.

In 2008, the Yankees captain continued his tireless charity work with his Turn 2 Foundation. Launched in 1996, Jeter's Foundation was aimed at creating and supporting signature programs and activities that motivate young people to turn away from drugs and alcohol and "Turn 2" healthy lifestyles. Through these ventures, the Foundation strives to create outlets that promote and reward academic excellence, leadership development and positive behavior. Turn 2's goal is to see the children of these programs grow safely and successfully into adulthood and become the leaders of tomorrow. From an annual leadership conference to baseball clinics in Michigan, New York City and Tampa, the Turn 2 Foundation is able to reward the positive behavior of children, especially those demonstrating academic achievement and leadership.

Following the 2008 season, Jeter hosted his annual Holiday Express, his 12th Annual Foundation Dinner in New York City and his sixth annual Celebrity Golf Classic in Tampa. The Turn 2 Foundation has raised over $8 million dollars since its inception.

YANKEES THROUGHOUT THE COMMUNITY

THE JORGE POSADA FOUNDATION

Yankees catcher Jorge Posada, along with his wife, Laura, created The Jorge Posada Foundation in the fall of 2000 after their son, Jorge Luis, was diagnosed with craniosynostosis 10 days after his birth. The foundation aims to provide financial assistance to families with children affected by this condition and offer them emotional support through its Mentors Program. The foundation hosted the seventh annual Heroes for Hope Gala in June 2008 and the second Celebrity Baseball Tournament in San Juan, Puerto Rico in January 2009, raising funds for the Foundation.

Posada has twice been nominated as the team's Roberto Clemente Award recipient (2005 and 2007). He has been given the 2001 Milton Richman "You Gotta Have Heart" Award by the New York Chapter of the BBWAA, the 2001 Thurman Munson Award for his baseball accomplishments and philanthropic work in New York, the 2004 "Good Guy" Award by the New York Press Photographers Association, the Bart Giamatti "Caring" Award from MLB's Baseball Assistance Team and the Kids in Distressed Situations' Mentor Award in 2007.

Laura has also been honored for her charitable contributions, receiving the 2007 "Commitment to Family" Award from the New York Boys and Girls Town of New York, and was recognized as an "Inspiring Woman" by Siempre Mujer in 2008.

A-ROD LEAVES COMMUNITY FOOTPRINTS

Three-time American League MVP Alex Rodriguez is dedicated to positively impacting families in distress by supporting programs focusing on improved quality of life, education and mental health.

For his accomplishments on the field and his philanthropic work within the community, Rodriguez received the prestigious Thurman Munson Award in 2007. In 2008, he reaffirmed his commitment to giving back to the local Bronx community, making a $250,000 donation toward the completion of the new Pediatric Outpatient Unit at Bronx-Lebanon Hospital in New York City, aimed at providing quality medical attention for local children who are not covered by insurance. He also pledged another $250,000 over the next five years to fund the Community DentCare Network from the Columbia University College of Dentistry, sponsoring mobile vans in the Bronx and Washington Heights that provide dental care and education to those who cannot otherwise afford it. In addition, Rodriguez pledged an annual donation to the Bronx-based Glory of Christ Church in memory of Bobby Murcer who was an annual supporter of the church's soup kitchen prior to his passing in 2008. He was presented with a plaque by the United Youth Baseball League on April 4, 2008, after donating $10,000 to the league to help pay for field fees, insurance and uniforms for the kids. In July 2008, he spoke to 2,000 Bronx children about the importance of education and practice at Macombs Dam Park, adjacent to the new Yankee Stadium.

Three-time AL MVP Alex Rodriguez hosted a clinic in November 2007 at the Boys & Girls Club in Miami.

A-Rod also continues his tireless work with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Miami-Dade, which he joined in 1982 at the age of 7 and remained a member until the day he was drafted in 1993. Rodriguez personally pledged $500,000 to the Alex Rodriguez Learning Center in 2007, a 10,000-square-foot educational facility that aims for the advancement of literacy, computer study and math, and includes a state-of-the-art computer laboratory, an art room, a library, classrooms for homework and a teen center. The center is anticipated to open its doors during the spring of 2009.

Yankee STADIUM

The 2009 season marks a new era for the winningest team in modern baseball history as the New York Yankees move their grand stage next door with the opening of Yankee Stadium. Located directly across the street from the site of the original, the new Stadium's architecture is a celebration of the spirit and tradition of the franchise. While firmly rooted in the past, the Stadium has a vision toward the future, incorporating the best in technology and state-of-the-art guest services.

All of the Stadium's modern amenities exist within the framework of classic elements of the original, most notably the instantly recognizable frieze that again circles the grandstand. Among the countless fan-friendly elements, massive video boards give Yankees fans more information than ever before, and concessions have been placed on open concourses that allow for continuous viewing of the game.

Yankee Stadium, as a living museum, has been designed to set the standard—much like the team has done with its 26 World Championships.

THE STADIUM SITE

The Yankees are proud to be staying in the Bronx, which is home to approximately 1.4 million residents and is one of the five boroughs that make up New York City.

The new Stadium sits on former parkland from Macombs Dam Park and Mullaly Park, with the Stadium grounds bounded by Jerome Avenue to the west, River Avenue to the east and 161st Street to the south. The northern edge of the site is located between 162nd Street and 164th Street. In a nod to tradition, the footprint of the original Stadium has been replicated in the new Stadium. Not only are the dimensions of the previous playing field being maintained, but the manner in which the field is angled toward the sun is also the same.

The new Yankee Stadium will be the fourth permanent home of the New York Yankees, following Hilltop Park (1903-12), the Polo Grounds (1913-22), and the original Yankee Stadium (1923-73, '76-2008). The Yankees also played two full seasons at Shea Stadium (1974-75) in Queens when the original Stadium underwent remodeling.

THE GLORY OF THE YANKEES PHOTO COLLECTION

presented by the Daily News

To enhance Yankee Stadium—as the living museum that it is—guests will find located throughout the Stadium, The Glory of the Yankees Photo Collection, presented by the Daily News. The collection celebrates the franchise's and a key part of American baseball's rich history through the camera's lens. Rarely seen photographs from the Daily News' archives capture wonderful images of players, managers, Yankees personalities and iconic Yankees moments.

HOMAGE TO THE ORIGINAL STADIUM

The new Yankee Stadium evokes the spirit of the original with many of the lost treasures that existed prior the renovations of 1974-75 restored.

Gate 4, the main entrance behind home plate, was designed with the 1923 original in mind. The Stadium's name has been placed in thin block letters above vaulted archways and is surrounded by ornate eagle medallions measuring 7 feet 4 inches in diameter.

The medallions were re-created based on those from the original and modified to appear more dimensional and dynamic in an attempt to capture a more athletic spirit.

The signature frieze returns to the top of the Stadium bowl. As in the past, it is attached to a roof that extends into the Stadium, covering the top rows of the Grandstand.

Many elements of the outfield return to their former glory. The manually operated auxiliary scoreboards on the left- and right-centerfield fences, made famous in photos of Don Larsen's 1956 World Series perfect game, have been re-created. The Yankees bullpen is in right field again, although in front of the bleachers, and the visiting team's bullpen remains in left field, also in front of the bleachers.

Monument Park has been relocated to its original position in centerfield, albeit behind the fence, unlike before the renovation when the monuments were on the playing field. All plaques and monuments are on display for fans as are the tribute displays for the 16 Yankees who have had their numbers retired.

One of the most unique elements of the old Stadium has been replicated in the new Stadium. The gap between the bleachers and stands in right field again allows guests in the Stadium a glimpse of the elevated No. 4 train on River Avenue as it rushes by behind the exterior outfield wall.

On the Main Level near Gate 6, the New York Yankees Museum—a museum within a museum—tells the story of baseball and the Yankees franchise through various displays of artifacts and memorabilia. Items include a “Ball Wall” with hundreds of signed baseballs from Yankees greats, Thurman Munson’s locker from the original Yankee Stadium and a replica of a locker from the Yankees clubhouse in the new Stadium. On game days, fans are welcome in the museum from the time the gates open until the end of the eighth inning. On non-game days, visitors can enjoy the museum as part of Yankee Stadium tours.

Babe Ruth Plaza, located on the south side of the Stadium, between Gates 4 and 6, honors the man proverbially credited with building the original House that Ruth Built. Through a series of storyboards displayed on light posts, the Babe’s life story is recounted throughout the plaza.

The iconic frieze circles the Grandstand.

The eagle medallion [L], which is found on the Field Level near Gate 4, is a bronzed replica of those set on the exterior of the Stadium (below), which is reminiscent of the original Stadium.

INNOVATIVE ARCHITECTURE AND MODERN AMENITIES

One of the goals in building Yankee Stadium was to bring fans closer to the action in a facility more attuned to modern needs and expectations. Possessing a capacity similar to that of the prior Stadium, the new building is 63 percent larger with about 500,000 square feet of additional space.

Approximately two-thirds of the Stadium's seats are in the lower half of the building, which reverses the arrangement of the old Stadium, which had roughly two-thirds of the seats in the upper half. The seats themselves are uniformly dark blue and more in line with the color of the team's caps and pinstripes.

Improved sight lines, wider concourses and the installation of nearly 1,100 high-definition video monitors throughout the Stadium ensure guests won't miss a minute of on-field action while in their seats or at concessions stands. In addition to the live game broadcast, these centrally controlled Internet protocol monitors can also provide up-to-the-moment news, scores, weather, traffic information and safety updates.

The Great Hall is a 31,000-square-foot space located between the Stadium's exterior wall and the interior of the Stadium. Spanning from Gate 4 to Gate 6, it is covered overhead but with massive open-air archways, which helps support the Yankees' "green initiative." It is home to large banners bearing the images of past Yankees greats from Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Yogi Berra to more modern stars such as Don Mattingly and Paul O'Neill. A 24-foot-high-by-36-foot-wide 10mm true high-definition video board board, which is flanked by two smaller video boards that display day-of-game lineups and out-of-town scores. Additionally, the entire length of the Terrace Level is spanned by a 3-foot-high, 1,279-foot long full-color LED ribbon board, and a distributed sound system optimizes speaker placement for audio quality vastly superior to that in the old Stadium. The entire Stadium is built with a future-proof infrastructure designed by Cisco Systems that is easily adaptable to new technologies.

A 7,000-square-foot state-of-the-art banquet and conference center is designed to meet the needs of guests who wish to host business functions in the Stadium.

A 3-foot-by-1,279-foot LED ribbon board runs the length of the Terrace Level.

URBAN PLANNING

The site for Yankee Stadium was in part selected for its proximity to mass transit. Like the original Stadium, it remains easily accessible by public transportation and is served at the 161st Street/Yankee Stadium stop by the No. 4 train, which operates from Brooklyn through the East Side of Manhattan and into the Bronx, and the B and D subway lines, which operate from Brooklyn through the West Side of Manhattan and into the Bronx. Fans are strongly encouraged to use public transportation as ongoing construction in areas surrounding Yankee Stadium may cause street and parking lot closures.

The No. 4 elevated subway line stops at Yankee Stadium.

June 18, 2008

Yankees host first press conference at Yankee Stadium to announce Hard Rock Cafe and NY Steak in Stadium locations.

September 19, 2008

Blue backlit "Yankee Stadium" letters are installed.

New in 2009, Metro-North will offer train service to Yankee Stadium via the Hudson, Harlem, and New Haven Lines - from anywhere in its service territory, including frequent direct shuttles from Grand Central Terminal. An overpass links the station platform to 153rd Street and Ruppert Place, where a path leads to the Stadium. For complete details on the station, including its anticipated opening date, as well as fare and schedule information, please visit www.mta.info or call (212) 532-4900.

As in previous years, Yankee Stadium will be accessible by ferry service (800-53-FERRY) and New York City Transit bus lines (718-330-1234).

Babe Ruth Plaza facilitates pedestrian movement outside Yankee Stadium.

Pedestrian access points are located at Yankee Stadium's four gates: Gate 2 on Jerome Avenue just south of 164th Street; Gate 4 at Jerome Avenue and 161st Street; Gate 6 at River Avenue and 161st Street and Gate 8 at River Avenue, south of 164th Street.

Gate 6 greets fans who take the subway to Yankee Stadium.

Babe Ruth Plaza, the approximately 52,000-square-foot public space along East 161st Street, facilitates pedestrian movement into the Stadium on game days. Also assisting those on foot is the redesign of Ruppert Place (which abutted the west side of the original Stadium). It will be closed to vehicular traffic and mapped as passive parkland for use as a pedestrian plaza leading to the new Stadium. Other streetscape improvements include repaved sidewalks, newly planted trees and superior pedestrian lighting.

FOR THE BALLPLAYERS

Yankees players receive a monumental upgrade in their facilities with their move across the street. The new home clubhouse dressing area is significantly larger than the one in the original Stadium, and all facilities are improved and expanded, including the weight room, video room, training room and lounge area. Additionally, indoor batting cages have been placed next to the clubhouses of both teams.

The Yankees' new clubhouse is significantly larger than the one in the original Stadium.

October 15, 2008

The first sections of sod are laid.

October 2008

Lighting in the interior bowl is tested.

November 8, 2008

Home plate is moved from the original Yankee Stadium and installed in the new Stadium.

RETAIL & FOOD OPTIONS

Yankee Stadium will offer a large variety of retail and food options. There are three distinct retail stores—the 5,825-square-foot Home Plate Store in the Great Hall near Gate 4, which houses the largest selection of Yankees merchandise and memorabilia; the New Era Yankee Stadium Flagship Store on the Main Level, which sells caps and other Yankees merchandise; and the Great Hall Store at Gate 6, which sells various items and is open year-round. Other stores include the Peter Max Art Gallery and the Yankees Steiner Collectibles Store, both located on the Field Level.

The Yankees add two premier dining establishments in the new ballpark. The iconic Hard Rock Cafe is open year-round and houses music memorabilia and Yankees-related pieces in a 7,000 square-foot restaurant at Gate 6, and the newly created NYY Steak, located above the Hard Rock Cafe, offers an upscale dining experience based on the Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino's Council Oak Steak & Seafood Restaurant.

There are two food courts in the Stadium. The outdoor Bleachers Café is located adjacent to the Bleachers and above the Mohegan Sun Sports Bar in center field, and a New York-themed food court can be found on the third-base side of the Field Level concourse.

Game-day concessions are more diverse and accessible than ever before. They have also been designed to allow fans as much continuous viewing of the game as possible via open concourses and high definition video monitors. A complete list of concessions may be found at www.yankees.com.

Membership restaurants include the Audi Yankees Club on the H&R Block Suite Level and the Mohegan Sun Sports Bar above Monument Park in center field.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

In addition to the donations and community-related outreach with which the New York Yankees Foundation is regularly involved, the Yankees also sought to specifically ensure that the surrounding community is positively affected by the construction of Yankee Stadium. In the process of building the Stadium, all requirements of the Yankees' Community Benefit Agreement with Bronx County were met or exceeded.

During a period marked by reduced overall economic activity, the new Yankee Stadium project created more than 6,000 union construction jobs. The Yankees also provided $1 million for pre-apprentice job training programs, providing approximately 700 individuals with the skills to pursue careers in the construction industry through programs such as Helmets to Hardhats, the Building and Construction Trades Council of Greater New York, Non-Traditional Employment for Women, and Project H.I.R.E.

All mandated goals to employ minorities, women and local employees were reached as the workforce consisted of 25 percent Bronx residents and 38 percent minorities. Sixty-three of 190 Stadium contracts were given to Bronx-based companies—of which more than half were owned by minorities or women.

In the course of the project, the Yankees awarded more than $443 million in contracts to state companies, more than $306 million to those in the city and more than $134 million to companies in the Bronx. The project also catalyzed the creation of a new Metro-North rail stop as well as additional parking garage spots available to those in the community. All told, the Stadium will create more than 1,000 new jobs when completed.

Generations of Bronx residents will continue to benefit from the Yankees' involvement in the area as the team has embarked on the New Yankee Stadium Fund—a 40-year commitment of donating $800,000 per year to Bronx-resident not-for-profit institutions and community-based organizations. The administration and distribution of the fund is carried out by individuals appointed by Bronx officials, and all disbursement decisions are made entirely independent from the Yankees or the New York Yankees Foundation. Additionally, the Yankees will provide at least 15,000 tickets to Yankees home games and $100,000 of equipment and promotional merchandise for each of the next 40 years to schools and other groups, all of which will be distributed by the supervisors of the fund working independently from the Yankees or any Yankees charities.

High school students in Turner Construction's Youth Force 2020

Young people became directly involved with the Stadium construction project through various Bronx-based youth groups, including YouthForce 2020, led by Turner Construction Company, and the ACE Mentor Program at Yankee Stadium, guided by Tishman Speyer.

Turner's YouthForce 2020 guided 500 young people toward careers in the construction industry using an Adopt-a-School Program along with internship and scholarship opportunities. Students from high schools including the Bronx Engineering Technical Academy (BETA), Alfred E. Smith H.S. and the Institute of Environmental Learning attended monthly classes at the original Yankee Stadium covering a curriculum tailored to introduce the construction industry to students.

At the conclusion of the program, five $8,000 scholarships ($2,000 for each year of college) were given to select graduating seniors who plan to pursue degrees in architecture, engineering or construction.

Paid internships are also available to graduates of the program. Ninety-nine percent of paid interns go on to become full-time Turner employees.

Youth Force 2020 participants tour the construction site.

The Yankee Stadium-affiliated Architecture, Construction and Engineering (ACE) Mentor Program was designed to enlighten and motivate Bronx high school students toward architecture, construction, engineering and related careers, while providing mentoring opportunities for future designers and constructors. Over the last two years, volunteers from Tishman Speyer have assisted approximately 100 students working on challenging construction design assignments relating to Yankee Stadium.

The 30 students in the 2008-09 ACE program met for two hours each week, working toward a final presentation in May 2009. The students from the most recent class represent many local high schools, including Harry S. Truman H.S., DeWitt Clinton H.S., Alfred E. Smith H.S., BETA, NYC Charter H.S. for Architecture, Engineering & Construction, New School for Arts & Sciences, Lehman H.S., Bronx H.S. for the Visual Arts, Mt. St. Michael Academy, Bronx Science and Holcombe L. Rucker. All five of the high school seniors involved in the 2007-08 ACE Mentoring program went on to four-year colleges.

GREEN DESIGN

The Yankees want to promote a sustainable environment and are implementing green initiatives in many facets of Yankee Stadium, including:

SPORTS LIGHTING – The 2009 Yankees take the playing field under the glow of some of the most advanced lighting technology in the world. Each fixture above Yankee Stadium consumes around 300 fewer watts than a typical stadium fixture, but high-efficiency reflectors make up the difference by vastly decreasing waste-energy and “light-spill” onto adjacent property. Additionally, control systems and building automation increase the lifetime of the lighting system by some

The Great Hall does not have air conditioning and instead relies on natural cooling.

3,000 to 5,000 lamp-hours. These lighting improvements save nearly 207,000 pounds of CO₂ emissions per night game—the equivalent of one tree being planted for every pitch of the 2009 home season or taking 15 cars off the road for one year. The overall energy savings as a result of the Yankees’ lighting choices could light 75 homes for an entire year.

SUSTAINABILITY FACILITY PROGRAM – This program ensures the efficiency of all equipment while focusing on energy reduction. Beverage cups in the Stadium are made of biodegradable material instead of petroleum-based plastics. Waste generation is combated by composting and the recycling of cardboard, glass, metal, plastics and paper. These methods should divert approximately 40 percent of the Stadium’s trash away from landfills, resulting in fewer trash pickups and making for a quieter and more beautiful Bronx.

BUILDING CONTROL AND AUTOMATION TECHNOLOGY – Building controls in the new Stadium are calibrated to the specific usage patterns of the facility, reducing unnecessary power consumption by lighting and ventilation systems.

GREAT HALL – The new Stadium’s signature meeting space does not have CO₂-emitting, electric air-conditioning and instead relies on natural cooling. The savings is about the same as 10,000 New York City apartments shutting off their air-conditioning on a summer day.

REST ROOMS – Each year, Yankee Stadium’s plumbing fixtures are projected to save 3.1

million gallons of water while reducing the Stadium's water consumption by 22 percent. Additionally, Yankee Stadium uses GoJo hand soap, which doesn't require water for use. If every guest takes advantage of this feature, close to 1 million gallons of clean water would be saved per season.

PAPER PRODUCTS – The Yankees are committed to purchasing only paper products that are 100 percent recyclable. Yankee Stadium is also the first Major League facility to maintain all of its operations and maintenance manuals in electronic form only, a course of action that saves 10 trees, 100 pounds of solid waste, 1,000 gallons of waste water and 10,000 kilowatt-hours of electricity.

SAFETY AND GUEST SERVICES

The Yankees want every guest to have a safe and enjoyable experience at Yankee Stadium. With the installation of Stadium Vision (IPTV technology), Yankees security can instantly direct fans by posting emergency information or evacuation instructions on any or all of the Stadium's 1,100 high-definition video monitors.

Another initiative is GuestAssist, a state-of-the-art two-way, text-messaging-based communication platform that allows guests to use their cell phones to text questions, concerns or requests to Yankee Stadium staff, who monitor these text messages as they are received. Stadium staff will send a reply message to answer any questions or to obtain more information. If necessary, safety/security, medical or guest services staff can be dispatched to the appropriate location. GuestAssist also provides the Yankees with post-game analysis of guests' concerns, which will help the Yankees improve staffing, fine-tune security procedures and better understand guests' needs. GuestAssist services may be accessed by texting 69900 (standard messaging rates apply).

The Stadium contains 16 public elevators, a vast improvement over the four that were available in the previous building. There are two at each of the four Gates of the Stadium and eight in the Great Hall.

The Yankees will continue to offer the Budweiser Good Sport Program as a thank you to fans who respect the rights of others, drink responsibly and designate a driver at Yankees home games. For more information, visit any Guest Services Booth. Additionally, in accordance with New York State law, the Stadium has a no-smoking policy with no designated smoking areas—a policy that will be strictly enforced.

Safety information can be posted on any or all of Yankee Stadium's 1,100 high-definition video monitors.

DISABLED SERVICES

Yankee Stadium strives to provide an accessible environment for its guests. Wheelchair accessible and aisle transfer seats are available at various price points and locations, and include the Yankees' Premium Offerings seat locations. The Stadium also offers enhanced accessibility for guests with limited seeing or hearing impairments or for guests who are deaf, hard of hearing or blind. The Yankees extend their appreciation to those who participated in the periodic outreach meetings, led by United Spinal Association, to help build one of the most accessible stadiums in the country.

Closed-captioning is available on closed-captioning video boards in left and right field and on the center field video board as well as on the high-definition video monitors throughout Yankee Stadium.

YANKEE STADIUM TIMELINE

JUNE 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium to be constructed on parkland north of 161st Street – adjacent to the original Stadium's longtime site.

AUGUST 16, 2006 – The Yankees break ground for Yankee Stadium at a ceremony featuring George M. Steinbrenner, New York Governor George Pataki, New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg, Bronx Borough President Adolfo Carrion and Commissioner Bud Selig.

OCTOBER 2006 – The first concrete is poured.

DECEMBER 2007 – The first piece of frieze is put in place.

DECEMBER 2007 – The Stadium is considered 50 percent completed.

JANUARY 14-15, 2008 – Limestone panels containing "YANKEE STADIUM" gold lettering are installed above Gate 4.

N.L. Manager of the Year

N.L. All-Star Team

► 2000

At the Helm in 2008

- Completed his first season as Manager of the New York Yankees in 2008, guiding the club to an 89-73 record and a third-place finish in the AL East.
- Was one of only two managers (also the Angels' Mike Scioscia) whose team did not lose more than four consecutive games during the 2008 season.
- Under his guidance, the Yankees ranked second in the AL and fifth in the Majors with a .986 fielding percentage (83E, 5,994TC)...their error total was their lowest since the strike-shortened 1995 season (74) and marked their fewest miscues ever in a non-abbreviated season.
- After beginning the season 33-33, went 56-40 from 6/12 through the end of the season to record the fourth-best record in the Majors over the stretch.
- Won his Yankees managerial debut on 4/1 vs. Toronto (lost his only previous Opening Day as Manager in 2006 with Florida)...became the 10th manager to win his Yankees managerial debut on an Opening Day.
- Missed two games with an upper respiratory infection from 4/4-5 (bench coach Rob Thomson served as manager).
- Earned his 100th career managerial win on 5/22 vs. Baltimore (78 wins with Florida in 2006 and 22 wins with the Yankees in 2008)...was ejected by HP umpire Chris Guccione in the bottom of the ninth inning in the game...was his sixth career ejection, third as a manager, first as Yankees Manager and second as a Yankee (also 8/6/99 at Seattle as a player)...served one-game suspension (kicking dirt on umpire) issued by Major League Baseball the following day (5/23)...was also ejected in the bottom of the sixth inning of 7/5 win vs. Boston by HP umpire Laz Diaz...the Yankees won both games he was ejected from in 2008 with "walk-off" hits.
- Was named the 32nd manager in club history on 10/30/07, becoming the 17th Yankees manager to have played for the club and fourth former Yankees catcher to skipper the team (also Bill Dickey, Ralph Houk and Yogi Berra).
- At 44 years old, is the third-youngest manager in the Major Leagues, behind the Washington Nationals' Manny Acta (40) and the Cleveland Indians' Eric Wedge (41).

Managing/Coaching Career

- Was named the 2006 National League "Manager of the Year" by the Baseball Writers Association of America and the Sporting News...guided the Florida Marlins to a 78-84 record in his first season as a Major League manager...with the award, joined the Houston Astros' Hal Lanier (1986) and the San Francisco Giants' Dusty Baker (1993) as the only managers to win the honor in their managerial debuts...at the age of 41, became the youngest manager in Marlins history (previously 47-year-old John Boles in 1996)...was named Marlins manager just two seasons after retiring as a player prior to the 2004 campaign, marking the shortest time between being an active player (2003) and making a managerial debut (2006) since 1987, when both John Wathan (Kansas City) and Larry Bowa (San Diego) became managers after last playing during the 1985 season.
- Became the first manager to improve his club's record above .500 after falling at least 20 games below the .500 mark during the same season...the Marlins were a season-low 20 games under .500 on 5/21 (11-31), but then went 62-41 through 9/12 to improve to 73-72...the only other Major League team to return to the .500 mark after falling 20 or more games below was the 1899 Louisville Colonels, who were 22 games under at 16-38 and improved to 72-72-3 before finishing with a record of 75-77-3.

JOE GIRARDI

- Managed Anibal Sanchez's no-hit performance on 9/6/06 vs. Arizona...was the fourth no-hitter in Marlins history and the fourth no-hitter that Girardi has been a part of, having caught two (Dwight Gooden's on 5/14/96 and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99) and being a teammate in one (David Wells' perfect game on 5/17/98)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Girardi became the first person since Jeff Torborg to both catch and manage a no-hitter...Torborg managed Wilson Alvarez's no-hitter on 9/11/91 with the White Sox after catching no-hitters by Sandy Koufax (perfect game, 9/9/65), Bill Singer (7/20/70) and Nolan Ryan (5/15/73).
- The 2006 Marlins club featured 22 rookies, 21 of whom appeared before 9/1, with 11 making their Major League debuts...Florida hit a then-club-record 182 home runs, featuring four players with 20 or more homers and 10 players with double-digit home run totals...became the first National League team that season to have five different pitchers record 10 or more wins, accomplishing the feat for the first time in franchise history...rookie pitchers accounted for 50 of the Marlins' 78 wins, the most rookie victories for a Major League team since the 1952 Dodgers (51).
- Made his coaching debut in 2005, serving as bench coach and catching instructor on Joe Torre's New York Yankees staff...assisted in guiding the Yankees to a 95-67 (.586) record and the American League East title.
- Appeared in 39 career postseason games as a player, most among all current American League managers...among Major League managers, only Chicago's Lou Piniella (44) and Cincinnati's Dusty Baker (40) appeared in more postseason games as a player.

DID YOU KNOW? Joe Girardi and Yogi Berra are the only Yankees catchers to be behind the plate for two regular season no-hitters. Girardi was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal. Berra caught both of Allie Reynolds' no-hitters in 1951.

Playing Career

- Played parts of 15 seasons as a catcher in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1989-92 and 2000-02), Colorado Rockies (1993-95), New York Yankees (1996-99) and St. Louis Cardinals (2003)...was a member of three World Series Championship teams in New York (1996, 1998-99) and played in a total of six postseasons with the Cubs (1989), Rockies (1995) and Yankees (1996-99).
- In 1,277 career Major League games, batted .267 (1,100-for-4,127) with 454 runs, 186 doubles, 36HR and 422RBI, finishing with a .991 career fielding percentage while throwing out 27.6% of potential base stealers...batted .184 (21-for-114) with 2 triples and 1RBI in 39 career postseason games.
- Saw his first Major League action in 1989 as the Cubs' Opening Day catcher...was the first rookie catcher to start a season opener for the Cubs since Randy Hundley in 1966...was selected to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie Team...played in four games of the 1989 NL Championship Series against San Francisco, recording one hit.
- In 1990, played his first full big league season...stole eight bases, the most by a Cubs catcher since Gabby Hartnett's 10 in 1924...ranked second among NL catchers in assists (61) and threw out 33.3% of baserunners attempting to steal (38-of-114).
- On 8/7/91, in his first game back after missing nearly four months with a strained lower back, suffered a broken nose in a home plate collision with the Phillies' John Kruk.
- Was the expansion Rockies' starting catcher in 1993, batting .290 (90-for-310) with 3HR and 31RBI in 86 games...was selected by the Rockies with the 19th pick in the Expansion Draft from the Cubs.
- Established career highs with 8HR, 55RBI and 63R in 1995 with the Colorado Rockies...recorded 4H and 4R on Opening Day vs. the Mets (4/26)...hit his first career pinch-hit homer on 8/6 off San Diego's Trevor Hoffman.
- Acquired by the Yankees on 11/3/95 from the Rockies in exchange for LHP Mike DeJean...hit a career-high .294 with 2HR and 45RBI for the World Series Champions...stole 13 bases, marking the highest total among big league catchers and a record for a Yankees catcher...stole home on the front end of a double steal on 4/11 vs. Kansas City, becoming the first Yankees catcher to steal home since Jake Gibbs on 7/13/1968...had two triples during the 1996 postseason, including a run-scoring three-base hit off Greg Maddux in Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium.
- Was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle...in his final season as a player with the Yankees, caught David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal...had a career-high 7RBI on 8/23/99 in a 21-3 victory at Texas, going 4-for-6 with 2 doubles and 1 triple.

JOE GIRARDI

- ▶ Rejoined the Cubs organization in 2000 and earned his first and only trip to an All-Star Game that season in Atlanta as a replacement for the injured Mike Piazza (did not play)...when he homered on 5/2/00 vs. Houston off Jose Lima, it was his first Cubs home run since 5/8/92...only one player, Billy Jurgens, had a longer span between homers with the Cubs...Jurgens hit a home run on 8/2/1938 and 8/27/1947 – a span of over nine years.
- ▶ Recorded his 1,000th Major League hit on 5/27/01 vs. Milwaukee off RHP Jimmy Haynes – a seventh-inning, game-winning, two-run double.
- ▶ Was one of the Cubs' co-captains in 2001 and 2002.
- ▶ Played his final career regular season game on 9/28/03 at Arizona with the St. Louis Cardinals...his single in the ninth inning off the Diamondbacks' Edgar Gonzalez gave him 1,100 career hits.

Baseball Glossary

HOW TO FIGURE...

Batting Average: (H/AB) Hits divided by at-bats.

ERA: (ERx9/IP) Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: (TB/AB) Total bases (1B=1, 2B=2, 3B=3, HR=4) divided by at-bats.

On-Base Percentage: (H+BB+HBP)/(H+BB+HBP+SF)
Add hits, walks, hit by pitch and divide by the total of hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Fielding Percentage: (PO+A)/(PO+A+E) Total putouts plus assists divided by total chances.

Winning Percentage: The number of games won divided by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFYING RULES

Batting Championship: To qualify for a batting title, a player must make 502 or more plate appearances or 3.1 plate appearances per team game.

Fielding Championship: To qualify as the top fielder:
(a) a catcher must have played in at least 81 games.
(b) an infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games.
(c) a pitcher must have 162.0 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
b. He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.
No more than one save may be credited each game.

Status

- Signed by the Yankees as a minor league free agent on March 10, 2008...signed through the 2009 season.

- Was 1-0 with a 2.40 ERA in six games (four starts) with the Yankees...opponents batted .227 (25-for-110, 4HR); LH .238 (15-for-63, 3HR), RH .213 (10-for-47, 1HR).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the fifth Mexican-born player to pitch for the Yankees, joining Juan Acevedo, Esteban Loaiza, Antonio Osuna and Alfonso Pulido...was the third to start (also Loaiza and Pulido).
- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the 25-man active roster from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre prior to 8/28 win vs. Boston.
- Made his Major League debut in 8/31 loss vs. Toronto, retiring all six of his batters faced (2.0IP, 3K)...became the 25th different pitcher to appear for the Yankees, surpassing their 2007 total (24) prior to September callups.
- Threw 5.0 innings of relief in 9/4 loss at Tampa Bay (5H, 1ER, 2BB, 4K, 1HR)...was the longest relief outing by a Yankee in 2008.
- Made his first Major League start on 9/9 at Los Angeles (AL), recording the win in a 7-1 Yankees victory...allowed just 1ER on 6H in 7.0IP (0BB, 2K)...became the first Yankee to earn the win in his first Major League start since Ian Kennedy on 9/1/07 vs. Tampa Bay...was the first Yankee to do so on the road since Tyler Clippard on 5/20/07 at the Mets...joined Loaiza as the only Mexican-born pitchers to earn a win in their first start with the Yankees...held right-handed batters hitless in their first 15 Major League AB against him until Robb Quinlan's fifth-inning single.
- Started and threw 6.0 scoreless innings in 9/20 win vs. Baltimore but did not record a decision in the second-to-last game at Yankee Stadium...recorded an unassisted double play in the first inning, catching a pop-up on Adam Jones' bunt attempt then doubling Brian Roberts off second base by himself...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first unassisted double play by a Major League pitcher since Dave Bush accomplished the feat on 6/23/07 vs. Kansas City w/ Milwaukee...also recorded the third out in the first inning to become the first pitcher to collect three putouts in one inning since 9/1/07 (Dan Haren w/ Oakland vs. Detroit).
- Was 8-6 with a 2.62 ERA in 25 games (23 starts) this season combined at Single-A Tampa, Double-A Trenton and Scranton/WB (140.2IP, 111H, 47R, 41ER, 27BB, 114K)...opponents combined to bat .217 (111-for-512, 10HR); LH .200 (42-for-210, 8HR), RH .227 (69-for-302, 2HR).
- Began the season with Tampa, going 4-1 with a 2.11 ERA in eight starts (47.0IP, 11ER) before being promoted to Trenton on 5/20...allowed just 1ER over his final three starts with Tampa (19.1IP).

Status

- Acquired from the Washington Nationals in exchange for RHP Tyler Clippard on December 5, 2007...signed through the 2009 season.

- Was 0-1 with a 3.95 ERA in seven relief appearances over three stints with the Yankees (3/31-4/5; 4/14-18 and 4/25-5/10)...opponents batted .294 (15-for-51, 1HR); LH .304 (7-for-23, 0HR), RH .286 (8-for-28, 1HR)...retired 4-of-7 first batters faced...allowed just one of his five inherited runners to score.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster...Yankees debut came in 4/4 loss vs. Tampa Bay, tossing 2.2 scoreless innings (1H, 4K)...was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre the next day when Andy Pettitte was reinstated from the D.L.
- Returned to the Yankees from 4/14-18 when Joba Chamberlain was placed on the bereavement list...tossed a career-high 3.0 innings in 4/17 loss vs. Boston, allowing 4H and 2ER (1BB, 3K).
- Was recalled again on 4/25 when Brian Bruney was placed on the disabled list.
- Made his seventh—and final—appearance of the season in 5/9 loss at Detroit, tossing 2.1 scoreless innings (2H, 1BB, 2K) before being removed from the game with a sore right elbow...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/10 with a sprained right elbow, which was later diagnosed as a right elbow stress fracture...was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 6/18...missed 125 team games.
- Began a rehab assignment on 9/2...in four combined games with short-season Single-A Staten Island and Scranton/WB (including playoff action), recorded a 3.12 ERA with no decisions (8.2IP)...threw 2.2IP in SWB's International League title-clinching game on 9/12 at Durham, allowing 3H and 1ER in the 20-2 victory.
- In 166 games over eight minor league seasons (2001-08), has averaged just 1.76BB/9.0IP (548.1IP, 107BB).
- Pitched for Mayaguez in the Puerto Rican Winter League, allowing just 1ER in 22.0IP over 20 regular season appearances...converted 14-of-15 save opportunities and struck out 18 batters while walking only two.

A.J. BURNETT

- ▶ Made his lone relief appearance of the season—and fourth of his career—on 4/16 vs. Texas, allowing 2ER in 1.0IP and recording the loss in the 14-inning contest...posted a 4-1 record with a 3.73 ERA in Interleague play...his .722 (13-5) career winning percentage in Interleague play is fourth-best all-time among pitchers with 25 such starts, while his 3.17 ERA ranks sixth.

- ▶ Allowed a career-high-tying 8ER in 6/7 loss vs. Baltimore...matched his career high again two starts later in 6/19 loss at Milwaukee, surrendering 8ER in 5.0IP.

- ▶ Won 10 of his next 12 starts from 6/24-8/19, pitching to a 3.47 ERA over the stretch and lowering his season ERA nearly a full run, from 5.42 to 4.51.

- ▶ Had a season-high six-game winning streak over consecutive starts from 7/23-8/19, pitching to a 3.35 ERA over the span, which was one win shy of his career best...struck out a Blue Jays season-high 13 batters over 8.0IP in 8/19 win vs. the Yankees.

- ▶ Did not allow an earned run over 17.0 consecutive innings from 9/9-19 facing Chicago (AL) and Boston (twice)...was charged with just 4ER total over his final four starts, going 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA.

- ▶ Recorded a no-decision in his final start of the season on 9/24 vs. the Yankees, despite allowing just 1ER in 8.0IP (7H, 2R, 2BB, 11K)...finished the season with 43 strikeouts against the Yankees, marking the most strikeouts in a single season by a Blue Jays pitcher against the Yankees and second-most by any opponent vs. the Yankees in the last 40 years (Pedro Martinez, 53K w/ Boston in 2001).

Status

▶ Signed as a non-drafted free agent on November 13, 2001...signed one-year contract, avoiding arbitration, on January 20, 2009.

- ▶ Hit .249 (103-for-414) with 12 doubles, 8HR and 37RBI in 129 games (109 starts in CF, two in RF, one in LF) over two stints with the Yankees (3/31-8/15; 9/5-9/28)...hit .267 (76-for-285) with 6HR as a left-handed batter and .209 (27-for-129) with 2HR as a right-handed batter.
- ▶ Hit in six different spots in the lineup as a starter...batting average by position in lineup: No. 1 (.282, 11-for-39, 1HR), No. 2 (.263, 5-for-19, 1HR), No. 3 (.000, 0-for-1), No. 6 (.213, 10-for-47, 1HR), No. 7 (.220, 11-for-50), No. 8 (.213, 23-for-108, 3HR), No. 9 (.287, 43-for-150, 2HR).
- ▶ Recorded seven outfield assists...his 23 outfield assists over the last two seasons (2007-08) are seventh-most in the AL...recorded 21 assists as a centerfielder over the same span, second-most in the Majors behind Tampa Bay's B.J. Upton (27).
- ▶ Made his second career Opening Day roster...hit a solo-HR off Roy Halladay and was 1-for-3 in 4/1 Opening Day win vs. Toronto...was his first career Opening Day home run, snapping a stretch of 163 at-bats without a homer (since 8/12/07 at Cleveland off Jake Westbrook)...marked the 92nd Opening Day home run in Yankees history...became the 57th different Yankee to homer on Opening Day.
- ▶ Reached base safely in 29 of his first 31 games of the season (4/1-5/4), hitting safely in 23 of those contests...batted .291 (30-for-103) with 6HR over the stretch (103AB).
- ▶ Served a two-game suspension (reduced from 3G) from 4/4-5 for his involvement in a spring training altercation on 3/12 at Tampa Bay.
- ▶ Hit solo-HR and was 1-for-3 in the Yankees' 1-0 win on 4/27 at Cleveland...became the first Yankee to hit a home run in a 1-0 shutout since Robinson Cano on 6/13/06 vs. Cleveland.
- ▶ Finished April with a .299 (26-for-87) batting average...hit at a .235 (77-for-327) clip for the remainder of the season.
- ▶ Recorded 10 putouts in 5/1 loss vs. Detroit, the most by a Major League outfielder in a nine-inning game since Carlos Beltran recorded 10 on 9/26/06 w/ New York (NL) at Philadelphia...was the most by a Yankees outfielder since Bernie Williams had 10 on 8/18/98 at Kansas City (13 innings).
- ▶ Hit his sixth home run of the season in 5/4 win vs. Seattle (Game No. 33)...did not hit his sixth home run of 2007 until 7/31 vs. Chicago (AL) in his 96th game.
- ▶ Was 0-for-3 with 1BB and 1RBI in 5/10 win at Detroit and has reached base safely (hit, walk, hit by pitch) in all 19 career games with a plate appearance against Detroit.

- ▶ Hit .273 (149-for-545) with 66R, 8HR, 73RBI and 135B in 150 games with the Yankees (117 starts in CF, 16 starts in LF and four starts in RF).
- ▶ Started 101 of the Yankees' final 111 games of the season in CF (since 6/1) with the team going 72-39 (.649)...during the stretch, hit .290 (119-for-411) with 55R, 21 doubles, 7 triples, 6HR, 58RBI, 32BB and 10SB...batted .224 (30-for-134) with 11R, 3 doubles, 1 triple, 2HR and 15RBI through the first two months of the season.
- ▶ Tied for third in the American League with 16 outfield assists, tied for fourth with nine sacrifice flies, tied for fifth with 10 sacrifice hits and tied for sixth with eight triples.
- ▶ His 16 outfield assists tied Lou Piniella (1974) and Jesse Barfield (1989 and '90) for the fourth-highest single-season total by a Yankees outfielder in the last 50 years...led all Major League centerfielders with 14 assists, matching Bobby Murcer's 1973 total for the third highest total by a Yankees centerfielder in the last 50 years, trailing only Murcer (15 in 1970) and Elliot Maddox (18 in 1974)...his 14 assists marked the highest total among AL centerfielders since Rocco Baldelli had 15 assists in 2003 with Tampa Bay.
- ▶ The switch-hitter batted .260 (39-for-150, 8 doubles, 2HR) from the right side and .278 (110-for-395, 16 doubles, 8 triples and 6HR) from the left.
- ▶ Made his first Opening Day roster...went 73AB to begin the season without an extra-base hit until his double on 4/28 vs. Boston...hit solo-HR in 5/10 loss vs. Texas...his first HR since 8/10/06 at Chicago (AL), a span of 266AB without a home run...collected two extra-base hits in four at-bats in the game, after registering just two in his first 99AB of the season.
- ▶ Hit a team-high .368 (39-for-106) with 18R, 6 doubles, 1 triple, 3HR and 17RBI in 28 games in July...his 39 hits tied for third best in the Majors and his .368 average ranked third in the American League for the month...had three hits in consecutive games for the first time in his career from 7/5-6, and five multi-hit games in six contests from 7/1-7/6.
- ▶ Was 1-for-6 with a career-high five strikeouts in 7/7 loss vs. Los Angeles (AL)...became the fourth Yankee—and third position player—to strike out five times in a game, joining Johnny Broaca (6/25/23 vs. Chicago-AL), Bernie Williams (8/21/91 at Kansas City) and Andy Phillips (5/2/05 at Tampa Bay).
- ▶ Was one of only four AL qualifiers whose batting average increased in each of the first four months of the season (April-July)...hit .200 (15-for-75) in April, .254 (15-for-59) in May, .298 (28-for-94) in June, and .368 (39-for-106) in July.
- ▶ Collected three extra-base hits in a game for the first time in his career in 8/7 win at Toronto, going 3-for-4 with 3R, 2 doubles, 1 triple and 1SH...had 16 extra-base hits over a 17-game span from 7/21(G2)-8/7 (10 doubles, 3 triples, 3HR).
- ▶ Fashioned a career-high 18-game hitting streak from 7/25-8/13, batting .400 (30-for-75) with 15R, 9 doubles, 3 triples, 4HR, 19RBI, 1BB and 3K...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest hitting streak by any player under the age of 24 since Jose Reyes fashioned a 20-game streak in 2005 at age 22...the last player as young as Cabrera to hit safely in 18 straight games for the Yankees was Joe DiMaggio (22 games in 1937 at age 22).

FUTURES GAME HISTORY

Major League Baseball, in conjunction with the 30 Major League Clubs, MLB.com and Baseball America, select the 25-man rosters for each club, the U.S. Team and the World Team. Each Major League organization is represented and the World Team features players from 11 different countries and territories. Players from all full-season Minor Leagues were eligible to participate.

Five players currently on the Yankees' 40-man roster have appeared in at least one Future's Game while in the Yankees' minor league system.

Futures Game

Status

▶ Selected by the Yankees in Compensation Round A (41st overall) of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2009 season.

- ▶ Was 4-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 42 appearances (12 starts) with the Yankees...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first Yankee since Roy Sherid in 1929 to start his rookie season with at least 10 relief appearances before a mid-season switch resulting in at least 10 starts.
- ▶ Opponents batted .233 (87-for-373, 5HR); LH .247 (46-for-186, 2HR), RH .219 (41-for-187, 3HR)...was 3-1 with a 2.76 ERA as a starter...the Yankees were 8-4 in his starts...in 30 relief appearances, was 1-2 with a 2.31 ERA...as a reliever, retired 25-of-30 first batters faced (83.3%) and prevented 8-of-10 (80%) inherited runners from scoring.
- ▶ Began the season in the Yankees bullpen before making the transition to starting pitcher in late May.
- ▶ Among AL rookies, ranked first in ERA (2.60), second in strikeouts (118), fourth in opponents batting average (.233) and seventh in innings pitched (100.1)...allowed just 5HR, an average of 0.45HR/9.0IP, the second-lowest among all rookie Major Leaguers with at least 75.0IP (behind the Marlins' Chris Volstad, 0.32HR/9.0IP).
- ▶ His strikeout total marked the most by a Yankees rookie in a single season since Orlando Hernandez recorded 131K in 1998...were the third-most in a season by a Yankees pitcher under the age of 23, behind Al Downing's 171 in 1963 and Lefty Gomez's 150 in 1931.
- ▶ Has struck out 64-of-114 batters faced in his career when the count has reached 0-2 (56.1%) and 152-of-273 batters after two strikes (55.7%)...has struck out 96 of the 238 batters he has recorded a first-pitch strike against (40.3%).
- ▶ Over the last two seasons (2007-08), ranks fifth in the American League with a 2.17 ERA (min. 60G)...during the same span, is sixth among all AL pitchers with 11.00K/9.0IP (152K, 124.1IP)...has allowed 147 baserunners in his Major League career (99H, 45BB, 3HP) while striking out 152 batters.
- ▶ Made his first appearance of the season in 4/1 Opening Day win vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless eighth inning (1.0IP, 1BB, 2K)...made his first Opening Day roster...was placed on the bereavement list from 4/14-19 to be with his hospitalized father, Harlan, in Nebraska (missed five team games).
- ▶ In 4/20 win at Baltimore, allowed 2H and 1ER without retiring a batter before game was delayed by rain (did not return when play resumed)...was just the second earned run allowed of his career and first since 9/16/07 at Baltimore.
- ▶ Allowed a "walk-off" single to Joe Crede to suffer his first Major League loss on 4/23 at Chicago (AL)...was his fourth appearance in five games.

- Began the transition from relief pitcher to starter on 5/21 vs. Baltimore, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (1H, 2BB, 3K)... Manager Joe Girardi announced the move following the game... tossed a relief-appearance career-high 40 pitches on 5/24 vs. Seattle (2.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 2K)... in three "transition" relief appearances, did not allow a run over 5.1IP, holding opponents to 3H and 4BB while striking out eight batters... Girardi announced on 5/30 that Chamberlain would make his first start on 6/3 vs. the Toronto Blue Jays.
- Allowed 1ER in 2.1IP (1H, 2R, 4BB, 3K, 1BK) without recording a decision in his first Major League start on 6/3 vs. Toronto... threw 62 pitches overall, facing 12 total batters and marking the first time he faced more than nine batters in a single game... opposed Roy Halladay and, according to Elias, joined Greg Cadaret as the only Yankee to make his first Major League start against a former Cy Young Award winner... Cadaret recorded the loss against Roger Clemens on 7/7/89 at Fenway Park after making over 100 relief appearances for the A's and Yankees.
- At 22 years old, joined Yankees pitchers Phil Hughes (21) and Ian Kennedy (23), as the first trio all age 23 or younger, to start a game in the same season for the Yankees prior to September callups since 1993 (Sterling Hitchcock, Mark Hutton and Sam Militello)... the last Yankees trio to do it as early in the season (prior to 6/4) was Gil Blanco, Al Downing and Mel Stottlemyre in 1965.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 2.23 ERA over his first 11 Major League starts was the lowest for any Yankees pitcher since Mel Stottlemyre in 1964 (1.97 ERA).
- Held opponents to 3ER or less in each of his first 11 Major League starts from 6/3-7/30, becoming the first pitcher to do so since the Marlins' Josh Johnson in 13 straight starts from 2005-06 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)... was the only Yankees pitcher in 2008 to have at least 11 straight starts and allow no more than 3ER in any of them... was the first Yankee to accomplish the feat since Mike Mussina from 4/4-5/31/06 (12 straight starts).
- Ranked sixth among all Major League starters with a 1.80 ERA in June (min. 5GS)... established a career high with nine strikeouts in 5.2IP on 6/19 vs. San Diego... matched the most strikeouts by a Yankees pitcher in 2008 (Pettitte four times, Wang once).
- Earned his first career win as a starter on 6/25 at Pittsburgh, tossing 6.2 scoreless innings... was his first time holding opponents scoreless in a Major League start... tossed a career-high 114 pitches.
- Tossed a career-high 7.0 shutout innings (3H, 1BB, 9K) on 7/25 at Boston... retired each of his last 10 batters faced and did not allow a hit after David Ortiz's fourth-inning single... eight of his nine strikeouts were swinging.
- Had 124K at the time he reached 100.0 career IP on 7/25 at Boston, the most for any Yankees pitcher all time through his first 100.0 innings in the Majors... allowed just 24R in his first 100.0IP, the fewest by a Yankee since Dave Righetti allowed 23 in 1981 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Was removed from 8/4 loss at Texas in the fifth inning with right shoulder stiffness after allowing 8H, 5ER and 2HR in 4.2IP... had an MRI performed on 8/5 and was seen by Dr. James Andrews on 8/6... was diagnosed with rotator cuff tendinitis and placed on the 15-day disabled list on 8/6 (missed 24 team games).
- Was reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on 9/2 and returned to the bullpen... made his 21st relief appearance of the season that night at Tampa Bay, allowing 1H and 1BB in 1.1IP.
- Had a 2.38 ERA in 10 relief appearances after returning from the D.L. on 9/2, allowing 11H and 3ER in 11.1IP (14K) without recording a decision.
- Entered the 2008 season ranked by Baseball America as the Yankees' top prospect and the top pitching prospect in all of Baseball (third-best overall)... was also rated as having the "Best Fastball," "Best Curveball" and "Best Slider" among all pitchers in the Yankees system.

- ▶ Was 2-0 with one save and a 0.38 ERA in 19 relief appearances with the Yankees, allowing only 2R (1ER) in 24.0IP...the Yankees were 17-2 in games in which he pitched...opponents batted .145 (12-for-83, 1HR); LH .132 (5-for-38, 0HR), RH .156 (7-for-45, 1HR)...retired 16-of-19 first batters faced (84.2%) holding them to a .111 batting average (2-for-18, 1BB).
- ▶ Struck out 34 batters in 24.0IP, averaging 12.75 strikeouts per 9.0IP while issuing just 6BB...was the fourth-highest K/9.0IP ratio among Major League relievers with at least 20.0IP...struck out 24 of the 47 batters he recorded a first-pitch strike against (51.1%).
- ▶ Pitched more than 1.0 inning in eight of his 19 appearances...appeared in consecutive games four times...appeared in games on consecutive days just once, on 9/26 and 9/27 at Tampa Bay, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning in each appearance.
- ▶ Did not allow a run in his first 15.1 Major League innings...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the second longest scoreless-inning streak for any pitcher in Yankees franchise history beginning his Major League career behind Slow Joe Doyle, who went 18.0 innings before allowing his first career run in 1906.
- ▶ Made his Major League debut in 8/7 win at Toronto, closing out the game with 2.0 scoreless innings (1H, 2BB, 2K)...was signed to a Major League contract and added to the roster from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre prior to the game.
- ▶ In 8/30 win vs. Boston, allowed 1H and 1BB in 1.1IP before being ejected in the ninth inning by HP Umpire Angel Hernandez...was suspended for two games (8/31-9/1) by Major League Baseball.
- ▶ Earned his first Major League win on 9/5 vs. Seattle, tossing a perfect seventh inning (1.0IP)...became the ninth Yankees pitcher to record his first Major League win in 2007, further extending the club record (previous six, done in 1946).
- ▶ Allowed one unearned run in 1.2IP on 9/12 at Toronto, snapping his streak of 15.1 scoreless innings to begin his Major League career...allowed solo-HR to Mike Lowell in the eighth on 9/16 at Boston, snapping his streak of 17.0IP without allowing an earned run to begin his Major League career, but still came away with the win.
- ▶ Recorded his first career save on 9/23 vs. Toronto, retiring the final four batters (3K) on his 22nd birthday...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the third pitcher to earn his first Major League save on his birthday (also Kansas City's D.J. Carrasco and the Mets' Grant Roberts, both in 2003).
- ▶ Made two appearances in the Division Series vs. Cleveland, posting a 4.91 ERA with no decisions...made his postseason debut in the seventh inning of Game 2 loss at Cleveland, recording the final two outs of the inning, inheriting two runners (none scored)...while taking the mound for the eighth, small flies known as "midges" descended on the field, congregating most densely above the pitcher's mound...did not allow a hit while completing the inning, but surrendered the

"Superchief" Strikes Twice

Former Yankee and Hall of Famer Allie Reynolds is one of only four pitchers to record two no-hitters in the same season, accomplishing the feat in 1951...prior to Reynolds, Cincinnati's Johnny Vander Meer was the only pitcher to hurl two no-hitters in the same season, doing so in back-to-back starts in June 1938...Detroit's Virgil Trucks (1952) and California's Nolan Ryan (1973) are the only other pitchers to match the record... Reynolds' first no-hitter of the 1951 season came on July 12 vs. Cleveland...his second no-hitter, an 8-0 Yankees victory on September 28 vs. Boston, clinched the American League title for the Yankees.

Yankees Support B.A.T.

At the 20th annual Baseball Assistance Team Dinner on January 27, 2009, at Manhattan's Marriott Marquis, New York Yankees General Partner/Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal [third from L] and COO Lonn Trost [second from L] are joined by Bobby Murcer's widow Kay, their son Todd and daughter Tori [fourth, fifth, sixth from L] in presenting B.A.T. President/CEO Ted Sizemore [far L] with a $500,000 donation, marking the largest donation B.A.T. has ever received from one organization. At the time of his passing, Murcer was the Chairman of B.A.T., which reaches out with healthcare programs, housing grants and rehabilitative counseling to members of the baseball family in need.

- Had a 2.76 ERA (29.1IP, 9ER) in 12 games (two starts) at Yankee Stadium and a 5.14 ERA (14.0IP, 8ER) on the road.
- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the 25-man active roster from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 6/3...made his Yankees debut that night vs. Toronto, allowing 1ER in 3.2 innings of relief and recording the loss...was optioned to Scranton/WB on 6/4.
- Was recalled from Scranton/WB on 6/6 when RHP Chris Britton was placed on the 15-day disabled list...earned his first Major League victory (at age 31) in 6/8 win vs. Kansas City in his first appearance after his recall, tossing 2.2 hitless and scoreless innings (3K, 1WP)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the only other Yankees older than Giese at the time of their first wins in the Majors were Rocky Colavito (age 35 in 1968), Dale Polley (age 31 in 1996) and Jose Contreras (age 31 in 2003).
- Made his first career Major League start on 6/21 vs. Cincinnati against the Reds' Daryl Thompson, who was also making his first Major League start...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked just the third time in original Yankee Stadium history that both starting pitchers made the first starts of their Major League careers in the same game (also the Yankees' Myles Thomas and Boston's Tony Welzer on 4/22/26 and the Yankees' Dooley Womack vs. the Washington Senators' Bob Humphreys on 7/10/66)...did not allow an earned run in a career-high 6.2IP (4H, 3R, 5K), but recorded the loss...made a throwing error in the seventh, leading to three unearned runs...both pitchers held their opponents scoreless through five innings, marking just the fourth time in Baseball history that two pitchers, both making their first Major League start, accomplished the feat...was the first time since Milwaukee's Earl Stephenson and Boston's Lynn McGlothen on 6/25/72 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- At 31 years, 33 days of age, became the fifth Yankees pitcher since 1951 to make his first Major League start after turning 31...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, joined Contreras (2003), Mike Stanton (1999), Jim Bruske (1998) and Mike Armstrong (1986).
- Threw a career-high 96 pitches in his second start and recorded the loss in a 15-9 Mets victory in Game 1 of a 6/27 split-stadium doubleheader at Yankee Stadium.

Status

► Selected by the Yankees in the first round (23rd overall) of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2009 season.

- Was 0-4 with a 6.62 ERA in eight starts over two stints with the Yankees (3/31-7/30; 9/13-28)...the Yankees were 3-5 in his starts...opponents batted .314 (43-for-137, 3HR); LH .333 (20-for-60, 1HR), RH .299 (23-for-77, 2HR)...his eight starts were the third-most all time by a Yankees pitcher in a winless season behind Steve Trout (9, 1987) and Ian Kennedy (9, 2008).
- Leadoff batters hit at a .412 clip (14-for-34)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, opponents scored in 12 of the 17 innings the leadoff batter reached, but only two of 20 innings in which he retired the first batter.
- Opponents own just a .217 career average (34-for-157) their first time through the order off him and a .290 mark (73-for-252) after that.
- Opened the season as the youngest pitcher in the Majors and the second youngest player in the Majors behind Arizona's Justin Upton (20 years old, born 8/25/87)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was the youngest pitcher to begin a season in the Yankees rotation since Bill Burbach in 1969 (Opening Day age of 21 years, 232 days).
- Turned 22 on 6/24...made 19 starts with a 5-7 record and 71 career strikeouts before the age of 22...were the most starts, wins and strikeouts by a Yankees starting pitcher prior to his 22nd birthday since Bill Burbach went 6-8 with 76K in 24 starts prior to turning 22 years old on 8/22/69.
- Joined fellow first-round selections RHPs Mike Mussina and Ian Kennedy in the Yankees opening rotation...the Yankees were one of four teams in the Majors to feature at least three prior No. 1 picks in their Opening Day starting five...the other teams were the Los Angeles Angels (Jon Garland, Dustin Moseley, Joe Saunders and Jered Weaver); Colorado Rockies (Jeff Francis, Mark Redman and Kip Wells); and Philadelphia Phillies (Adam Eaton, Cole Hamels and Brett Myers).
- At 21 years old, joined Yankees pitchers Joba Chamberlain (22) and Ian Kennedy (23) as the first trio—each under age 24—to start a game in the same season for the Yankees prior to September callups since 1993 (Sterling Hitchcock, Mark Hutton and Sam Militello)...the last Yankees trio to do it prior to 6/4 was Gil Blanco, Al Downing and Mel Stottlemyre in 1965.
- With his first start of the season on 4/3 vs. Toronto in the Yankees' third game, became the youngest Yankees pitcher to start one of the team's first three games since Waite Hoyt (21 years, 217 days) took the mound for the club's second game in 1921.
- Was 21 years old at the start of the season, and—with Ian Kennedy (age 23)—became the fourth pair of pitchers, each under the age of 24, to start for the Yankees within the team's first four games of a season and the first pair since Dave Righetti (23) and Mike Morgan (22) in 1982 (also Hippo Vaughn-23, Ray Fisher-23 and Ray Caldwell-22 in 1911

Yankees Have a Fan in Fashion

Growing up as the youngest of Frank and Frieda Lifshitz's four children, Ralph Lauren didn't know what a fashion designer was and preferred to be either a movie star or a ballplayer. As homage to his baseball passion, the numbers 3, 4, 5, and 7 appear on the sleeves of his latest Big Pony shirts, representing the Yankee uniforms of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Joe DiMaggio, and Mickey Mantle.

FAREWELL SPEECH: "For all of us up here, it's a huge honor to put this uniform on every day and come out here and play. Every member of this organization, past and present, has been calling this place home for 85 years. There's a lot of tradition, a lot of history, and a lot of memories. Now, the great thing about memories, is you're able to pass [them] along from generation to generation. And although things are going to change next year - we're going to move across the street - there are a few things with the New York Yankees that never change. That's pride, it's tradition, and most of all, we have the greatest fans in the world. "We're relying on you to take the memories from this Stadium, add them to the new memories that come at the new Yankee Stadium and continue to pass them on from generation to generation. So, on behalf of the entire organization, we just want to take this moment to salute you, the greatest fans in the world."

DEREK JETER

"Minor League Pitcher of the Year"

► 2007

Status

- Selected by the Yankees in the first round (21st pick overall) of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2009 season.

- Was 0-4 with an 8.17 ERA in 10 appearances (nine starts) over three stints with the Yankees (3/31-5/4; 5/15-6/24, 8/8-9)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his ERA was the highest ever for a Yankees pitcher who made at least nine starts...Elias also notes that his nine starts tied Steve Trout (1987) as the most games started by a Yankees pitcher in a winless season...the Yankees were 2-7 in his starts.
- Opponents batted .309 (50-for-162, 5HR); LH .236 (21-for-89, 1HR), RH .397 (29-for-73, 4HR)...opponents' No. 1-3 batters batted .179 (10-for-56), while the remainder of the lineup hit .377 (40-for-106).
- His streak of nine consecutive starts without a win was the longest such stretch by a Yankees rookie to begin a season in franchise history...the previous high was Bob Wiesler, who was 0-2 in seven starts in 1955 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Was 23 years old at the start of the season, and—with Phil Hughes (age 21)—became the fourth pair of pitchers each under the age of 24 to start for the Yankees within the team's first four games of a season and the first since Dave Righetti (23) and Mike Morgan (22) in 1982 (also Hippo Vaughn-23, Ray Fisher-23 and Ray Caldwell-22 in 1911; and Mel Stottlemyre-23 and Al Downing-23 in 1965). Credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Made his first start of the season on 4/4 vs. Tampa Bay, recording his first career loss in the Rays' 13-4 victory...allowed a career-high 6ER in 2.1IP (4H, 4BB, 2K)...was just the second time in 30 professional starts that he allowed more than 3ER in a start (also 6/5/07 vs. Binghamton in his Double-A debut - 4ER).
- Made his first Major League relief appearance on 4/9 at Kansas City in a 4-0 Royals victory (3.0IP, 2H, 2ER, 2BB, 3K)...was scheduled to start but a potential rain delay caused Manager Joe Girardi to use his bullpen to start the game, bringing in Kennedy in the sixth inning.
- Exited his start on 4/14 at Tampa Bay after facing one batter in the seventh inning when he was struck in the right hip by a Jason Bartlett line drive...recorded a no-decision in an 8-7 Yankees victory (6.0IP, 3ER).
- Was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/4 and did not allow a run in two starts...in his first start on 5/6 vs. Charlotte (CWS), tossed 7.1 scoreless innings and allowed only 1H and 1HBP with OBB and 8K (90 pitches/58 strikes)...had a no-hitter broken up with two outs in the sixth inning by a Jerry Owens single...earned the win in the 4-0 SWB Yankees victory vs. the Knights.
- Was recalled from Scranton/WB on 5/15 and made the start that night at Tampa Bay, recording the loss in a 5-2 Rays victory (5.0IP, 5ER)...allowed a leadoff home run to Akinori Iwamura, marking his first home run allowed to a left-handed batter in the Majors (80AB).

IAN KENNEDY

- ▶ Left his start on 5/27 at Baltimore after the third inning with a right lat muscle strain...was placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day...made one rehab appearance with the GCL Yankees (3.0IP, 3H, 1ER, 7K, 1HP)...was returned from rehab, reinstated from the 15-day D.L. and optioned to Single-A Tampa on 6/24, where he made one start...was transferred to Scranton/WB on 7/3 and made seven appearances (six starts), going 3-2 with a 2.61 ERA (38.0IP, 27H, 12R, 11ER, 4HP, 13BB, 30K, 3HR).
- ▶ Was recalled to make an emergency start on 8/8 at Los Angeles (AL) after RHP Joba Chamberlain was placed on the D.L...allowed 9H and 5ER in 2.0IP (1BB, 1K)...was optioned back to SWB the next day.
- ▶ In 13 games (12 starts) overall with Scranton/WB, went 5-3 with a 2.35 ERA, striking out 72 batters in 69.0IP and holding opponents to a .206 batting average...held left-handed batters to a .180 average...limited opponents to 2ER or less in 10 starts, making six 'quality starts'...struck out a season-high 11 batters in his final regular season start on 8/30 at Rochester, throwing 6.2 shutout innings.
- ▶ Made two postseason starts for the International League champs, going 0-1 with a 1.50 ERA (12.0IP, 2ER) and 13K.
- ▶ Made six starts with Los Indios de Mayaguez in the Puerto Rico Winter League, going 2-2 with a league-low 1.56 ERA...recorded his first career shutout on 11/30 at Los Lobos de Arecibo (7K, 3H, 1BB)...struck out at least five batters and allowed 3H or less in four of his six starts.

- ▶ Was 1-0 with a 1.89 ERA in three starts with the Yankees in his first Major League action...the Yankees were 2-1 in his starts...opponents batted .191 (13-for-68, 1HR); LH .161 (5-for-31, 0HR), RH .216 (8-for-37, 1HR).
- ▶ Had contract purchased from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 9/1 and made his Major League debut that day vs. Tampa Bay, recording the win in a 9-6 Yankees victory (7.0IP, 5H, 3R, 1ER, 2BB, 6K)...retired 13 of his final 14 batters faced (allowed solo-HR to B.J. Upton in the sixth)...became the third Yankee in 2007 to record a win in his Major League debut (also Chase Wright on 4/17 vs. Cleveland and Tyler Clippard 5/20 at the Mets).
- ▶ Became the eighth different rookie to start a game for the Yankees in 2007, tying a franchise record for most rookie starters in a season previously set in 1907...was the sixth to make his Major League debut...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, prior to 2007 no more than four Yankees starting pitchers had ever made their Major League debuts in the same season...the last time as many as six pitchers did so was for the 1935 Philadelphia Phillies.
- ▶ Struck out a Major League season-high seven batters while allowing only one hit over 7.0IP on 9/13 at Toronto (4BB, 7K)...recorded a no-decision in a Blue Jays 2-1 "walk-off" victory.
- ▶ Suffered a strained upper back muscle while throwing a bullpen session prior to his scheduled start on 9/22 and missed the remainder of the season.
- ▶ Combined to go 12-3 with a 1.91 ERA in 26G (25GS) with Single-A Tampa, Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, earning the 2007 Kevin Lawn "Minor League Pitcher of the Year" Award given annually to the top pitching prospect in the Yankees organization.
- ▶ Opponents batted .182 (91-for-501, 6HR); LH .177 (41-for-231, 3HR), RH .185 (50-for-270, 3HR)...had the second-lowest opponent's batting average among full-season minor-league pitchers, ranked third in ERA and racked up the 13th-most strikeouts...in his 29 professional starts in 2007 (Majors and minors), allowed more than 3ER just once-on 6/5 vs. Binghamton in his Double-A debut with Trenton (4ER)...held the opposition scoreless nine times.
- ▶ Began the season at Single-A Tampa, going 6-1 with a 1.29 ERA in 11G (10GS)...paced the Florida State League with six wins and a 1.29 ERA through the first two months of the season before his promotion to Double-A Trenton on 6/5...was credited with a complete game in his second outing of the year on 4/11 at Clearwater, allowing only 1ER on 3H in 6.0IP in a loss to the Threshers in the second game of a doubleheader.
- ▶ Went 9-0 with a 1.72 ERA over a 12-game span (11GS) from 4/16-6/16 with Tampa and Trenton, shutting out opponents six times...pitched a minor league career-high 8.0 scoreless innings on 5/2 vs. Fort Myers...struck out a career-high 11 batters on 5/15 at Dunedin in 6.2 scoreless innings, reaching double-digits in strikeouts for the first time in his career...was rewarded with FSL "Player of the Week" honors and was named the FSL "Player of the Month" for May, going 5-0 with a 0.70 ERA in six starts with Tampa...held opponents scoreless in four of his six May appearances.
- ▶ Was promoted to Double-A Trenton on 6/5, going 5-1 with a 2.59 ERA in nine starts...was promoted to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 7/24 and in six starts, was 1-1 with a 2.08 ERA.
- ▶ Entered 2007 rated as the Yankees' fifth-best prospect by Baseball America...was named to the publication's 2007 midseason All-Star team and their postseason Minor League All-Star team...rated by Minor League News as the 40th-best prospect in the game...following the season, was ranked as the Yankees' fourth-best prospect by Baseball America as well as having the organization's best control.

IAN KENNEDY

- ▶ Became the fourth first-round pick (all pitchers) from the 2006 First-Year Player Draft to make his Major League debut in 2007, joining RHP Brandon Morrow (Seattle, fifth pick), LHP Andrew Miller (Detroit, sixth pick) and RHP Tim Lincecum (San Francisco, 10th pick).

2006

- ▶ Made professional debut with the short-season Single-A Staten Island Yankees, tossing 2.2 perfect innings on 9/6 vs. Tri-City in his only appearance...went 0-2 with a 4.45 ERA in nine games (seven starts) with West Oahu in the Hawaiian Winter League...did not allow a home run and recorded 45 strikeouts in 30.1 innings of work...tossed 2.1 hitless innings of relief on 10/3 in his debut with West Oahu (2BB, 5K)...over his final five appearances (all starts), allowed 6ER in 20.1IP (2.66 ERA) while giving up 19H and just 3BB (8R, 31K)...was selected as a Hawaiian Winter Baseball League Postseason All-Star.

Personal

- ▶ Is married to Allison (October 2007), a former guard/forward on the University of Southern California's women's basketball team...was previously drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 14th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft, but did not sign...was a member of the USA Junior National Team in 2003 that won a bronze medal at the IBAF Junior World Championships in Canada...was selected to pitch for the U.S. National Team twice (2004-05), winning the gold medal at the 2004 FISU World University Championship in Taiwan.
- ▶ Won All-CIF Division IV honors as a senior at La Quinta High School in Huntington Beach, Calif...named CIF Division IV "co-Most Valuable Player" and earned Orange County Register "Most Valuable Player" honors in his junior year after recording 13 wins and leading the county with a 0.38 ERA in 90.2IP (5ER, 168K).
- ▶ Attended the University of Southern California, where he ranks third all-time in school history with 380K and second with an average of 10.99 strikeouts per nine innings pitched...was named a first-team All-American by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association following both his freshman and sophomore seasons...became the first freshman to be the Trojans' No. 1 starter since Randy Flores in 1994...was named the Pac-10 Conference "Pitcher of the Year" following a 12-2 sophomore campaign in 2005, where he posted a 2.54 ERA and held opponents to a .201 batting average...became the eighth Trojan in school history to win the honor...his 158K ranks fourth on USC's single-season all-time list...led his USC team with 102 strikeouts and posted a 5-7 record with a 3.90 ERA in 16 games (15 starts) as a junior in 2006 (101.2IP, 100H, 57R, 44ER, 36BB, 102K)...was named to the 2006 Preseason All-America first team by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association after combining to go 19-5 with a 2.70 ERA and 278 strikeouts in 209.2 innings over his first two seasons at USC.

Central League MVP

► 1996, 2000, 2002

Central League Gold Glove Award

► 2000, 2001, 2002

Status

► Originally signed by the Yankees as a free agent on January 14, 2003...signed a four-year contract extension on November 15, 2005...contract extends through the 2009 season.

- Hit .294 (99-for-337) with 17 doubles, 9HR and 45RBI in 93 games with the Yankees (66 starts at DH, 20 starts in LF, two starts in RF)...batted .326 (28-for-86) with 4 doubles, 2HR and 12RBI as an outfielder...hit .285 (70-for-246) with 13 doubles, 7HR and 33RBI as a DH...hit in six different spots in the starting lineup in 2008 (Nos. 3-8).
- Hits safely in 34 of his 44 home games, carrying a .323 (51-for-158) batting average at Yankee Stadium...overall, went more than two consecutive games without a hit just once (four-in-a-row from 9/8-13).
- Made his sixth career Opening Day start (first at DH) and was 0-for-3 with 1RBI in 4/1 win vs. Toronto...is a career .391 hitter on Opening Day (9-for-23, 2HR, 7RBI)...marked his first Major League game with a skipper other than Joe Torre...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Matsui's streak of 681 consecutive games played from the start of his career under one manager trailed only the marks of Atlanta's Chipper Jones (1,897 for Bobby Cox) and Albert Pujols (1,091 for Tony LaRussa), among active players.
- Batted a team-high .322 (29-for-90) with 5 doubles, 4HR and 13RBI in April after hitting just .207 (6-for-29) with 1HR and 6RBI in April 2007...hit safely in 22-of-26 games for the month.
- Made his fifth career start and appearance in RF in 4/10 win at Kansas City, going 1-for-5...was his first appearance in RF since 6/12/05 at St. Louis.

Status

- Acquired from the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim on July 21, 2007, in exchange for RHP Jeff Kennard...signed a two-year contract with the Yankees on December 3, 2007...contract extends through the 2009 season.

- Hit .216 (58-for-268) with 32R, 17 doubles, 3HR and 18RBI in 100 games with the Yankees (81 starts at C)...set career highs in games played, games started, at-bats, hits and runs...tied his single-season career high with 17 doubles (also in 2006 with Los Angeles-AL)...his 81 starts at catcher were the most starts by a Yankees catcher other than Jorge Posada since Joe Girardi made 109 starts behind the plate in 1997.
- Led the Major Leagues with a 43.2% caught stealing rate...with 32CS (in 74 attempts), tied with brother Bengie Molina for second in the Majors behind Milwaukee's Jason Kendall (36)...ranked fifth in the Majors—and fourth in the American League—with a 3.71 catcher's ERA, recording the lowest such mark by a Yankee since Joe Girardi in 1997 (3.42).
- Made his sixth career Opening Day roster and first with the Yankees...hit safely in each of his first nine starts of the season (4/2-13), going 12-for-32 (.375) with 7 doubles and 2RBI in those games...batted sixth in the lineup and was 2-for-4 with 1 double in 4/10 win at Kansas City, marking just the second time in his career he hit higher than seventh (also 5/21/04 w/ Anaheim vs. Baltimore).
- Was 1-for-3 with 1R and 1BB in 5/3 win vs. Seattle, snapping a 23AB hitless streak with his sixth-inning single...his walk in the fourth inning snapped a streak of 93 consecutive plate appearances without a base on balls...was 1-for-3 with 1 double in 5/18 loss vs. the Mets, snapping an 0-for-20 stretch vs. left-handed pitching with a fifth-inning double off Johan Santana...was the longest such streak of his career (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Was credited with 12 consecutive caught stealings from 6/3-7/6, marking the longest such stretch by a catcher since the White Sox's Mike LaValliere in 1993 (also 12 consecutive CS)...had his streak snapped by B.J. Upton in 7/8 win vs. Tampa Bay...was credited with a CS on 6/14 at Houston despite a Derek Jeter error on the play.
- Made six consecutive starts at catcher for the first time in his career from 7/4-10, becoming the first Yankees catcher other than Jorge Posada to accomplish the feat since Joe Girardi in 1997 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Recorded a "walk-off," bases-loaded HBP in the 12th inning in 7/19 win vs. Oakland, after entering the game defensively in the 10th inning at C...was the Yankees' first "walk-off" win on an HBP since Cleto Boyer was hit in the 12th inning of the Yankees' 2-1 victory vs. Washington on 7/15/65.

XAVIER NADY

7/30-8/10 (.439, 18-for-41, 4 doubles, 4HR and 12RBI).

- ▶ Batted cleanup for the first time in his career, going 1-for-4 with 1BB in 9/4 loss at Tampa Bay.
- ▶ Tied a career-high with 4R in 9/26 win at Boston, going 3-for-5 with 1 double and 1BB...hit his final home run of the season in 9/28 Game 1 win at Boston...the three-run shot gave the Yankees the lead and helped Mike Mussina earn his 20th win of the season.
- ▶ Was batting a team-high .330 (108-for-327) with 26 doubles, 1 triple, 13HR and 57RBI in 89 games (82 starts in RF) with the Pirates at the time he was traded...was tied for tops in the National League with 10 outfield assists and ranked fifth in the NL in batting average.
- ▶ Was Pittsburgh's Opening Day starter in right field...went 4-for-7 with 1 double, 2HR and 4RBI on Opening Day at Atlanta...became just one of six players in Major League history to hit two home runs in his team's first game twice in his career (also hit 2HR for the Padres on Opening Day in 2005)...was named the National League "Player of the Week" for the first week of the season (3/31-4/6).
- ▶ Hit safely in career-high 14 straight games from 4/12-26, going 20-for-54 (.370) with 6 doubles, 1HR and 13 RBI...led the National League with 26RBI during the first month of the season, marking the most by a Pittsburgh player since Willie Stargell had 27 in April 1971.
- ▶ Homered into back-to-back games on 5/21-22 vs. Milwaukee and hit four home runs in an eight-game span from 5/21-29.
- ▶ Suffered a left shoulder contusion on 6/14 while running into the right field wall in foul territory at Baltimore...underwent an MRI in Pittsburgh on 6/16 and results revealed a Grade 1 AC joint sprain of his left shoulder...missed nine games before walking as a pinch-hitter on 6/27 vs. Tampa Bay...made start on 6/28 went 2-for-5 with 2 doubles.
- ▶ Missed first three games after the All-Star break after wife Meredith gave birth to couple's first child (son Xavier) on 7/15...hit safely in final 13 games with Pittsburgh (20-for-53, .377) and went 13-for-27 (.481) in last seven contests...reached base in 39 of his last 41 games (with an at-bat) with the Pirates, batting .347 (52-for-150) with 12 doubles and six home runs over the stretch.

SOMETHING SPECIAL ABOUT THAT BAT

Following the Yankees' final game at the original Yankee Stadium on 9/21/08, the Baseball Hall of Fame secured the bat used by Johnny Damon to hit a three-run home run in the third inning to put the Yankees ahead...Damon, whose personal bats were all broken, hit the home run using one of Xavier Nady's bats, which made its way to Cooperstown to be displayed.

- ▶ Hit .278 (120-for-431) with 23 doubles, 20HR and 72RBI in 125 games in his first full season with Pittsburgh (89 starts in RF, 10 in CF, nine in LF and four at DH)...led the team with 12HP...hit 17 of his 20 home runs off right-handed pitchers...hit .397 (23-for-58) and drove in 33 runs with runners in scoring position and two outs.
- ▶ Hit a two-out, game-tying home run in the ninth inning off Houston's Brad Lidge on Opening Day at Minute Maid Park in Pittsburgh's 4-2, 10-inning victory...also homered the following day and went 2-for-4 with 2RBI.
- ▶ Left game on 4/21 at Los Angeles (NL) after suffering a left hamstring strain...missed 10 straight starts before returning to the lineup on 5/3 at Milwaukee.
- ▶ Left 6/6 game at Washington with tightness in his left hamstring...served as the club's designated hitter in all three games at Yankee Stadium from 6/8-10, going 3-for-11 with 1HR and 3R...collected his third career multi-homer game in 6/27 win at Florida, including the game-winner in the 10th inning.
- ▶ Suffered a strained left hamstring on 7/31 vs. St. Louis and did not start again until 8/18...appeared in eight games over the stretch, going 1-for-7 with 1HR and 2RBI as a pinch-hitter...hit his first career pinch-hit home run in 8/13 loss at San Francisco off Steve Kline (Game 2)...hit safely in first six games once he returned to starting lineup (.421, 8-for-19).
- ▶ Homered as a pinch hitter for the second time in 8/24 win at Houston, hitting a game-tying solo shot with two outs in the bottom of the ninth off Brad Lidge (Pirates won the game 8-3 in 15 innings).
- ▶ Was hit in the head by a pitch thrown by Andy Cavazos at St. Louis on 9/3 and missed 10 games due to lingering effects of a concussion...returned to lineup on 9/15 in Houston and went 0-for-5 with three strikeouts.

- ▶ Hit .280 with 28 doubles, 17HR and 63RBI in 130 combined games with the Mets and Pirates...was the Mets' Opening Day starter in right field and went 4-for-4 with 1R, 1 double and 1RBI vs. Washington on 4/3...became just the second player in club history to collect four hits in his Mets debut (also Richie Hebner on 4/5/79 at Chicago - Opening Day).
- ▶ Collected a hit in each of his first five at bats and hit safely in 19 of his 23 games in April...homered three times in a four-game stretch from 4/14-17, including back-to-back games on 4/16 vs. Milwaukee and 4/17 vs. Atlanta.
- ▶ Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/30 after undergoing an appendectomy...played in three rehab games with Triple-A Norfolk...was returned from rehab and reinstated from the D.L. on 6/18...collected his second career multi-homer game in 6/20 win vs. Cincinnati.

XAVIER NADY

- ▶ Was acquired by the Pirates on 7/31 in exchange for pitchers Roberto Hernandez and Oliver Perez...reached base safely in 14 of first 16 starts with Pittsburgh and hit at a .346 clip (46-for-133) over his first 36 games with the Pirates from 8/1-9/9.
- ▶ Ranked eighth among NL batters with a .350 average (37-for-103) during the month of August...snapped an 0-for-21 streak on 9/17 with a sixth-inning double in the 3-0 Pirates victory.

- ▶ Hit .261 (85-for-326) with 15 doubles, 13HR and 43RBI in 124 games with San Diego in his first full season in the Majors (34 starts at 1B, 28 in CF, 13 in RF, six in LF, two at 3B).
- ▶ Recorded first career multi-homer game while knocking in four runs in his season debut on 4/4 at Colorado...had first career four-hit game and fell a double shy of hitting for the cycle on 4/9 vs. Pittsburgh...had second four-hit game four days later in 4/13 win at Chicago (NL), becoming the first Padres player to register two, four-hit games in the first eight games of the season.
- ▶ Was hitting .405 (15-for-37) after his first 10 games before going 2-for-32 in his final 12 games in April...made first career start at third base in 4/27 loss at San Francisco...homed in a career-high four consecutive games from 6/24-27...hit first career grand slam in 8/20 win at Atlanta off Joey Devine.
- ▶ Following the season, was acquired by the Mets in exchange for OF Mike Cameron on 11/8.

- ▶ Hit .247 (19-for-77) with 4 doubles, 3HR and 9RBI in 34 games over three stints with the Padres (6/2-6/16; 7/5-8/4 and 9/6-end of season).
- ▶ Was recalled by San Diego on 6/2 and started that day in left field vs. Colorado...went 0-for-9 in four games before being optioned back to Portland on 6/16.
- ▶ Was recalled by San Diego for a second time on 7/5...hit his first home run and was 3-for-5 in 7/9 loss vs. Colorado...was optioned back to Portland on 8/4 after making just one start between 7/17 and 8/4.
- ▶ Joined the Padres for a third time on 9/6...hit safely in five consecutive games from 9/7-11.
- ▶ Began season with Portland, batting .330 (96-for-291) with 19 doubles, 22HR and 70RBI in 74 games...hit .381 (16-for-42) in first 12 games before being placed on the disabled list with a right shin strain...was reinstated from the D.L. on 5/11...hit 2HR on 5/12 at Memphis.
- ▶ Scored a run in seven consecutive games from 6/18-24 (8R total)...homed in three consecutive games from 6/18-20, including a two-homer game on 6/18 vs. Fresno...homed in four consecutive games from 8/13-16...drove in 12 runs over five-game period from 8/13-17...hit .436 (17-for-39) in 13 games played at first base.

- ▶ Batted .167 (99-for-371) with 17 doubles, 9HR and 39RBI in 110 games with San Diego...among NL rookies, ranked fifth in runs scored (50) and hits, sixth in multi-hit games (26), tied for sixth in homers, seventh in doubles and eighth in average, RBI and extra base hits (27)...led all NL rookies with 12 outfield assists, which also tied for fourth among all league outfielders.
- ▶ Was the Padres' Opening Day starter in right field and went 1-for-4 with 1 double and 1RBI in 3/31 loss vs. San Francisco...hit first Major League home run off San Francisco's Damian Moss on 4/2, becoming the first player in Major League history whose first or last name started with the letter "X" to hit a home run - the only other major leaguers whose names began with the letter "X" were pitchers Xavier Hernandez and Xavier Rescigno.
- ▶ Earned National League "Rookie of the Month" honors in May (the first Padre to earn the honor) after batting .330 (33-for-103) with 4HR and 15RBI.
- ▶ Was optioned to Double-A Portland on 7/23 and recalled on 9/2...hit .385 with 2HR and 8RBI in 16 games after returning to the Majors.
- ▶ Hit .265 (36-for-136) with 7 doubles, 7HR and 23RBI in 37 games with Portland.

- ▶ Hit .281 (136-for-484) with 18 doubles, 4 triples, 23HR and 80RBI in 130 combined games with Single-A Lake Elsinore and Double-A Portland.

2001

- ▶ Batted .203 with 96R, 38 doubles, 26HR and 100RBI in 137 games with Single-A Lake Elsinore...earned California League midseason and postseason All-Star honors and was named the league's "Rookie of the Year" and "Most Valuable Player."

XAVIER NADY

- Was tabbed as San Diego's Minor League "Player of the Year" and "Rookie of the Year"...helped lead Lake Elsinore to a share of the league title.

- Was selected by San Diego in the second round of the 2000 First-Year Player Draft...joined the Padres on 9/17, becoming the 20th player to go directly to the Major Leagues out of the draft since the draft was instituted in 1965...was the fifth player to do so since 1979 (the first since Los Angeles' Darren Dreifort in 1994 and the first position player since John Olerud of the Toronto Blue Jays in 1989).
- Made his Major League debut as a pinch hitter on 9/30 vs. Los Angeles (NL) and singled off Onan Masaoka.
- Reported to Peoria of the Arizona Fall League, but only played in one game due to tendinitis in his right elbow after going 1-for-4 in his first game.

Since Major League Baseball began the First-Year Player Draft in 1965, a total of 20 selections have advanced directly to the Majors without ever playing a game in the minors, including just six in the last 30 years:

Draft/Year	Player	School	Team

Status

- ▶ Signed as a free agent on January 26, 2009 to a one-year contract...contract extends through the 2009 season.

- ▶ Was 14-14 with a 4.54 ERA in 33 starts...the Yankees were 15-18 in games he started...led the team with 204.0IP, surpassing 200.0IP for the fourth straight season and 10th time in his career...was his highest ERA since 1999 (4.70)...opponents batted .290 (233-for-804, 19HR); LH .203 (47-for-231, 3HR), RH .325 (186-for-573, 16HR).
- ▶ Over the last 10 years (1999-2008), ranks fourth in the Majors in wins (148), ninth in strikeouts (1,414) and 10th in games started (299)...his 215 career victories are the third-most in the Majors since he debuted in 1995, trailing recently retired Greg Maddux (224) and Mike Mussina (218).
- ▶ As a Yankee, ranks third in franchise history in strikeouts (1,574), fourth in games started (343), eighth (fourth among lefties) in innings pitched (2212.0), 10th in winning percentage (.638, 178-101) and 13th in appearances (352)...was selected by the Yankees in the 22nd round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft and is the first pitcher drafted by the Yankees to win 200 games in the Majors.
- ▶ Finished with 95 regular season wins at remodeled Yankee Stadium (1976-2008), trailing only Ron Guidry (99) for most all-time...his .693 (115-56) career winning percentage at Yankee Stadium trailed only Guidry's .723 (99-38) for the highest by a Yankees starter since 1976 (min. 120 starts)...his 167 starts at remodeled Yankee Stadium are the most all-time while his 1,120.0IP are second only to Guidry's 1,256.2IP...went 6-8 at home in 2008, recording a losing record at Yankee Stadium for the first time in his career as well as his most single-season losses at Yankee Stadium.
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Pettitte is one of just four active pitchers with at least 250 career starts to earn a victory in at least half of those appearances (50.2% - 214-127 in 426 starts)...the others are Pedro Martinez (50.8%), Roy Halladay (50.2%) and Randy Johnson (50.0%)...with 215 career wins, trails only Ted Lyons (260) all time among Louisiana-born pitchers...owns the fifth-most starts among active lefthanders (426).
- ▶ As a Yankee, is 76-40 (.655) in regular-season starts immediately following a Yankees loss (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- ▶ Owns a .687 (112-51) career winning percentage after the All-Star break, compared to a .575 (103-76) mark before the break...his second-half winning percentage ranks first all-time among pitchers with at least 200 post-All-Star Game starts...his 3.64 post-ASG ERA is nearly a half-run better than before the break (4.12).
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Mariano Rivera has recorded 55 saves in games in which Pettitte has been the winning pitcher, marking the second-highest total for any pair of pitchers since the inception of "saves" in 1969 behind Oakland's Dennis Eckersley for Bob Welch (57).

(*) Denotes start following a Yankees loss - Bold = season highs

- Carried a perfect game into the fifth inning in 4/20 win at Baltimore before Jay Payton's two-out infield single broke it up...threw 7.0 shutout innings, marking the 24th time in his career he pitched 7.0 or more innings and held his opponent scoreless, and the first time since 7/15/06 (w/ Houston) at Florida when he threw 7.0 scoreless innings in a 12-0 Astros win...was the first time he accomplished the feat as a Yankee since 6/20/03 vs. the Mets at Shea Stadium (7.0IP)...his 3-1 record through his first four starts of the season marked his best start since 2003, when he also began the year 3-1.
- Completed April 3-3, taking his Yankees career April record to 24-14...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he owns the most April wins in franchise history (Mel Stottlemyre-23, Whitey Ford-22, Red Ruffing-21).
- Made his 400th career start on 5/6 vs. Cleveland, recording a no-decision in a 5-3 Indians victory...exited with a 3-2 lead in the seventh inning, but the Indians won it with a David Dellucci three-run, pinch-hit home run in the eighth off Joba Chamberlain.
- Became the 115th pitcher and 35th lefthander in Major League history to reach the 400-start plateau...at 204-116, Pettitte's .638 winning percentage was the highest for a pitcher at the time of his 400th start since rotation-mate Mike Mussina was 206-114 (.644), heading into his 400th start on 6/11/04 vs. San Diego...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since 1946, only eight pitchers had a higher winning percentage than Pettitte at the time of their 400th start: Whitey Ford, Juan Marichal, Tom Seaver, Jim Palmer, Roger Clemens, Dwight Gooden, Randy Johnson and Mussina.
- Recorded the loss on 5/12 at Tampa Bay, snapping a seven-game, nine-start winning streak at Tropicana Field with his shortest outing of the season (4.0IP)...had not lost at the ballpark since 6/24/99.
- Lost four consecutive decisions from 4/25-5/17, recording a 6.26 ERA over the five-start stretch...was his longest losing streak since dropping four straight from 5/6-22/03.
- Recorded his first win of the season at Yankee Stadium on 5/23 vs. Seattle, snapping his four-game losing streak at the Stadium that dated back to 2007...had been the first time in his career that Pettitte had lost more than two consecutive decisions at Yankee Stadium and the first time he had failed to record a win in any of his first four starts at Yankee Stadium in any season.

ANDY PETTITTE

- ▶ Blew three leads in the same game for the first time in his career, recording a no-decision in 6/2 loss at Minnesota...gave up leads of 2-0, 4-2 and 5-4, becoming the first Yankee since Matt Keough on 8/12/83 at Detroit to blow three leads in the same game (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- ▶ On 6/7 vs. Kansas City, recorded a no-decision in the Yankees' 12-11, ninth-inning, "walk-off" win...tied career highs, allowing 10R (third time) and 10ER (second time)...had last allowed 10R on 4/4/06 w/ Houston vs. Florida (7ER) and 10ER on 7/30/96 at Texas (w/ New York-AL)...his second-inning strikeout of Esteban German was his 1,469th as a Yankee, passing Lefty Gomez for sole possession of fourth place on the Yankees' all-time list...allowed a grand slam to Jose Guillen in the seventh, his first grand slam allowed since Scott Podsednik on 6/23/06 at Chicago-AL (w/ Houston).

- ▶ Was named Most Valuable Player of the American League Championship Series, going 2-0 with a 2.51 ERA in two starts...in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. Seattle, matched his career postseason best by allowing just three hits (also 9/30/98 vs. Texas).

- ▶ Went 19-9 with a 4.35 ERA in 32 starts...his 88 wins over five seasons (1996-2000) were the third most in the Majors during that span behind only Pedro Martinez (90) and Greg Maddux (90)...earned his 100th career win on 9/24 vs. Detroit, becoming the 15th Yankee to record 100 career wins and the first since Ron Guidry in 1982...at 100-54, only four then-active pitchers had fewer losses at the time of their 100th win (Dwight Gooden, 100-37; Mike Mussina, 100-43; Roger Clemens, 100-47 and Pedro Martinez, 100-49).
- ▶ Allowed only 1HR to left-handed batters in 2000 (Robin Ventura, NY Mets on 6/10 at Yankee Stadium)...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/13 (retroactive to 4/8) with a strained muscle on the left side of his back...was reinstated on 4/26 and pitched 5.0 shutout innings vs. Minnesota (3H, 1BB, 4K), but did not record a decision in a 2-0 Yankees win...on 5/29 vs. Oakland, allowed a career-low two hits while registering his 15th career complete game (first since 8/19/98 at Minnesota) in a Yankees' 4-1 win...lone run came on ninth inning Randy Velarde homer.
- ▶ Won seven straight starts from 7/25 at Baltimore through 8/24 vs. Texas...recorded the loss on 8/29 at Seattle, snapping the winning streak...left the game with 3-1 lead and bases loaded in the eighth (grand slam by Edgar Martinez off Jeff Nelson gave the Mariners a 5-3 lead)...in his last start of the season on 9/29 at Baltimore, lasted only 1.1IP and allowed 9ER (6H, 4BB, 2K)...was his shortest non-injury exit since 4/30/96 at Baltimore when he went 1.0-plus inning...the nine earned runs allowed were the second most of his career (allowed 10ER in 2.2IP on 7/30/96 at Texas)...did not allow a home run in his final eight starts of the season (49.2IP) and only one in his last 10 starts (65.2 IP).
- ▶ Was 2-0 with a 2.84 ERA in five postseason starts...started the Yankees' World-Series clinching Game 5 on 10/25 at Shea Stadium...did not receive a decision, allowing two unearned runs in 7.0IP and leaving with the score tied at 2-2...was his third straight World Series road start in which he did not allow an earned run (22.2IP).

- ▶ Was 14-11 with a 4.70 ERA in 31 games (all starts)...his 69 wins over four seasons (1996-99) trailed only Pedro Martinez (72) and Greg Maddux (71) for the most wins in the Majors...compiled 81 wins in the 1990s, the most by any Yankee during the decade (David Cone was second with 60)...after going 5-7 with a 5.59 ERA (93.1IP, 58ER) in his first 16 starts, finished the season with a 9-4 record and a 3.84 ERA (98.1IP, 42ER) over his last 15 starts.
- ▶ Left his first--and only--spring training start on 3/7 vs. Minnesota after seven pitches with a strained left elbow...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/4 with a strained elbow (retroactive to 3/26)...on 4/6 suffered a sprained right ankle during agility drills...was reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on 4/17...started that night vs. Detroit and pitched six shutout innings but did not record a decision in a 3-1 Yankees loss...earned his first win of the season on 5/5 at Minnesota...the win snapped Pettitte's three-game losing streak dating back to 1998...after 102 decisions, the three-game skid marked the first streak of at least three losses in his career...since 1900, only two pitchers have had more decisions at the start of their careers before compiling a three-game losing streak: Dwight Gooden (139) and Mike Mussina (119).
- ▶ Registered 11K and earned the win on 8/13 vs. Minnesota...was his fourth career double-digit strikeout game and first since 9/16/97 at Boston when he fanned a career-high 12...had tossed 16 consecutive scoreless innings before allowing a run in the seventh...in a three-game span (8/2-13) allowed just 2ER and 14H in 23.0IP...his five wins in August tied him with four others for the most wins in the AL for the month, the third time he has won five games in the same month...his 1.76 ERA in August was second in the AL behind Anaheim's Chuck Finley (1.62)...pitched seven-or-more innings in six straight starts from 8/2-29.
- ▶ Was 2-0 with a 3.93 ERA in three postseason starts...won Game 2 of the Division Series vs. Texas on 10/7, allowing only 1ER in 7.1IP...earned the win in Game 4 of the ALCS at Boston on 10/17, limiting the Red Sox to 2ER in 7.1IP...saw his streak of 15.2 scoreless innings in World Series play come to an end in the Yankees' come-from-behind win in Game 3 on 10/26 at Atlanta, allowing 10H and 5ER in 3.2IP...did not draw a decision in the game.

- ▶ Went 16-11 with a 4.24 ERA in 33 games (32 starts)...tied for fifth in the American League in wins...led the AL with 55 wins combined from 1996-98, trailing only Atlanta's John Smoltz (56)...tossed a career-high five complete games...became the first Yankees pitcher to throw over 200.0 innings in three straight seasons since Ron Guidry did it in four straight from 1977-80.
- ▶ Made the first Opening Day start of his career in a 4-1 loss on 4/1 at Anaheim, allowing 4ER in 6.0IP (9H, 3BB, 3K)...began the season 0-2 with a 5.54 ERA in his first two starts, then won five straight starts from 4/11-5/2 (33.1IP, 7ER, 1.89 ERA)...tossed his first complete game of the season in a 9-1 win over Roger Clemens and the Blue Jays on 4/22 at Toronto in his 100th career start...with a .671 winning percentage after 100 career starts, owned the seventh-highest winning percentage of any pitcher in the post-expansion era (1961) after 100 career starts...the top six after 100 career starts: Ron Guidry, .765 (62-19); Dwight Gooden, .756 (59-19); Roger Clemens, .718 (56-22); Juan Guzman, .708 (46-19); Mike Mussina, .696 (55-24); and Jim Palmer, .671 (51-25).
- ▶ Won six straight decisions from 6/5-7/14 over eight starts, allowing just 12ER in 61.1IP while tossing three complete games (1.76 ERA)...threw a career-high 143 pitches in a complete-game 3-2 victory on 7/3 vs. Baltimore...missed 8/4 start at Oakland with a strain in his left trapezius...suffered the complete-game loss in a 5-3 defeat on 8/19 at Minnesota, losing for the third time in 1998 to the Twins - the first time he had ever lost three times to an opponent in the same season...made his only relief appearance of the season on 9/25 vs. Tampa Bay, tossing three shutout innings in relief of Orlando Hernandez in a 6-1 Yankees win.
- ▶ Was 2-1 with a 3.32 ERA in three postseason starts, making one start in each round of the playoffs...won Game 2 of the Division Series on 9/30 vs. Texas, limiting the Rangers to 1ER on 3H in 7.0IP in a 3-1 Yankees victory...lost Game 3 of the ALCS on 10/9 at Cleveland in a 6-1 Indians win (4.2IP, 8H, 6ER)...won Game 4 of the World Series on 10/21 at San Diego, throwing 7.1 scoreless innings (5H) in the Yankees' 3-0 victory to clinch the Series.

- ▶ Was 18-7 with a 2.88 ERA in 35 starts...set career bests for starts and innings pitched (240.1)...compiled an American League-most 39 wins over 1996 and '97, tying him with Atlanta's John Smoltz for the Major League lead...the Yankees were 24-11 in his starts, scoring 217 runs (6.2 runs/start - third-best in the AL)...opponents batted .256 (233-for-910, 7HR); LH hit .321 (62-for-193, 1HR), RH hit .238 (171-for-717, 6HR)...led American League pitchers with 35 starts, 14 pickoffs and 36 ground-ball double plays induced...allowed an AL-low 0.26HR/9.0IP (7HR/240.1IP)...ranked fourth in the AL in ERA, wins and winning percentage (.720)...ranked third in innings pitched, tied for sixth in complete games (4) and was eighth in strikeouts (166).
- ▶ Earned his third win of the season in Game 1 of a 4/13 doubleheader vs. Oakland in the Yankees' 10th game of the season, the second straight season he won three of the Yankees' first 10 games...joined Waite Hoyt (1922 and '29) as the only Yankees pitchers to accomplish the feat twice...finished April with a 5-0 record and a 2.32 ERA, joining Mel Stottlemyre (1969 and '74) as the only Yankees pitchers to win five games in April...became the first Yankee to start the season 5-0 since Bob Wickman opened 8-0 in 1993.
- ▶ Recorded consecutive losses for first time in 54 starts on 5/26 vs. Baltimore (last recorded two straight losses on 8/21 and 8/25/95)...tossed his first career shutout on 7/5 at Toronto (6H) in an 8-0 Yankees victory...had a season-high 23.0-inning scoreless streak snapped in an 11-5 win on 7/16 at Chicago (AL)...was the longest by a Yankees starter since Jimmy Key also tossed 23.0 scoreless innings from 4/5-21/93...lasted just one inning on 9/5 vs. Baltimore after being hit in the face by a Cal Ripken line drive (suffered contusions of the left thumb, lip and nose as well as a small laceration of the nose)...struck out a career-high 12 batters on 9/16 vs. Boston (GI), tossing eight shutout innings in a 2-0 victory (did not walk a batter)...allowed only four earned runs over six starts from 8/21-9/16 (38.1IP, 0.94 ERA).
- ▶ Was 0-2 with an 8.49 ERA in two starts vs. Cleveland in the Division Series...took the loss in Game 2, allowing 7ER on nine hits in five innings on 10/2 at Yankee Stadium...was the losing pitcher in Cleveland's series-clinching Game 5, allowing 4ER in 6.2IP on 10/6 at Jacobs Field in the 4-3 Indians victory.

- ▶ Went 21-8 with a 3.87 ERA in 35 games (34 starts)...finished second to Toronto's Pat Hentgen in American League Cy Young Award voting...led the AL in wins and was eighth in ERA...the Yankees were 24-10 in his starts, scoring 195 runs (5.7 runs/start)...led the Majors with 11 pickoffs...opponents hit .271 (229-for-844, 23HR); LH hit .329 (50-for-152, 1HR), RH hit .259 (179-for-692, 22HR)...was 13-3 after a Yankees loss and 11-1 in day games...was named to the Sporting News All-Star team...at 23 years, nine months and 24 days, he became the youngest Yankees pitcher to start the home opener since James "Hippo" Vaughn started on 4/14/10 vs. Boston at Hilltop Park.
- ▶ Made his only relief appearance of the season on 5/1 at Baltimore, tossing 3.0 shutout innings for the win in an 11-6, 15-inning victory...was his first relief appearance since 5/13/95, snapping a streak of 32 consecutive starts...recorded his 10th win of the season on 6/11 at Toronto, becoming only the fourth Yankees pitcher in the post-expansion era to record 10 wins in the team's first 60 games (Whitey Ford 10-2 in 1961, Ron Guidry 10-0 in 1978 and Tommy John 10-1 in 1979).

- ▶ Won his 15th game of the season on 7/24 vs. Texas, making him the third fastest Yankees pitcher to win 15 games in a season...won his 20th game of the season in a 10-3 victory on 9/4 at Oakland, becoming the Yankees' first 20-game winner since Ron Guidry in 1985...picked up his league-leading 21st win in a 4-1 victory on 9/13 vs. Toronto.
- ▶ Was 2-1 with a 4.78 ERA in the postseason...received no-decisions in his first two postseason starts, both Yankees wins (5-4 in Game 2 of the Division Series vs. Texas and 5-4 in Game 1 of the ALCS vs. Baltimore)...started Game 1 of the World Series vs. Atlanta and recorded his first career postseason loss in a 12-1 Braves victory (2.1IP, 7ER)...in Game 5 at Atlanta, tossed 8.1 shutout innings, out-dueling John Smoltz in the Yankees' 1-0 victory.

- ▶ Finished third in American League "Rookie of the Year" voting after going 12-9 with a 4.17 ERA in 31 games (26 starts)...his 16 points in the voting trailed Minnesota's Marty Cordova (105) and California's Garret Anderson (99)...led all American League rookies in wins...led the American League with 12 pickoffs...began the season in the bullpen, making five appearances without recording a decision (5.14 ERA)...made his Major League debut on 4/29 at Kansas City (0.2IP, 3H, 2ER, 1K).
- ▶ Was optioned to Triple-A Columbus on 5/16 to make room for Mariano Rivera on the 25-man roster...was recalled on 5/27 and made his first Major League start that day at Oakland, suffering the loss in a 3-0 Athletics win (5.1IP, 7H, 3R, 1ER, 2BB, 3K, 1HR)...stayed in the Yankees' starting rotation for the remainder of the season...threw his first career complete game in his second Major League start on 6/2 vs. California, but suffered the loss in a 3-2 Angels win.
- ▶ Earned his first Major League win on 6/7 vs. Oakland in a 6-1 Yankees victory, allowing 1ER in 7.0IP (4H, 1BB, 3K)...suffered the shortest start of his career on 8/21 at Oakland in a 13-4 Athletics win, leaving after 0.2IP (6ER, 8H)...tossed a complete-game five-hitter, tying his season high with eight strikeouts, in a 4-1 victory on 8/30 vs. the Angels (retired 20 of his first 21 batters faced).
- ▶ Did not allow a home run to a left-handed batter until he allowed a two-run shot to Rafael Palmeiro in the ninth inning of a 5-4 win on 9/14 at Baltimore...went 5-1 with a 3.38 ERA in six September starts...became only the fifth Yankees rookie starter to ever win five games after September 1, joining Russ Ford (7-0 in 1910), Ernie Bonham (6-1 in 1940), Mel Stottlemyre (5-2 in 1964) and Bob Wickman (5-1 in 1992).
- ▶ Made his lone postseason start in Game 2 of the Division Series on 10/4 vs. Seattle and recorded a no-decision in the Yankees' 7-5, 15-inning victory (7.0IP, 9H, 4ER, 3BB, 1HR).

Career Highlights

A.L. All-Star Team

► 2000, 2001, 2002,
2003, 2007

A.L. Silver Slugger

Award

Status

► Selected in the 24th round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft...signed a four-year contract on November 29, 2007...contract extends through the 2011 season.

► Hit .268 (45-for-168) with 13 doubles, 3HR and 22RBI in 51 games with the Yankees before being placed on the disabled list from 7/21 through the conclusion of the season with a right shoulder strain (28 starts at C, 15 at DH, three at 1B)...marked his most starts at 1B since 2000 (8GS).

► Was placed on the 15-day D.L. on 7/21 (retroactive to 7/20)...underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder on 7/30 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York...the procedure was performed by Dr. David Altcheck (missed 63 team games).

► Was his second stint on the D.L. in 2008...was also on the 15-day D.L. from 4/28-6/3 with a right shoulder strain that was later diagnosed as right rotator cuff tendinitis (missed 32 team games)...had never spent time on the disabled list prior to the 2008 season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, at the time of his injury, Posada was one of six current players with at least 10 years of service that had never been placed on the disabled list along with Brad Ausmus, Johnny Damon, Andruw Jones, Derek Lowe and Livan Hernandez...prior to 4/28/08, the Yankees' last game without Posada on the active roster was 9/1/96 at California (Jim Leyritz started at C).

► Had started at least 120 games behind the plate in each of his previous eight seasons (2000-07), a streak equaled only by Jason Kendall...his 1,047 games started at catcher over the last nine seasons (2000-08) are the most by any AL catcher and second most in the Majors behind Kendall's 1,268.

► According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Posada has homered in more ballparks (25) than any player in franchise history...has 221 career home runs for sole possession of ninth place on the Yankees' all-time list (Don Mattingly is eighth with 222)...his 213HR as a catcher rank second on the Yankees' all-time list behind only Yogi Berra (306)...became just the eighth catcher all-time to reach the 200HR plateau...with 883 career RBI, ranks 12th on the Yankees' all-time list.

► Has 701RBI (as a catcher) over the last nine seasons (2000-08), the most by any catcher in the Major Leagues during that span (Ivan Rodriguez is second with 574 RBI)...his 179HR (as a catcher) over that same span are also the most among Major League backstops (Mike Piazza is second with 159).

► Caught just three of 37 potential base stealers in 2008...opponents were successful in their last 12 attempts.

JORGE POSADA

- games, more than any other Major League catcher and sixth-most overall...has recorded 19 postseason doubles, third-most all time...his 40 Division Series games played are fifth-most on Baseball's all-time list.
- ▶ Won his fifth career Silver Slugger Award and was named the starting catcher on both the Baseball America and the Sporting News Major League All-Star teams.
 - ▶ His batting average (.338) was 61 points higher than in 2006 (.277), the largest increase for any Major Leaguer who qualified for the batting title in 2006 and 2007...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, from 1939-2008, the only Yankee to improve his batting average by 60 or more points from one season to the next was Bobby Murcer who hit .331 in 1971 after posting a .251 average in 1970 (an 80 point increase)...since 1940, only four players appearing primarily at catcher have recorded a higher single-season batting average: St. Louis' Joe Torre (.363 in 1971), the Dodgers' Mike Piazza (.362 in 1997 and .346 in 1995) and Minnesota's Joe Mauer (.347 in 2006).
 - ▶ His average never went below .311 (on 4/29) and he never went more than three games without hitting safely...his eighth-inning single on 8/16 vs. Detroit snapped an 0-for-11 stretch, his longest hitless streak of the season...did not have a hitless streak of 10 or more at-bats since going 0-for-10 from 8/15-8/06.
 - ▶ His 42 doubles established a franchise record for a catcher, surpassing his own record of 40 set in 2002...joined Ivan Rodriguez (47 in 1996 and 40 in 1998) as the only two catchers in Major League history to have two seasons of 40 or more doubles, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...became only the 17th player in Major League history to collect at least 300 career doubles while appearing in at least 1,000 games at catcher.
 - ▶ Became one of only eight catchers in Major League history (min: 50% of career games at C) to reach 20HR in at least seven seasons (Mike Piazza and Johnny Bench-11; Yogi Berra-10; Gary Carter-9; Carlton Fisk-8; and Lance Parrish, Roy Campanella and Posada-7)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
 - ▶ Was selected to the 2007 American League All-Star team, his fifth career All-Star selection and first since 2003...went 1-for-3 with 1 double in 7/10 AL win, pinch-hitting for Josh Beckett in the fifth inning and remaining in game at C.
 - ▶ Combined with Alex Rodriguez for a .325 batting average, 74HR and 246RBI...according to Elias, no Yankees teammates had combined for numbers that high in each of those categories since 1937, when Joe DiMaggio and Lou Gehrig had a .349BA, 83HR and 326RBI between them.
 - ▶ Batted a team-high .545 with the bases loaded, ranking sixth in the majors (min. 10AB)...threw out 28-of-130 potential base stealers in 2007 (21.5%).
 - ▶ Hit solo-HR—his second career Opening Day HR and the 199th of his career—and was 2-for-4 with 2R in 4/2 win vs. Tampa Bay...hit his 200th career home run in 4/17 win vs. Cleveland...did not play in 4/21 loss at Boston (bruised left thumb)...suffered the injury catching an Andy Pettitte pitch the previous night in Boston.
 - ▶ Ranked second in the Majors in May with a .394 average (37-for-94) and led the team with 19 runs scored for the month...in 26 games, had 11 doubles, 3HR and 15RBI...was his highest calendar-month batting average since June 2001 (.406)...compiled a career-high 15-game hitting streak from 5/3-20, batting .448 (26-for-58) with 13R, 7 doubles, 3HR and 8RBI...was the longest hitting streak for a Yankees catcher since Bob Geren hit safely in 15 straight games in 1989.
 - ▶ Hit solo home runs from each side of the plate and tied career highs with 4H and 4R in 9/4 win vs. Seattle, going 4-for-4 with 1BB...was the second time in 2007 (also 8/1 vs. Chicago) and the eighth time in his career he hit homers from both sides of the plate in the same game, tying Bernie Williams for the second most in team history (Mickey Mantle holds the AL record with 10)...is the most single-game switch-hit HR by a catcher all-time...was his 15th career multi-HR game (all 2HR).
 - ▶ Recorded his 300th career double and was 2-for-3 with a solo-HR, 3R and 2BB in 9/11 win at Toronto...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became only the 17th player to reach the 300-double plateau while appearing in at least 1,000 games at catcher.
 - ▶ Went a career-high 37 plate appearances without a strikeout from 8/31-9/12 (previous high was 33PA in 1997).
 - ▶ Hit a team-best .395 in September (30-for-76), fifth-highest in the AL for the month...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two players have had a higher September average than Posada in a year in which they caught at least 130 games: the Dodgers' Mike Piazza in 1997 (.406) and Pittsburgh's Jason Kendall in 2004 (.400)...named honorary Yankees Manager for the regular season finale on 10/1 at Baltimore.
 - ▶ Batted .133 (2-for-15) in four Division Series games vs. Cleveland.

- Signed by the Yankees as a free agent on July 9, 2006...signed through the 2009 season.

- Was 5-1 with one save and a 3.90 ERA in a career-high 55 relief appearances over two stints with the Yankees (4/18-19; 4/29-9/28)...opponents batted .215 (44-for-205, 7HR); LH .229 (27-for-118, 4HR), RH .195 (17-for-87, 3HR)...retired 40-of-54 first batters faced (72.2%)...stranded 26-of-40 inherited runners (65.0%)...appeared in consecutive games 12 times.
- Averaged 10.25 K/9.0IP (63K, 55.1IP), leading Yankees relievers and ranking seventh among AL relievers.
- Posted a 1.33 ERA (27.0IP, 4ER) when working on one or no days' rest...owned a 6.35 ERA (28.1IP, 20ER) when receiving two or more days of rest.
- Made two appearances in 2008 in which he allowed 4ER without retiring a batter each time (6/3 vs. Toronto and 8/9 at Los Angeles-AL)...in his 53 other appearances, combined for a 2.60 ERA (55.1IP, 16ER)...pitched to a 59.40 ERA (1.2IP, 11ER) against the Angels and a 2.18 ERA (53.2IP, 13ER) against all other Major League teams.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 4/18 and made his first appearance of the season that night at Baltimore, tossing 2.1 scoreless innings in the Yankees' loss...was optioned back the next day and then recalled a second time on 4/29.
- Did not allow a run in his first 21 relief appearances of the season with the Yankees and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre...in his first 13 appearances with the Yankees, allowed 10H and 6BB in 14.2IP (15K)...did not allow a run in eight appearances with Scranton/WB, going 1-0 and holding opponents to a .069 average (2-for-29) over 9.0IP (1BB, 1HB, 13K).
- Allowed his first run of the season (minors and Majors) in 5/31 win at Minnesota, giving up a seventh-inning solo home run to record his first blown save of the season.
- In his next outing, a 6/3 loss vs. Toronto, allowed all four batters faced to reach base and score without recording an out (1H, 4ER, 3BB)...had held opponents hitless in 18 consecutive at-bats with runners in scoring position before Rod Barajas' two-run double in the seventh inning.
- Was ejected by home plate umpire Mark Wegner from 7/30 win vs. Baltimore after entering the game and throwing one pitch to Kevin Millar...Wegner deemed him intentionally throwing at the batter...marked his first career ejection...appealed a three-game suspension given by Major League Baseball on 7/31 and served a reduced two-game suspension from 9/15-16.
- Had 12 consecutive scoreless outings from 6/29-7/30, going 1-0 and allowing just 1H (13.1IP, 3BB, 17K)...lowered his ERA from 3.60 to 2.35...did not allow a run in 10 July appearances (11.1IP)...held opponents hitless for 37 consecutive at-bats from 7/3-8/3...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, marked the longest such stretch by a Yankee since Randy Johnson in 2005 (39AB).

Status

- Signed as a non-drafted free agent on February 17, 1990...signed a three-year contract on December 17, 2007 that extends through the 2010 season.

- Was 6-5 with 39 saves (in 40 chances) and a 1.40 ERA in a team-high 64 appearances with the Yankees...were his most wins and saves and his lowest ERA since 2005 (7, 43, 1.38)...established a career high with a 97.5% save percentage, the highest mark by an AL closer since Boston's Tom Gordon in 1998 (97.9%, 46-for-47)...finished fifth in AL Cy Young Award voting.
- Opponents batted .165 (41-for-249, 4HR); LH .147 (19-for-129, 2HR), RH .183 (22-for-120, 2HR)...was the lowest opponents average among qualifying AL relievers, trailing only the Cubs' Carlos Marmol (.135) among all Major League relievers...stranded 16-of-20 inherited runners (80.0%)...retired 47-of-64 first batters faced (73.4%)...pitched consecutive games nine times, three straight three times and four straight three times...appeared in four straight games four times combined over his previous four years (2004-07)...saved consecutive games five times and earned the save in three straight games three times.
- Had the Majors' lowest ERA among all pitchers with at least 70.0IP...ranked third among AL relievers in strikeouts and was tied with Joe Nathan for fifth in the AL in saves.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Rivera's 12.83-to-1 strikeouts-to-walks ratio (77K, 6BB) was the third highest in modern Major League history (min. 50.0IP), behind Dennis Eckersley's 1989 (18.33-to-1) and 1990 (18.25-for-1) campaigns.
- Since earned runs became an official statistic in the National League (in 1912) and American League (in 1913), his 2.29 career ERA is the fourth lowest all time among pitchers with at least 1,000.0IP behind only Eddie Cicotte (2.20), Jim Scott (2.26) and Babe Ruth (2.28), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Is the all-time American League leader with 482 career saves and ranks second on Baseball's all-time list (since saves became official stat in 1969) behind only Trevor Hoffman (554)...his 88.9% save conversion rate ranks fourth all time among pitchers with at least 200 save opportunities.
- Over the last 10 years (1999-2008), leads the Majors with 398 saves and ranks sixth with 651 appearances (fourth among right-handers)...over the last five years (2004-08), owns 199 saves, tying Joe Nathan for the third-most in the Majors.
- Has the most saves in Yankees franchise history...his 851 appearances are the most in club history (328 more than second-place Dave Righetti's 523) and rank 31st on Baseball's all-time list...ranks 13th in club history with 934K...owns seven of the nine highest single-season save totals in franchise history (1. 53 in 2004; 2. 50 in 2001; 4. 45 in 1999; 5. 43 in 1997 and 2005; 8. 40 in 2003; 9. 39 in 2008).

MARIANO RIVERA

- Recorded his ninth season with at least 35 saves, second-most behind Trevor Hoffman's 11 seasons...was his sixth straight 30-save season since 2003 (had five consecutive from 1997-2001) and 11th of his career, surpassing Lee Smith (10) for the second-most such seasons all-time behind Hoffman (12)...reached the 25-save plateau for the 12th consecutive season (1997-2008) and trails only Lee Smith (13 straight seasons 1983-95) for the longest such streak since saves became an official statistic in 1969.
- Has allowed only 2ER in 47.2IP over 31 ALDS appearances and his 0.38 ERA is the lowest of any pitcher in the history of Division Series play...owns 34 career postseason saves in 39 opportunities (87.2%), both most all time...also has a Major League-record nine World Series saves...his 20 World Series appearances are tied with Mike Stanton for the second-most all time behind Whitey Ford (22)...has a record 11 career 2.0-inning saves in the postseason...owns a 0.77 ERA (117.1IP, 10ER) in a Major League-record 76 career postseason games, the lowest ERA all time (min. 30.0IP).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, has converted 69-of-72 (95.8%) save opportunities since blowing his first two saves of the 2007 season, marking the best conversion rate in the Majors over that span (since 4/21/07).
- Saved 22 of the Yankees' 41 road wins in 2008 (53.7%)...has converted 39 of his last 41 road SVO (since 5/3/07), allowing 10ER in 65.0IP (1.38 ERA, 45H, 9BB, 65K)...saved 10 straight road wins from 4/23-6/12/08.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 230 saves at the original Yankee Stadium are the most by any one pitcher in any one ballpark...saved his final 23 chances at the Stadium, including all 20 in 2008.
- Owns 106 career saves when recording more than three outs and 45 saves when tossing at least 1.2 innings.
- Converted his first 28 save opportunities to start 2008, marking a career best (converted first 12 chances in 2004)...was not charged with a run in any of his first 22 save opportunities, becoming the first pitcher since 1975 (when the current save rules came into effect) to accomplish the feat (credit: Elias).
- Worked to a 0.62 ERA in save opportunities in 2008, allowing only 3ER in 43.1IP (20H, 3BB, 48K)...was 6-5 with a 2.63 ERA in 24 non-save situations (27.1IP, 21H, 8ER, 3BB, 29K)...entered 15 tied games in 2008, posting a 6-5 record with a 3.44 ERA and allowing the go-ahead run to score eight times (18.1IP, 17H, 7ER, 3BB, 23K).
- Made 15 appearances of more than 1.0 inning, going 3-0 with eight saves and a 0.40 ERA in such outings (22.2IP, 8H, 1R, 3BB, 22K)...threw a season-high 2.0IP four times (5/27 at Baltimore, 7/6 vs. Boston, 7/9 vs. Tampa Bay and 8/16 vs. Kansas City) without allowing a run.
- Was selected to his ninth All-Star Game, joining teammate Derek Jeter as the only players to be named to the All-Star team with their current team at least nine times (credit: Elias)...tossed 1.2 scoreless innings in the 15.0-inning AL victory on 7/15 at Yankee Stadium, entering with one out and one on in the ninth...donated his jersey as well as dirt from the mound to the Baseball Hall of Fame.
- Along with Derek Jeter and Jorge Posada, became the first trio of teammates to play for the Yankees in each of 14 straight seasons (1995-2008), surpassing the 13 consecutive seasons of Bill Dickey, Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing (1930-42) and Whitey Ford, Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle (1955-67)...are the first Major League trio to play together as long since Jim Gantner, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount (15 years, 1978-92 with Milwaukee) (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Recorded his second career Opening Day save—the most in franchise history—tossing a perfect ninth inning (1.0IP, 1K) in 4/1 win vs. Toronto...made his 13th career Opening Day roster.
- Did not allow a run or walk in his first 14 appearances (4/1-5/10), recording 10 saves and striking out 12 batters in 15.0IP (6H)...was the longest scoreless streak to begin a season in his career.
- Was named the April winner of the "DHL Presents the Major League Baseball Delivery Man of the Month" Award...did not allow a run in 10 relief appearances, striking out 11 batters over 11.0IP (4H) while recording a save in each of his eight save opportunities...combined for just eight April saves from 2005-07 (only one in 2007)...marked his most saves in April since 2004 (eight).
- Made 800th career appearance in 5/8 win vs. Cleveland, tossing a scoreless ninth (1.0IP, 1H) to record his ninth save...became the 39th pitcher in Baseball history to pitch in at least 800 games...allowed a double to Ben Francisco, marking his first extra-base hit allowed of the season after 45 batters faced...the double also snapped a 19AB hitless streak by opposing batters against Rivera (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- On 5/13 at Tampa Bay, in his 15th appearance of the year, allowed "walk-off" RBI single in the 11th to suffer the loss (1.0IP, 3H, 1ER, 1K)...was his first run allowed of the season, marking the latest into a season he had gone without allowing a run... previous best was in 1998 when he first allowed a run in his 11th appearance on 5/14/98 vs. Texas.

- ▶ Was named American League "Player of the Week" for the period ending 6/1, earning his first career weekly award... in four appearances, recorded three saves without allowing a run (5.0IP, 1H, 2BB, 7K).
- ▶ In 6/7 win vs. Kansas City, recorded his second win of the season despite allowing a home run to David DeJesus, his first batter faced, on his first pitch (1.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1K, 1HR)... was his first HR allowed since 8/15/07 vs. Baltimore (Aubrey Huff) and marked the first time he had allowed a HR on his first pitch after entering a game since 8/23/97 at Seattle to Roberto Kelly (credit: Elias).
- ▶ Pitched on four consecutive days from 6/7-10 (3G vs. Kansas City, 1G at Oakland), throwing 1.0 inning in each outing... was the third time in his career he pitched on four consecutive days (also from 6/1-4/04 and 7/31-8/3/03)... made five appearances in a six-day span from 6/7-12... struck out nine of 11 batters faced from 6/12-19.
- ▶ Allowed his first run of the season in a save opportunity in 7/5 win vs. Boston... allowed 1ER and loaded the bases with no outs (2HP) before retiring the final three batters of the game to earn his 23rd save... according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time Rivera escaped a bases-full-none-out jam with the tying run on third in the game's final inning.
- ▶ Pitched 2.0 scoreless innings in back-to-back outings on 7/6 (vs. Boston) and 7/9 (vs. Tampa Bay), recording the win in both games as the Yankees won with 10th-inning "walk-off" hits.
- ▶ In 7/29 loss vs. Baltimore, pitched the ninth to surpass the 1000.0IP plateau (1,000.1).
- ▶ On 8/1 at Los Angeles (AL), allowed one-out ninth-inning "walk-off" RBI-single to Chone Figgins on his first and only pitch of the game as the Angels won 1-0... entered game with runners on first and second and one out... according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was just the second time he allowed the game's first run (also 7/7/01 vs. the Mets - allowed 3ER in 10th)... was just the second time he threw just one pitch (also 8/7/05 at Toronto - earned the save).
- ▶ In 8/12 win at Minnesota, allowed game-tying three-run HR to Delmon Young in the eighth for his first and only blown save of 2008 (1.2IP, 2H, 1ER)... was his first home run allowed in a save opportunity since 4/15/07 at Oakland (a span of 60 appearances).
- ▶ In 8/15 loss vs. Kansas City, allowed the go-ahead run to score on a wild pitch... was just his second WP in his last six seasons (also 7/29/07 at Baltimore) and the 11th wild pitch of his career... was just the second time in his career he allowed a run on a wild pitch (also 6/24/00 at Chicago-AL) and his first time allowing the go-ahead run on a WP (credit: Elias).
- ▶ Saved all three games of the Yankees' series at Baltimore from 8/22-24, marking the sixth time in his career he has saved all of the games in a series of three or more games (previous 6/1-3/04 vs. Baltimore)... was also the 19th time in his career he recorded a save on three or more consecutive days... the only other Yankees pitchers to earn a save in each game of a series (of at least three games) are Dave Righetti (1986), Steve Howe (1994) and John Wetteland (twice in 1996).
- ▶ Recorded save No. 30 on 8/23 at Baltimore, equaling his total from all of 2007.
- ▶ Pitched more than 1.0 inning in four straight appearances from 8/24-9/6, going 1-0 with three saves (5.2IP, 1H, 0R, 1BB, 6K)... was his longest such stretch since recording five straight appearances of more than 1.0IP from 8/8-23/96.
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, held opponents hitless in 27 consecutive at-bats from 8/15-29... streak was broken up by a Vernon Wells ninth-inning single on 8/29 vs. Toronto... was his longest such stretch since a 46AB streak in 1996.
- ▶ Earned his fifth win of the season on 8/28 vs. Boston, retiring each of his four batters faced (1.1IP)... marked the first time he had entered a tied game at Yankee Stadium prior to the ninth inning since 9/22/96 vs. Boston (credit: Elias).
- ▶ Recorded his 479th career save in 9/15 win vs. Chicago (AL), surpassing Lee Smith (478) for sole possession of second place on Baseball's all-time saves list... tied Smith with his save on 9/14 vs. Tampa Bay, striking out his only batter faced (Aybar) with two men on base.
- ▶ Threw 1.0 scoreless inning in the final game at Yankee Stadium on 9/21 vs. Baltimore, inducing a Brian Roberts groundout to 1B Cody Ransom with the game's final pitch to secure the Yankees victory.

MARIANO RIVERA

- ▶ Was selected to the 2005 American-League All-Star team, his seventh career All-Star selection...retired the final batter of the All-Star Game at Detroit to record his second career All-Star save.
- ▶ In 7/10 win vs. Cleveland, pitched 2.0 perfect innings (3K) to record his 20th save of the season and his first two-inning save since 7/11/03 at Toronto...on 8/16 at Tampa Bay, allowed game-tying ninth-inning home run (Eduardo Perez) to record fourth blown save of the season and second in span of three opportunities...prior to blowing the save, had recorded 33 consecutive saves vs. the Devil Rays, the most saves—without a blown save—by a pitcher against one particular opponent in American League history...after blowing save on 8/16 at Tampa Bay, was 11-for-11 in save situations to close out the season...allowed 1ER in final 12 appearances of the season (from 9/7), going 1-0 with eight saves and a 0.69 ERA (13.0IP, 8H).
- ▶ Recorded saves in each of his two appearances versus the Angels in the Division Series (3.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1BB, 1K)...recorded the 15th Division Series save of his career in Game 4 vs. the Angels, tossing 2.0 perfect innings for his first two-inning postseason save since Game 5 of the 2003 ALCS at Boston...it also was his Major League-leading 34th career postseason save (in 39 opportunities).

- ▶ Was 4-2 with a 1.94 ERA and a single-season franchise-record 53 saves in career-high 74 relief appearances...led the Major Leagues in saves and was tied for fourth in the American League in appearances...his 53 saves tied Randy Myers (Chicago Cubs, 1993) and Trevor Hoffman (San Diego Padres, 1998) for fourth place on Baseball's single-season all-time list...joined Eric Gagne as the only relievers in Major League history to record two 50-save seasons...earned his third "Rolands Relief Man of the Year" Award...converted 53-of-57 save opportunities (93.0%)...saved two consecutive games seven times...saved three consecutive games four times, and saved four straight games once...made appearances in consecutive games 13 times, three straight games seven times, and four straight games once...retired 53-of-74 first batters faced (71.6%)...prevented 11-of-17 inherited runners from scoring (64.7%)...opponents batted .225 (65-for-289, 3HR); LH .234 (36-for-154, 2HR), RH .215 (29-for-135, 1HR)...was selected to the 2004 American League All-Star team, his sixth career All-Star selection...pitched a perfect ninth inning in the American League's 9-4 win on 7/13.
- ▶ In 5/11 win vs. Anaheim, allowed 2ER in 1.0IP to suffer his first blown save of the season, snapping a stretch of 28 consecutive save conversions...in 5/19 win at Anaheim, tossed perfect ninth to record league-leading 15th save in the Yankees' 39th game of the season...became the first Yankees reliever to reach 15 saves in fewer than 50 games into any season (he earned his 15th save in the club's 50th game in both 2000 and 2001)...became the 17th pitcher in Major League history—and first Yankee—to reach the 300-save plateau in 5/28 win at Tampa Bay, recording his 17th save of the season with a scoreless ninth (1H, 1K)...became only the fourth pitcher in Major League history to record 300 saves for one team, joining Trevor Hoffman (391 for San Diego), Dennis Eckersley (320 for Oakland) and Jeff Montgomery (304 for Kansas City)...also became the fifth youngest pitcher to reach 300 saves—at 34 years, 181 days—behind Robb Nen (32 years, 251 days), Lee Smith (33/264), John Wetteland (33/265) and Trevor Hoffman (33/306).
- ▶ Saved all three games in series vs. Baltimore from 6/1-3, the fifth time of his career that he has saved each game of a three-game series and the first time since 4/27-29/01 vs. Oakland...earned his fourth save in as many games and 22nd of the season in 6/4 win vs. Texas, pitching a perfect ninth...was the second time in his career saving four straight games (also 6/23-27/97)...was also the second time in his career that he has pitched on each of four straight days (also 7/31-8/3/03)...recorded saves in nine straight Yankees wins from 5/28-6/9, the longest such streak of his career...with 11 saves in June, tied his career high for any calendar month.
- ▶ In 7/8 win vs. Tampa Bay, pitched a perfect 1.2 innings (1K) to earn his 30th save...tied the then-American League record for fewest team games in a season to reach the 30-save plateau, joining Bobby Thigpen of the Chicago White Sox (1990) and Boston's Lee Smith (1993), who also reached 30 saves in their team's 83rd game...record later surpassed by the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez in 2008 (76 games)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only Cincinnati's Danny Graves (77 games in 2004), Los Angeles' Eric Gagne (82 games in 2002) and Atlanta's John Smoltz (82 games in 2003) had reached 30 saves in fewer games than Rivera at the time...established an AL record with 32 saves before the All-Star break (fell two shy of the Major League mark of 34 set by Atlanta's John Smoltz in 2003)...surrendered "walk-off," two-run home run to Bill Mueller in the bottom of the ninth in 7/24 loss at Boston...was his second "walk-off" homer allowed—and the first since 7/14/02 when the Indians' Bill Selby hit a ninth-inning "walk-off" grand slam in a 10-7 Indians win at Jacobs Field.
- ▶ Recorded save No. 40 in 8/14 win at Seattle (Game 116), becoming the quickest to the 40-save plateau and breaking Bobby Thigpen's record of 118 games set with the Chicago White Sox in 1990...record was later broken by the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez in 2008 (98 games)...earned his 45th save of the season in the Yankees' 18-6 win on 8/28 at Toronto, retiring last four batters of the game (entered the game with a 9-6 lead and two runners on base)...the last Yankee to earn a save in a game in which the Yankees won by at least 12 runs was Ed Figueroa, who earned a save in a 16-3 Yankees win on 5/14/80 vs. Kansas City.
- ▶ Did not allow a run in 14 appearances from 7/30-9/1 (15.1IP, 10H, 2BB, 13K), going 1-0 with 11 saves.
- ▶ Was 1-0 with two saves and a 0.71 ERA in nine postseason appearances...earned his 10th career LCS save in Game 2 vs. Boston...recorded back-to-back blown saves for the first time in his postseason career in Games 4 and 5 of the ALCS at Boston.

- ▶ Was 5-2 with a 1.66 ERA and 40 saves in 64 relief appearances with the Yankees...ranked third in the American League with 40 saves despite missing the first 25 games of the season and having only four saves through the Yankees' 59th game...had 36 saves in the final 104 games of the season...converted 40-of-46 save opportunities (87.0%)...saved two consecutive games eight times and three consecutive games twice (6/24-26 and 6/28-30)...retired 44-of-64 first batters faced (68.8%)...prevented 18-of-35 inherited runners from scoring (51.4%)...opponents batted .235 (61-for-260, 3HR); LH .197 (29-for-147, 1HR), RH .281 (32-for-113, 2HR)...made appearances in consecutive games 11 times, three straight games five times and four straight games once.
- ▶ Began the season on the 15-day D.L. (retroactive to 3/25) with a strained right groin...suffered the injury on the last pitch of 3/24 spring training outing vs. Detroit...was reinstated from the D.L. on 4/29 (missed first 25 games of the season)...made his 2003 debut in 4/30 win vs. Seattle, surrendering 1H and allowing 1ER to close out the game in a non-save situation (1BB, 2K)...recorded his first save of the season in 5/1 win vs. Seattle, tossing a perfect ninth inning (1K)...in 6/13 win vs. St. Louis, pitched a perfect ninth to save Roger Clemens' 300th victory.
- ▶ Made fourth straight appearance on 8/3 at Oakland, allowing 2H and 1ER in 0.1IP to record his first loss of the season and fourth blown save...was the fifth time in his career he has pitched in four or more consecutive games, first since 4/10-14/01.
- ▶ Was 14-for-14 in save opportunities in 14 appearances from 8/19-9/19...was the longest such streak in the Majors since Atlanta's John Smoltz also earned saves in 14 straight appearances in 2002...did not allow a run in his final 15 appearances of the season (16.1IP, 10H, 3BB, 16K) and saved all 16 of his opportunities from 8/19 through the conclusion of the regular season.
- ▶ Was 1-0 with a 0.56 ERA and five saves in eight postseason relief appearances...also struck out 14 batters without allowing a walk in postseason play...was named American League Championship Series Most Valuable Player, going 1-0 with a 1.13 ERA and two saves in four appearances vs. Boston...earned the win in Game 7, pitching 3.0 scoreless innings—his first three-inning stint since 9/6/96 vs. Toronto.

- ▶ Battled through three stints on the disabled list to go 1-4 with a 2.74 ERA and 28 saves in 45 games...in 5/9 win at Tampa Bay, recorded the 25th save of his career to surpass Dave Righetti (224) as the club's all-time saves leader...converted 28-of-32 save opportunities (87.5%)...had to record more than three outs in four of his 28 saves...saved two consecutive games five times and three consecutive twice...retired 35-of-45 first batters faced (77.8%)...prevented 11-of-20 inherited runners from scoring (55.0%)...made appearances in consecutive games 12 times and three straight games twice...opponents batted .203 (35-for-172, 3HR); LH .181 (15-for-83, 1HR), RH .225 (20-for-89, 2HR)...was selected to his fifth All-Star Game by Manager Joe Torre and pitched a scoreless ninth inning (1H) on 7/9 at Miller Park in Milwaukee, as the game ended tied in the 13th inning.
- ▶ Was placed on the 15-day disabled list three separate times in 2002 (entering the season had been placed on the disabled list once in his eight-year Major League career)...was placed on the 15-day D.L. from 6/9-25 with a strained right groin...on 6/26 at Baltimore, struck out the side in first appearance since reinstatement, pitching in the seventh inning for first time since 10/1/00 at Baltimore...was removed from 7/20 win vs. Boston—after six pitches—with tightness in his right shoulder (1H, 1ER in 0.1IP)...was placed on the 15-day disabled list for a second time from 7/26 (retroactive to 7/21) to 8/8 with a mild muscle strain of the right shoulder...was placed on 15-day D.L. for a third time from 8/19 (retroactive to 8/16) to 9/21 with a muscle strain of the right shoulder.
- ▶ Converted 17 consecutive save opportunities from 4/23-7/11 without allowing a run (17.0IP, 8H)...on 7/14 at Cleveland, allowed "walk-off" grand slam by Bill Selby in the ninth inning to suffer his second consecutive blown save and fourth loss on the season (0.2IP, 5H, 6ER, 11BB, 1K)...was his second game-winning home run allowed in 2002 (also Shea Hillenbrand on 4/13 at Boston) and fourth of his career...6ER were the most allowed in a relief appearance in his career.
- ▶ Made one appearance in the Division Series vs. the Angels, saving Game 1 (1.0IP, 1H).

- ▶ Went 4-6 with a 2.34 ERA and 50 saves in 71 games...became only the sixth player in Major League history to reach the 50-save plateau in a single season...saved at least 30 games in five straight seasons, surpassing Dave Righetti for most 30-save seasons by a Yankee.
- ▶ Converted 50-of-57 save opportunities (87.7%)...had to record more than three outs in 13 of his 50 saves...saved two consecutive games nine times and three consecutive games three times (4/27-29; 6/14-16; 7/16-18)...retired 57-of-71 first batters faced (80.3%) and prevented 20-of-25 inherited runners from scoring (80.0%)...made appearances in consecutive games 13 times, three straight games six times and pitched in four straight games once...opponents batted .209 (61-for-292, 5HR); LH .187 (26-for-139, 0HR), RH .229 (35-for-153, 5HR)...was selected to participate in the All-Star Game, but did not attend to rest an injured right ankle.

MARIANO RIVERA

- ▶ Saved all three games a series vs. Oakland from 4/27-29...in 8/1 win vs. Texas, recorded his 200th career save and 35th of the season pitching 2.0 scoreless innings (2K)...recorded 46th save of the season in 9/19 win at Chicago (AL) with 1.2 scoreless IP to establish his single-season career high and tie Righetti's single-season franchise record (set in 1986).
- ▶ Was 2-1 with a 1.13 ERA and five saves in 11 postseason relief appearances...allowed two runs in the bottom of the ninth in Game 7 of the World Series at Arizona and recorded the loss...was his first career blown save in World Series play (had been 8-for-8 in save opportunities)...had converted 23 consecutive saves in postseason play (last blown save was Game 4 of 1997 ALDS at Cleveland).

DID YOU KNOW? Mariano Rivera owns seven of the nine highest single-season save totals in franchise history (1.53 in 2004; 2.50 in 2001; 4.45 in 1999; 7.5 in 1997 and 2005; 8.40 in 2003, 9.35 in 2008)...Dave Righetti's 46 saves in 1986 ranks third; John Wetteland's 43 in 1996 is tied for fifth.

- ▶ Appeared in a career-high six consecutive games from 4/20-27, recording four saves over the stretch...was selected to participate in his second All-Star Game, but did not attend because of personal matters in his native country of Panama...was named American League "Pitcher of the Month" in August...saved a league-leading 11 games in the month and did not allow a run in 13 appearances (14.2IP, 15K).
- ▶ On 9/11 vs. Boston, walked the first batter he faced for the first time since 7/9/98, a span of 81 appearances...did not allow a run in his final 28 appearances of the season (30.2IP), converting his last 22 save opportunities.
- ▶ Tossed 12.1 scoreless innings in eight postseason appearances and was 6-for-6 in save opportunities...pitched 4.2 scoreless innings with a win and two saves in three games in the World Series vs. the Atlanta Braves and was selected as the Most Valuable Player...became only the third reliever to be named World Series MVP, joining Oakland's Rollie Fingers in 1974 and former Yankee John Wetteland in 1996...including postseason play, did not allow a run in his final 43.0IP of the season over a span of 36 appearances.

- ▶ Posted 36 saves and was 3-0 with a 1.91 ERA in 54 relief appearances...converted 36-of-41 save opportunities (87.8%)...retired 41-of-54 first-batters faced (75.9%)...prevented 20-of-24 inherited runners from scoring (83.3%)...opponents batted .215 (48-for-223, 3HR); LH .235 (27-for-115, 0HR), RH .194 (21-for-108, 3HR).
- ▶ Threw 1.1IP in his season debut on 4/5 at Oakland, leaving the game with a strained right groin...was placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day (missed 13 games)...returned on 4/24 and did not allow a run in his next nine appearances (9.2IP) and went 7-for-7 in save opportunities...in a 6/1 blown save vs. Chicago (AL), was asked to record as many as six outs for the save for the first time in his career...entered in the eighth with no outs and a 4-2 lead, but allowed two inherited runners to score (Yankees won 5-4 in 10 innings)...following that game, converted 22 consecutive save opportunities before blowing a save on 8/18 at Kansas City (Yankees won 3-2).
- ▶ Tossed 13.1 scoreless innings in 10 postseason appearances and was 6-for-6 in save opportunities...saved three of the Yankees' four wins vs. San Diego in the World Series...earned his first career World Series save in the Yankees' 9-6 victory in Game 1 at Yankee Stadium...completed the Yankees' sweep with a save in Game 4 at San Diego, retiring Mark Sweeney on a ground ball to third base for the final out.

- ▶ Took over as the Yankees' full-time closer, going 6-4 with a 1.88 ERA and 43 saves in 66 relief appearances...ranked second among American League relievers in ERA and saves...also led the AL in save opportunities (52), ranked sixth in games finished (56) and batting average with runners in scoring position (.151, 11-for-73) and seventh in save percentage (82.7%, 43-for-52)...opponents batted .237 (65-for-274, 5HR); LH .243 (37-for-152, 1HR), RH .230 (28-for-122, 4HR).
- ▶ Recorded saves in four straight games from 6/23-27, becoming only the third Yankees pitcher to save four consecutive games during the regular season...John Wetteland accomplished the feat twice in 1996 and Sparky Lyle did it in 1973...his 27 saves at the All-Star break were the sixth-highest total since the inception of the save rule...became the first Yankee to earn a save in the All-Star Game, tossing a perfect ninth on 7/8 at Jacobs Field in his All-Star debut...became only the sixth Yankees reliever to record 30 saves in a season with his save on 7/17 at Chicago (AL)...saved both games of a doubleheader on 9/16 vs. Boston.
- ▶ Was 0-0 with a 4.50 ERA and one save in two games vs. Cleveland in the Division Series...earned his first career postseason save in the Yankees' 8-6 victory in Game 1 at Yankee Stadium...suffered a blown save in the Yankees' 3-2 loss in Game 4 at Cleveland, surrendering the game-tying home run to Sandy Alomar, Jr. in the bottom of the eighth inning.

- ▶ Was 8-3 with a 2.09 ERA and five saves in 61 appearances in his first season of full-time relief...led all Yankees pitchers in ERA and led all Yankees relievers in wins, tying for most relief wins in the American League...was the most wins by a Yankees reliever since Lee Guetterman recorded 11 victories in 1990...opponents batted just .189 (73-for-386, 1HR); LH .215 (46-for-214, 1HR), RH .157 (27-for-172, 0HR)...struck out the side (facing only three batters) four times...had at least one strikeout in 54 of his 61 appearances...first batters were 5-for-56 (.089) with 27K, 4BB and 1HBP...recorded 130 strikeouts in 107.2 innings, the most ever by a Yankees reliever (Gossage had 122 in 1978)...permitted only one home run (Baltimore's Rafael Palmeiro on 6/28 at Yankee Stadium).
- ▶ Had a 26.0-inning scoreless streak from 4/19-5/21, the most by a Yankee since Steve Farr went 27.0 innings without allowing a run from 5/29-8/4/91...picked up wins vs. Minnesota on 4/26 and 4/28, tossing three no-hit innings in each game...had a streak of 15.0 consecutive hitless innings over six appearances snapped on 5/5 vs. Chicago...recorded six strikeouts in three innings on 9/6 vs. Toronto, the most by a Yankees reliever in 1996.
- ▶ Was 1-0 with a 0.63 ERA in the postseason (14.1IP, 1ER)...picked up his second career postseason victory in the Yankees' 5-4, 11-inning victory in Game 1 of the ALCS vs. Baltimore.

- ▶ Saw his first Major League action, going 5-3 with a 5.54 ERA in 19 appearances (nine starts) with the Yankees...was 3-3 with a 5.94 ERA as a starter and 2-0 with a 4.32 ERA as a reliever...opponents batted .266 (71-for-267, 11HR); LH .246 (35-for-142, 6HR), RH .288 (36-for-1125, 5HR).
- ▶ Was recalled from Columbus on 5/16 and made his Major League debut on 5/23 at California, losing a 10-0 decision (3.1IP, 8H, 5ER, 3BB, 5K)...became the first Yankees rookie to lose his starting debut since Jeff Johnson in 1991...earned his first Major League victory in a 4-1 win on 5/28 at Oakland (5.1IP, 7H, 1ER, 3BB, 1K)...allowed two home runs for the first time in his career, including a grand slam to Geronimo Berroa, in an 8-6 loss on 6/6 vs. Oakland...was optioned back to Columbus on 6/11 and made just one start with the Clippers because of a sore right shoulder...in that start (on 6/26), pitched a five-inning, rain-shortened no-hitter.

MARIANO RIVERA

- ▶ Was recalled on 7/4 and started that night at Chicago (AL), recording 11 strikeouts in 8.0 shutout innings (both career highs) as the Yankees won 4-1...his 11 strikeouts were the most by a Yankees rookie since Al Leiter, who also struck out 11 on 4/14/88 at Toronto...made his first Major League relief appearance on 8/1 vs. Milwaukee, picking up the win despite blowing his first save opportunity...was optioned back to Columbus between games of an 8/10 doubleheader vs. Cleveland...started Game 1 and did not receive a decision...started two games for the Clippers before again being recalled on 8/22...tossed a career-high 5.1 innings of relief on 8/25 at Seattle, allowing one run on two hits in a 7-4 loss (2BB, 5K, 1HR)...allowed his second career grand slam (Bobby Bonilla) in an 8-1 loss on 9/15 at Baltimore.
- ▶ Overall with Columbus, was 2-2 with a 2.10 ERA in seven starts.
- ▶ Was 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA in three appearances vs. Seattle in the Division Series (5.1IP, 8K)...won his postseason debut, tossing 3.1 scoreless innings of relief in a 7-5, 15-inning victory in Game 2 at Yankee Stadium (2H, 5K).

1994

- ▶ Combined to go 10-2 with a 3.09 ERA in 22 starts at Triple-A Columbus, Double-A Albany and Single-A Tampa...began the season at Tampa, was promoted to Albany on 6/5 and promoted to Columbus on 7/22...ranked sixth in the organization in ERA...in 131.0IP, allowed just 126 hits and 30 walks while striking out 89...combined to go 6-0 with a 2.25 ERA in 16 starts at Albany and Tampa...was on Tampa's disabled list from 4/23-5/9 with a strained right shoulder...went 4-2 with a 5.81 ERA in six starts at Columbus...was on the Clippers' disabled list from 8/4-14 with a strained left hamstring.

1993

- ▶ Went 1-1 with a 2.08 ERA in 12 starts combined at Single-A Greensboro and Single-A Tampa...opponents batted just .208 off him...combined on a shutout with Sandi Santiago, Bruce Pool and Billy Coleman on 7/4 vs. Hickory.

1992

- ▶ Suffered through an injury-plagued season at Single-A Ft. Lauderdale...went 5-3 with a 2.28 ERA in 10 starts...allowed just 40 hits and five walks in 59.1IP...averaged less than a walk for every 9.0IP...had a strikeout/walk ratio of 8.4...season was cut short due to surgery on his right elbow...surgery was performed by Dr. Frank Jobe on 8/27...was rated the ninth-best prospect in the Yankees' system by Baseball America.

1991

- ▶ Went 4-9 with a 2.75 ERA in 29 games (15 starts) at Single-A Greensboro...struck out 123 batters in 114.2IP, averaging 9.7 strikeouts per nine innings...allowed 103 hits and 36 walks.

1990

- ▶ Spent his first season of professional ball with the Gulf Coast Yankees, going 5-1 with a league-leading 0.17 ERA in 22 appearances (one start)...allowed just one earned run in 52.0IP, surrendering only 17 hits and seven walks while striking out 58...was named Gulf Coast League "Star of Stars"...threw a seven-inning no-hitter in his lone start on 8/31 vs. Bradenton.

Personal

- ▶ He and his wife, Clara have three sons, Mariano Jr., Jafet, and Jaziel...was signed by Herb Raybourn...received the Buck Canel Award by the BBWAA as the top Latin American player in 1996...donated his 2001 Roloids Relief Man Award to the FDNY...received the 2003 Thurman Munson Award for his accomplishments on the field and his philanthropic work within the community...along with Bobby Abreu, delivered Christmas gifts to the Kips Bay Boys and Girls Club in the Bronx in December 2007...sponsored a youth baseball tournament at Franz Siegel Park in the Bronx in September 2008...delivered holiday gifts to kids at Harlem's Gregorio Luperon High School in December 2008.

ALEX RODRIGUEZ

- ▶ Reached the 100RBI and 100R plateaus for the 11th consecutive season (since 1998), trailing only Lou Gehrig all time (13 straight seasons from 1926-38)...scored 100R for the 13th consecutive season, joining Hank Aaron (13, 1955-67) and Gehrig (13, 1926-38) as the only players in Baseball history to accomplish the feat...Rodriguez' streak of 11 consecutive seasons with at least 30HR and 100RBI is second all time to Jimmie Foxx' 12 (1929-40).
- ▶ Is one of five players all time with 400 doubles, 400HR and 250SB, joining Barry Bonds (601/762/514), Willie Mays (523/660/338), Andre Dawson (503/448/314) and Gary Sheffield (454/499/251).
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, recorded his fourth consecutive season (2005-08) of hitting 20-or-more home runs at Yankee Stadium...only Babe Ruth (six straight seasons) had a longer such stretch in original Yankee Stadium history (1926-31)...batted .324 (60-for-185) with 17HR and 47RBI in his last 50 games at Yankee Stadium beginning 6/7.
- ▶ Over the last 10 seasons (1999-2008), leads the Major Leagues with 1,222R, 447HR and 1,254RBI, ranks third with 1,529 games played and fourth with 5,790AB...over the last five seasons (2004-08), leads the Majors with 596R and 208HR and ranks second with 616RBI.
- ▶ Played in 431 career games at Yankee Stadium, marking the fifth-highest total among New York City-born players, behind Lou Gehrig (1,080), Phil Rizzuto (825), Joe Pepitone (525) and Snuffy Stirnweiss (442), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- ▶ Was named to his 12th All-Star team, marking his 11th selection via the fan vote and fifth overall selection as a third baseman...tallied the most votes in the Majors (3,934,518) for the second straight season, becoming the first back-to-back leader since Ichiro Suzuki (three seasons, 2001-03)...was 0-for-2 in the 15-inning AL victory on 7/15 at Yankee Stadium, starting at 3B.
- ▶ Following the season, was named to the 2008 Sporting News AL All-Star team, which was selected by a panel of 41 general managers and assistant general managers from both leagues...also earned his 10th career Silver Slugger Award.
- ▶ Made his fifth straight Opening Day start at 3B for the Yankees—the 13th OD start of his career—and was 2-for-3 with 1R, 1 double, 1RBI and 1BB in 4/1 win vs. Toronto...started his fifth straight Opening Day at third base with Derek Jeter at shortstop, becoming the first pair of Yankees to start on the left side of the infield in five consecutive years since Graig Nettles and Bucky Dent started six consecutive from 1977-82.
- ▶ Was 0-for-4 in 4/8 loss at Kansas City, striking out a career-high-tying four times for the fourth time in his career (third as a Yankee, first since 8/25/06 at Los Angeles-AL).
- ▶ Recorded his 400th career double in 4/15 win at Tampa Bay, going 1-for-5 with 1R and 1 double.
- ▶ Was placed on the 15-day D.L. from 4/30-5/20 with a strained right quadriceps (missed 16 team games, Yankees were 6-10)...was his first stint on the disabled list since 7/8-24/00 (w/ Seattle) when he missed 15 games with a right knee strain...originally injured his quad running out a ground ball on 4/20 at Baltimore...missed three games from 4/22-24 (spent three days from 4/21-23 in Miami, Fla., welcoming the birth of his second daughter, Ella Alexander, on 4/21)...returned to the lineup on 4/25 and played in four games before being removed for PH (Damon) in the eighth inning of 4/28 win at Cleveland (left game with discomfort in his right quad).
- ▶ Played in two extended spring training games in Florida (5/12 and 5/17), going 3-for-10 with 2R, 1HR and 1BB...also played in a simulated game on 5/18, going 5-for-15 with 1HR and 5BB (72 total pitches from four different pitchers).
- ▶ In his final 114 games of the season after returning from the D.L. on 5/20, hit .305 (128-for-419) with 90R, 26 doubles, 31HR, 92RBI, 59BB and 17SB...the Yankees were 68-46 (.596) over the stretch as he led the AL in home runs and ranked third in runs and RBI...was the third-highest winning percentage in the AL following his return.
- ▶ Hit two-run HR on 5/20 vs. Baltimore and solo-HR on 5/21 vs. Baltimore, becoming the first player to homer in each of his first two games after spending at least three weeks on the D.L. since Chris Richard from 7/31-8/1/02 with Baltimore (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his career total of 528 homers through 6/12/2008 were the most for any player within 13 years of hitting his first HR (hit his first Major League homer off Tom Gordon on 6/12/95 w/ Seattle vs. Kansas City).
- ▶ Hit exactly one home run in four straight games from 6/14-18...according to Elias, it marked the seventh time in his career he homered in four-or-more straight games, matching Jim Thome and Albert Pujols for most among active Major Leaguers.
- ▶ Grounded into four double plays in the final three games of a four-game series at Texas from 8/5-7, tying his career high for consecutive games with a GDP...had 4GDP in his first 92 games of the season prior to the series.
- ▶ Hit game-winning solo-HR in the 12th—his 200th homer as a Yankee—and was 1-for-6 on 8/12 at Minnesota...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the home run was the seventh extra-inning homer of his career...became the 15th player in franchise history to reach 200 home runs with the Yankees, including two others who did it within the previous month: Derek Jeter (7/12) and Jason Giambi (8/9)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked the first time that any set of teammates on one club accomplished the feat in the same season...Elias also notes that Rodriguez became the second-fastest Yankee to reach 200HR, doing so in 729 games with the club (Babe Ruth reached 200HR with the Yankees in 586 games).

- ▶ Grounded into 11 double plays in the month of August, the most in a single month in franchise history since GDPs were first recorded in the American League in 1939 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...over the last 20 seasons, the only other player to hit into as many GDPs in one calendar month was Jose Guillen (11 in August 2007 with Seattle).
- ▶ His solo-HR on 9/2 at Tampa Bay was the 1,000th extra-base hit of his career, coming at the age of 33 years, 37 days...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only Jimmie Foxx (32 years, 294 days on 8/13/40) reached the milestone at a younger age.
- ▶ Was scratched from the lineup before 9/13 Game 1 loss vs. Tampa Bay (stiff neck).
- ▶ Hit grand-slam-HR and was 2-for-4 with 2R and 1 double in 9/14 win vs. Tampa Bay, marking his 17th career grand slam (second among active players behind Manny Ramirez-20) and first since 9/25/07 at Tampa Bay...according to Elias, became the first Yankees cleanup hitter to hit a grand slam after the first three batters of the game reached base since Mel Hall on 6/24/89 at Kansas City and the first such Yankee at Yankee Stadium since Dave Winfield on 7/16/84 vs. Texas.
- ▶ Did not play in three of the team's final five games from 9/24-28.

- ▶ Won his third career American League MVP Award and his second in four seasons with the Yankees, hitting .314 (183-for-583) with 143R, 54HR, 156RBI and 24SB in 158 games (154 starts at 3B, four starts at DH)...established career highs in runs and RBI...received 26-of-28 first-place votes in BBWAA MVP voting (382 total points)...became the ninth player in Major League history to win at least three MVP Awards and fifth AL player...became the sixth player to win multiple MVP's with the Yankees, joining Lou Gehrig (two), Joe DiMaggio (three), Mickey Mantle (three), Yogi Berra (three) and Roger Maris (two)...became just the fourth player to win the MVP Award three times within a five-year span, joining Roy Campanella, Berra and Bonds.
- ▶ Led the Majors in runs, home runs and RBI...since RBI became an official statistic in 1920, became only the fourth player (and the first in the past 50 years) to finish a season with the outright Major League lead in each of those categories, according to the Elias Sports Bureau: Babe Ruth (three times: 1920-21, 1926), Ted Williams (1942-also won Triple Crown) and Mickey Mantle (1956-also won Triple Crown)...also led the Major Leagues with a .645 slugging percentage and an average of 1RBI every 3.7 at-bats...tied for the lead with three grand slams.
- ▶ Led the American League with 376 total bases, ranked second with 85 extra-base hits, 21HBP and 1HR per 10.8AB, fourth with a .422 on-base percentage, tied for fourth with nine sacrifice flies, seventh with a .326 road batting average and a .340 day average, tied for seventh with 95BB and eighth with a .327 average vs. right-handed pitching.

ALEX RODRIGUEZ

- behind only DiMaggio's 167 in 1937...the total also ranks 10th on the Yankees' all-time single-season list and were the most in the American League since Manny Ramirez in 1999 with Cleveland (165RBI)...drove in 111 runs in his final 105 games of the season...became the first Yankee to record multiple seasons of at least 130RBI (2005, '07) since Joe DiMaggio accomplished the feat in 1937, '38, '40 and '48 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- ▶ His 143 runs scored were the highest single-season total in the American League since the Yankees' Rickey Henderson scored 146 runs in 1985 and was the second-highest single-season total by a Yankee in the last 70 years (since 1938).
 - ▶ Drove in 100 runs through the club's first 99 games of the season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player to reach the 100-RBI mark in fewer than 100 "team games" into a season since 1999, when Manny Ramirez did so in Cleveland's 93rd game...no Yankees player collected 100RBI in 100-or-fewer games since 1937, when both Joe DiMaggio (91 games) and Lou Gehrig (96 games) did so.
 - ▶ Was elected to the 2007 AL All-Star team, the 11th All-Star selection of his career (1996-98; 2000-07)...was the first time he led the Majors in All-Star balloting (3,890,515 votes)...started at 3B and went 1-for-3 in the 7/10 American League win...also named "Major League Player of the Year" by Baseball America and the Sporting News and was named starting 3B on each publication's All-Star team...became just the third player in the 72-year history of the Sporting News Award to win at least three times, joining Ted Williams (five) and Barry Bonds (three)...received his ninth career Silver Slugger Award, fourth career Hank Aaron Award, the Oscar Charleston Legacy Award and Josh Gibson Award presented by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, and was named the MLB.com "Clutch Performer of the Year," This Week in Baseball's "Hitter of the Year" and the Latinosports.com "2007 Latino MVP Player of the Year"...was also named the Sid Mercer "Player of the Year" by the New York chapter of the BBWAA and was selected by his peers as the Players Choice 2007 "Player of the Year" and the American League's "Outstanding Player"...was named American League "Player of the Week" three times in 2007 (4/2-9, 6/4-10 and 9/3-9)...game him 13 "Player of the Week" honors in his career (five as a Yankee).
 - ▶ His 24 stolen bases were the most for any player from the cleanup spot in the batting order since Preston Wilson stole 36 bases from that spot for the 2000 Marlins...became just the fourth player all-time to record 50 or more homers and 20 or more stolen bases in a single season, joining Willie Mays (1955, New York Giants), Brady Anderson (1996, Baltimore) and Ken Griffey, Jr. (1998, Seattle).
 - ▶ Hit two-run HR—his third career Opening Day home run and second as a Yankee—and was 2-for-5 with 2R and 1SB in 4/2 win vs. Tampa Bay...was his fourth straight Opening Day start at 3B for the Yankees, the 12th Opening Day start of his career.
 - ▶ Hit two-run HR and "walk-off" grand slam in the ninth inning in 4/7 win vs. Baltimore, and was 3-for-4 with 4R, 1 double and 1BB...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other players in franchise history have hit a game-ending grand slam with the Yankees trailing when they came to the plate: Jason Giambi on 5/27/02 vs. Minnesota and Babe Ruth in 1925...the homer also marked only the eighth time in franchise history that the Yankees have won a game with a "walk-off" grand slam and the first since Giambi in 2002...was his third career "walk-off" grand slam (also on 7/27/02 w/ Texas vs. Oakland and 7/31/03 w/ Texas vs. Boston) and sixth career "walk-off" home run (third as a Yankee, last on 6/28/06 vs. Atlanta)...the grand slam was the 14th of his career and first since 7/2/06 vs. New York (NL).
 - ▶ Is one of only three players in Major League history to have three career "walk-off" grand slams, joining the St. Louis Browns' Vern Stevens (1946, '49 and '50) and the Philadelphia Phillies' Cy Williams (one in 1924 and two in 1926)...became the first player in Major League history to hit as many as 6HR while driving in at least 15 runs through his team's first seven games of a season (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
 - ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became only the second player in AL history to hit six home runs through his team's first seven games, joining Ken Griffey, Jr. (1997)...a total of eight players in Major League history have accomplished the feat, including Luis Gonzalez (2001), Larry Walker (1997), Lou Brock (1967), Willie Mays (1964), Dolph Camilli (1935) and Gabby Hartnett (1925)...Mike Schmidt is the only player in Major League history with more homers at the seven-game juncture of a season (seven in 1976).
 - ▶ Drove in 16 runs in his first eight games of the season (4/2-11), the most RBI for any AL player through his club's first eight games of a season since Minnesota's Brant Alyea in 1970 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
 - ▶ According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in Yankees history (and the only Major Leaguer in the last 50 years) to collect an extra-base hit in each of his team's first eight games of a season...his streak of 11 straight regular season games with an extra base hit (dating back to 2006) was the longest for any player in franchise history, breaking the mark of 10 straight shared by Don Mattingly (1987) and Paul O'Neill (2001).
 - ▶ Became the first player in Yankees franchise history to hit 7HR in the team's first 10 games of the season and 8HR in the first 12 games...hit 12HR in the first 15 games of the season, joining Mike Schmidt (12HR in the first 15 games of 1976) as the fastest players in Major League history to reach 12 home runs...drove in 31 runs in the first 16 games of the season, the most of any Major Leaguer over any 16-game span since Sammy Sosa had 32 in May/June 1998.

ALEX RODRIGUEZ

- ▶ Hit three-run "walk-off" HR in the ninth inning—his third home run in a three game span—and was 1-for-5 in 4/19 win vs. Cleveland...was his second "walk-off" home run of the season (also 4/7 vs. Baltimore) and seventh of his career (fourth as a Yankee)...according to Elias, became the fourth player in Major League history to hit two "walk-off" home runs so early in the season (through his team's first 14 games), joining Pat Burrell (nine games in 2002), Robin Yount (12 games in 1991) and Tommy Henrich (12 games in 1949)...is only the third player in Yankees history to hit a pair of "walk-off" homers within a span of five home games at any point in a season, joining Babe Ruth (August 1922) and Claudell Washington (September 1988) who each hit two "walk-off" home runs in three-game spans.
- ▶ In his 18th game, on 4/23 at Tampa Bay, became the fastest player in Major League history to reach 14 home runs to begin a season with his third multi-homer game of the season (previous record was held by Albert Pujols, who hit 14HR in the first 24 games of 2006)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two players hit more than 14HR over an 18-game span for their team at any point during a season: Sammy Sosa in 1998 (16) and Barry Bonds in 2001 (15)...three others also hit 14 over a period of 18 games (Rudy York, 1937 Tigers; Albert Belle, 1995 Indians; and Mark McGwire, 1998 Cardinals).
- ▶ Began the season with an 18-game hitting streak, the longest hitting streak by an American League player to start a season since George Brett hit safely in the first 19 games of the 1983 season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, over the past 40 years, only five players have fashioned a longer hitting streak to begin a season: St. Louis' Joe Torre in 1971 (22G), Detroit's Ron LeFlore in 1976 (30), the Dodgers' Steve Garvey in 1978 (21), Brett and Atlanta's Edgar Renteria in 2006 (23)...dating back to 2006, Rodriguez hit safely in a career-high 23 straight games.
- ▶ Was named the AL "Player of the Month" for April, hitting .355 (33-for-93) and leading the Majors with 14HR, 34RBI and 27R in 23 games...tied the mark for most home runs hit in April (also Albert Pujols in 2006) and finished 1RBI shy of Juan Gonzalez's Major League record for April (35) set in 1998 with Texas...with 14HR, fell 1HR shy of tying a career high for any calendar month (15HR with Texas in August 2003)...established a single-month career high with 34RBI (previous high was 31RBI with Texas in August 2003)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in Major League history to record at least 14HR and 34RBI by the end of April.
- ▶ Became the first Yankee with at least 14HR and 34RBI in any calendar month since Roger Maris in June 1961 (15HR, 35RBI)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the only other Yankees with more home runs in a calendar month were Babe Ruth, who did it four times (17 in September 1927; 15 in May 1928, August 1929 and June 1930), Joe DiMaggio (15 in July 1937) and Mickey Mantle (16 in May 1956)...only Harmon Killebrew (15 with the Washington Senators in May 1959) has hit more home runs in any calendar month all time among Major League third basemen.
- ▶ Hit two-run HR (#18)—his third in as many games—and was 1-for-3 with 2BB in 5/21 win vs. Boston...became the third player in franchise history to hit as many as 18 home runs through the team's first 43 games of a season (Mickey Mantle had 20 homers through the first 43 games in 1956; Babe Ruth had 19HR at that juncture in both 1928 and 1930)...homered in three consecutive games after fashioning two separate streaks of four consecutive games with a home run during April.
- ▶ Went 47 consecutive games without committing an error from 5/30-7/23, the longest errorless streak by a Yankees third baseman since he went 61 straight games without an error from 6/23-9/1/05.

- Went a combined 17-10 with a 2.70 ERA in 35 combined starts with Cleveland and Milwaukee...led the Majors in innings pitched (253.0), complete games (10) and shutouts (five), ranked second in strikeouts (251) and fourth in ERA...despite midseason trade, finished fifth in National League Cy Young Award voting and sixth in NL MVP voting.
- Opponents batted .237 (223-for-942, 19HR); LH .205 (48-for-234, 5HR), RH .247 (175-for-708, 14HR)...his five shutouts were the second-most in a single season over the last 15 years (1994-2008), behind Randy Johnson's six in 1998...only Johnson (12 CG in 1999) has recorded more complete games in a single season than Sabathia's 10 over the last 10 years (1999-2008)...marked the most innings pitched by any Major League pitcher since Montreal's Livan Hernandez in 2004 (255.0).
- With a 117-73 career record, his .616 winning percentage is the 12th-highest among lefthanders with as many or more decisions (190) since 1900 and the fifth-highest among left-handers whose careers began after 1950.
- Leads all active Major League pitchers under the age of 29 in career wins (117), strikeouts (1,393) and innings pitched (16,591).
- Over the last five seasons (2004-08), leads the Majors in shutouts (nine), ranks second in complete games (22), fourth in strikeouts (932), fifth in wins (74) and sixth in innings pitched (1,071.1).
- Among active Major League lefthanders, ranks fourth in ERA (3.66) and opponents average (.247), fifth in career winning percentage (.616), seventh in strikeouts (1,393) and ninth in wins (117).
- Has recorded 11 wins in each of his eight seasons to begin his Major League career, marking the second-longest such streak among active pitchers behind Tim Hudson (10 seasons).
- Lost his first three decisions (0-3, 4GS, 13.50 ERA)...over his remaining 31 starts (beginning 4/22), posted a 17-7 record and a 1.88 ERA, leading the Majors in ERA over the span.
- Opened the year at Cleveland, going 6-8 with a 3.83 ERA in 18 starts before being acquired by Milwaukee on 7/7...finished with 106 wins as an Indian, ranking second all time among club lefthanders behind Sam McDowell (122).
- Made his fifth career Opening Day start on 3/31 vs. Chicago (AL), marking the most OD starts by an Indian since Bob Lemon started five between 1950 and 1956.
- Won a career-high 12 straight decisions over 16 starts from 6/10-8/31, pitching to a 1.55 ERA over the stretch and striking out 126 batters in 128.0IP with only 28 walks.

CC SABATHIA

Was acquired by Milwaukee on 7/7 in exchange for OF Matt LaPorta, LHP Zach Johnson, RHP Rob Bryson and a player to be named later (OF Michael Brantley)... became the fifth defending Cy Young Award winner to be traded before the end of the following season, joining Frank Viola, David Cone, Pedro Martinez and Roger Clemens... was leading the AL with 123K at the time of the trade.

Went 11-2 with a 1.65 ERA in 17 starts as a Brewer, tossing seven complete games and three shutouts... the Brewers went 14-3 in his starts... opponents batted .222 (106-for-478, 6HR)... after joining the Brewers, led the Majors in ERA, tied Cliff Lee for most wins and ranked second in strikeouts (128)... the Brewers went 41-32 (.562) from 7/8 (Sabathia's first start) through the remainder of the year, recording the fifth-best winning percentage in the NL over the span.

- Won his first nine decisions over his first 13 starts after joining Milwaukee, winning the NL "Player of the Month" Award in July (4-0, 2.27 ERA) and August (5-0, 1.12).
- Became the second pitcher in the last 90 years to win his first nine decisions following a midseason change of teams, joining Doyle Alexander who went 9-0 after going from the Braves to the Tigers in 1987.
- Tossed 6.0 or more innings in all but one start with the Brewers, allowing more than 3ER just once.
- Collected three straight complete games from 7/13-28, allowing only 3ER in 27.0IP (1.00 ERA)... became the first Brewer to toss three consecutive CGs since Cal Eldred in 1994... streak was capped off by a three-hit shutout on 7/23 at St. Louis.
- Tossed a one-hit shutout on 8/31 at Pittsburgh in a 7-0 win for his ninth career shutout... lone hit was an Andy LaRoche check-swing dribbler back to Sabathia in the fifth inning.
- Made each of his final three starts of the season on three-days' rest, going 2-1 with a 0.83 ERA... included was a complete-game, 3-1 win on 9/28 vs. the Cubs to clinch the Brewers' Wild Card berth (9.0IP, 4H, 1R, 0ER, 1BB, 7K) on the final day of the season.
- Recorded the loss in his only postseason start on 10/2 at Philadelphia in Game 2 of the NLDS, allowing 5ER in 3.2IP.
- Following the season, was selected as the recipient of the "Warren Spahn Award" as the season's top left-handed pitcher... the award is given by the Oklahoma Sports Museum and is based on a combination of wins, strikeouts and earned run average.

- ▶ Won the American League Cy Young Award after compiling a 19-7 record with a 3.21 ERA and 209K...set career highs in wins, starts (34), innings pitched (241.0), ERA and strikeouts...became just the second Indian to win the award, joining Gaylord Perry (1972)...marked the most wins by a Cleveland left-hander since Sam McDowell (20) in 1970.
- ▶ Became the first Cleveland left-hander to lead the Majors in innings pitched, the first Indian since Early Wynn in 1954 to lead the AL in innings pitched and the first Indian since Bob Feller in 1947 to lead the Majors in innings pitched...were the most IP by an Indian since Charles Nagy in 1992.
- ▶ Bested Boston's Josh Beckett (119 points to 86) to become the first African-American Cy Young Award winner since Dwight Gooden in 1985 and the first in the AL since Vida Blue in 1971...also placed 14th in AL MVP voting...was named AL "Pitcher of the Year" by the MLBPA and the Sporting News and was named Indians "Man of the Year" by the Cleveland chapter of the BBWAA.
- ▶ Tied for first in the American League in starts, tied for second in wins, ranked second in complete games (four), third in pitches thrown (3,582), tied for third in winning percentage (.731), placed fifth in strikeouts and tied for ninth in GDPs induced (23)...along with teammate Fausto Carmona (19 wins), became the first set of Tribe teammates since 1956 to each win at least 19 games...allowed 2ER or less in 20 of 34 starts and lasted 6.0IP in 32 starts.
- ▶ Reached double-digit wins for the seventh straight season to begin his career, becoming the second pitcher (and only LHP) in club history to accomplish the feat, joining RHP Addie Joss (1902-09)...no other Indians lefty has won 10+ games in seven straight years at any point in his career.
- ▶ Collected the most strikeouts by an Indian since Bartolo Colon (201) in 2001 and the most by an Indians lefthander since Sam McDowell in 1970 (304)...recorded the second-highest K/BB ratio (MLB-best 5.65) by a LHP in MLB history and the highest K/BB ratio ever by an AL lefty...finished second in the AL to Paul Byrd, averaging just 1.38 BB/9.0IP.
- ▶ Became the first pitcher to beat the Twins' Johan Santana three times in the same season (8/3, 8/29 and 9/3).
- ▶ Made his fourth career Opening Day start and won at Chicago (AL) on 4/2 (6.0IP, 8H, 3R/ER)...was his first career Opening Day win...began the year at 5-0 for the first time in his career, winning nine of his first 10 decisions and 12 of his first 14.
- ▶ Went 16 consecutive starts without walking more than one batter from 4/20-7/5, the longest such streak in the Majors in 2007 and longest such stretch by a Cleveland pitcher in the last 50 years (since 1957).
- ▶ Notched his 1,000th career strikeout in 5/21 win vs. Seattle (Ichiro Suzuki in the fifth inning)...among pitchers reaching the milestone, became the youngest lefty since Fernando Valenzuela in 1985, youngest in the AL since Roger Clemens in 1989 and the second-youngest Indians pitcher ever (McDowell, 1967).
- ▶ Collected his fifth career complete-game shutout on 6/5 vs. Kansas City, then tossed 9.0 shutout innings (ND) in his next start on 6/10 at Cincinnati, a 12-inning 1-0 loss to the Reds...stretched his scoreless innings streak to 22.0 in his 6/15 start vs. Atlanta, but lost a 5-4 decision...was named AL "Player of the Week" for 6/25-7/1 (2-0, 2.25ERA, 16.0IP, 15H, 4ER, 0BB, 16K).
- ▶ Did not allow a homer over a 41.0-inning stretch from 7/19-8/19...pitched 6.0IP or more and allowed 2ER or fewer for 10 straight starts from 7/24-9/8, going 4-3 with a 1.83 ERA over the stretch (Indians were just 4-6)...was the first Indians pitcher to do so since Gaylord Perry (15GS) in 1974.
- ▶ Won his last five decisions and went 4-0 with a 2.37 ERA in five September starts...struck out a career-high 13 batters on 9/14 vs. Kansas City...posted career-high 18th win on 9/19 vs. Detroit.
- ▶ Collected his 19th win of the season and 100th career win in his final start at Kansas City on 9/28 (7.0IP, 8H, 3ER)...became the youngest Major League pitcher (27 years, 70 days) since Greg Maddux in 1993 to win 100 games...of the 16 pitchers to win 300 games from 1900-2007, only three (Christy Mathewson, Maddux and Walter Johnson) were younger than Sabathia at the time of their 100th win...became the youngest Indian lefty ever to win 100 games and youngest overall pitcher since Bob Feller in 1941.
- ▶ Went 1-2 with an 8.80 ERA in three playoff starts (15.1IP, 21H, 15ER, 13BB, 14K).

- ▶ Posted an 11-10 record with a 4.12 ERA in 30 starts...was selected to his second consecutive All-Star team, pitching 1.0 inning in the AL win at Houston...had six potential wins blown by the Cleveland bullpen.
- ▶ Made his second consecutive Opening Day start on 4/5 at Minnesota (7.0IP, 2H, 0R, 4BB, 9K)...was scratched from his start on 4/22 vs. Kansas City due to an irritated left biceps tendon and did not start from 4/17-30.
- ▶ Made his 100th career start on 5/1 vs. Baltimore, earning the win...became only the second Indian to make 100 career starts before age 24, joining Hall of Famer Bob Feller (175GS).
- ▶ Left his start on 6/26 vs. Colorado after 1.0 inning with irritation in his left shoulder...after MRI results in Cleveland were negative, traveled for a second opinion to Birmingham, Ala., on 6/28 to visit Dr. James Andrews, who cleared him to return...was 3-0 with a 2.57 ERA in six June starts (35.0IP, 27H, 10ER, 11BB, 26K).
- ▶ Notched his 50th career win on 7/27 vs. Detroit at the age of 24 years, 6 days, becoming the youngest pitcher to reach 50 career wins since Atlanta's Steve Avery (10/1/93 at 23 years, 170 days)...according to Elias, was the youngest active pitcher at the time to reach 50 career wins
- ▶ Tossed the second complete-game shutout of his Major League career on 9/6 at Seattle (9.0IP, 5H, 0R, 1BB, 8K) as he allowed just two runners to second base...sat out last two weeks of season due to a strained right hamstring.

- ▶ Was 13-9 with a 3.60 ERA in 30 starts, earning his first career All-Star selection...did not appear in the Midsummer Classic, and at 22 years, 352 days, became the youngest Indians All-Star since RHP Dennis Eckersley in 1977 and the first Tribe All-Star LHP since Greg Swindell in 1989.
- ▶ Ranked sixth among AL pitchers with a 3.09 home ERA, eighth with a 3.38 night ERA and 10th in overall ERA...threw at least 5.0 innings in 29 of his 30 starts as the Indians averaged just 3.8 runs per game during his starts (the fifth worst run support among AL starting pitchers).
- ▶ Made his first career Opening Day start on 3/31 at Baltimore (ND, 7.0IP, 8H, 2ER, Riske BS) and was the youngest Opening Day starting pitcher (22 years, 252 days) in the Major Leagues since Dwight Gooden (22 years, 143 days) started for the New York Mets on 4/8/86 at Pittsburgh...was also the youngest Indians pitcher to start on Opening Day since Eckersley (21 years old) on 4/10/76 vs. Detroit.
- ▶ Tossed his first career complete-game shutout on 8/15 vs. Tampa Bay in a 1-0 win (9.0IP, 4H, 0R, 3BB, 9K)...was the first complete game, 1-0 shutout by a Tribe hurler since Bud Black in 1990 and the Tribe's first 1-0 win since 1997...collected a pinch-hit single off Mike Williams in 15.0-inning game on 6/20 at Pittsburgh in the 11th inning, becoming first Cleveland pitcher with a pinch-hit base hit since Dick Donovan on 7/28/63.

- ▶ Went 13-11 with a 4.37 ERA in 33 starts, leading Cleveland pitchers in wins, IP (210.0), starts and strikeouts (149)...was tied for fourth in the AL with a 2.48 day ERA, tied for sixth with 24 induced GIDP, ranked seventh with 0.73 HR allowed per 9.0IP (17HR, 210.0IP), ninth with 3,379 pitches thrown and 10th in strikeouts.
- ▶ Became the fifth pitcher since 1987 to win 30 games over his first two seasons in the Majors.
- ▶ Took a no-hitter into the eighth inning of his second start at Detroit on 4/10 before yielding a lead-off single to Randall Simon...collected his first Major League hit on 6/15 at Colorado, a single off Dennys Reyes...tossed his first career complete game in 8/18 loss at Anaheim (8.0IP, 8H, 4ER, 3BB, 4K).
- ▶ Signed a four-year contract through 2005 with a club option for 2006 on 2/23.

- ▶ Saw his first Major League action as a 20-year-old, going 17-5 with a 4.39 ERA in 33 starts, leading all rookie pitchers in wins, starts (33) and strikeouts (171)...became the first Indians rookie since Gene Bearden (20-7) in 1948 to win 17-or-more games in his rookie season...finished second to Seattle's Ichiro Suzuki in the AL BBWAA "Rookie of the Year" voting with 73 points...was the youngest active player in the big leagues all season...led AL rookie pitchers in innings (180.1) and ERA.
- ▶ Overall among AL pitchers, ranked third in winning percentage (.773) tied for sixth in wins and ranked seventh in strikeouts...his .228 average against (149-for-654) was the second-lowest mark among AL starters...led the AL with 13 road wins...also paced the AL, allowing a league-low 7.44 H/9.0IP.
- ▶ Became the first player to finish a season under 22 years of age with at least 17 wins since Atlanta's Steve Avery (18-8) in 1991 and the first AL pitcher to accomplish the feat since Chicago's Britt Burns in 1980 (19-13)...was the most wins by a left-handed rookie pitcher since Seattle's Dave Fleming in 1992 (17-10).
- ▶ After the season, was named the Sporting News' AL "Rookie Pitcher of the Year" and was selected to the Baseball Digest & Topps Major League All-Rookie Teams.
- ▶ Was a member the Opening Day roster and made his Major League debut on 4/8 vs. Baltimore, drawing a no-decision in Cleveland's 4-3 win after allowing a Jeff Conine three-run homer in the first inning (5.2IP, 3H, 3ER, 2BB, 3K)...was the youngest pitcher to start and appear in a game for Cleveland since Julian Tavarez in August 1993...registered his first Major League win in his second start on 4/13 at Detroit (5.0IP, 5H, 4R/ER, 2BB, 2K) in a 9-8 Indians victory.

CC SABATHIA

- ▶ Won the AL "Rookie of the Month" Award in July, going 3-0 with a 2.83 ERA as the Indians went 6-0 in his starts.
- ▶ Won his first postseason start in Game 3 of the ALDS vs. Seattle (6.0IP, 6H, 2ER, 5BB, 5K), becoming the second-youngest pitcher to win a Division Series game behind only Fernando Valenzuela (defeated Houston in 1981)...also became the youngest Indians pitcher to start a Division Series game and the third-youngest pitcher in Division Series history (youngest in ALDS history) to start a game behind Valenzuela (1981, 20 years, 339 days) and Rick Ankiel (2000, 21 years, 77 days).

- ▶ Split the season between Single-A Kinston and Double-A Akron, posting a combined 3.57 ERA (146.1IP, 58ER) in 27 starts over the two stops while striking out an organization-high 159 batters.
- ▶ Began the year at Kinston and went 3-2 with a 3.54 ERA in 10 starts, which included a 9.0-inning, two-hit, complete game shutout in his final start there on 5/23 at Myrtle Beach...was promoted to Akron on 5/27, throwing 5.0 or more innings in 23 of his 27 starts with the Aeros.
- ▶ Started the Hall of Fame Game for Cleveland against the Arizona Diamondbacks on 7/24 in Cooperstown, N.Y....did not record a decision in the outing (3.0IP, 3H, 3ER, 2BB, 4K, HR)...also pitched in the Futures Game in Atlanta, Ga. for Team USA on 7/10.
- ▶ Tabbed as the top prospect in the organization and the No. 2 prospect in the Eastern League by Baseball America after the season.

- ▶ Missed the first two and half months of the season with a bone bruise in his left pitching elbow...was activated off the D.L. on 6/20 and assigned to short-season Single-A Mahoning Valley...made six starts with the Scrappers, which increased by 1.0-inning increments, before being promoted to Single-A Columbus of the South Atlantic League on 7/17...was promoted to Single-A Kinston of the Carolina League on 8/2 where he spent the remainder of the season...combined on the year between his three minor league stops to go 5-3 with a 3.29 ERA in 16 starts (68.1IP, 47H, 25ER, 36BB, 76K)...overall, minor league hitters hit .198 (47-for-237) off him with 4HR.

Eight is Enough

Seven different Yankees combined to hit eight home runs in the same game on July 31, 2007, setting a franchise record for most different Yankees to homer in a single game (Hideki Matsui, 2; Bobby Abreu, 1; Melky Cabrera, 1; Robinson Cano, 1; Johnny Damon, 1; Shelley Duncan, 1; and Jorge Posada, 1)...it was the second time in Yankees history the team hit at least eight home runs in a game at home (also June 28, 1939 vs. the Philadelphia Athletics).

► Acquired by the Yankees along with RHP Kanekoa Texeira from the Chicago White Sox on November 13, 2008 in exchange for INF Wilson Betemit and RHPs Jeff Marquez and Jhonny Nunez...signed a five-year contract on May 11, 2007 (w/ Oakland)...contract extends through the 2011 season.

- Hit .219 (109-for-497) with 21 doubles, 24HR and 69RBI in 153 games in his first and only season with the White Sox (69 starts in CF, 47 at 1B, 16 in LF and 11 in RF)...was his fourth consecutive season with 20-or-more home runs.
- Led all AL switch-hitters in home runs and finished second in RBI to Texas' Milton Bradley...his 102 homers since 2005 are the fourth-most among Major League switch-hitters.
- Batted .227 (83-for-365) with 18HR as a left-handed batter and .197 (26-for-132) with 6HR from the right side.
- Hit in eight different spots in the lineup...batting average by position in lineup: No. 1 (.210, 22-for-105), No. 2 (.120, 3-for-25), No. 3 (.000, 0-for-1), No. 5 (.250, 7-for-28), No. 6 (.228, 13-for-57), No. 7 (.235, 44-for-187), No. 8 (.211, 19-for-90), No. 9 (.250, 1-for-4)...hit .198 (32-for-162) as a first baseman and .230 (76-for-331) as an outfielder.
- Led the American League with 4.51 pitches seen per plate appearance and tied for eighth with 82 walks...owned the third-lowest batting average among AL qualifiers, ahead of only Oakland's Daric Barton (.214) and Jack Hannahan (.216)...hit .247 (64-for-259) with 19HR at U.S. Cellular Field, while batting .189 (45-for-238) with 5HR on the road...batted .385 (5-for-13) with 2HR and 19RBI with the bases loaded.
- Made just two errors in 481 chances at 1B (.996 fielding percentage), while making 5E in 202TC as an outfielder (.975).
- Made his fourth career Opening Day roster and start in 3/31 loss at Cleveland, going 2-for-4 with 2R.
- Walked in six consecutive plate appearances from 4/4-5 at Detroit, becoming the first player to walk six straight times since Ivan Rodriguez in 2003 and the first White Sox player to do so since Chet Lemon in 1980.
- Hit his first career leadoff home run off Justin Verlander on 4/6 at Detroit.
- Batted .315 (29-for-92) with 7HR and 23RBI in June after hitting just .200 (37-for-185) in the previous two months...batted .195 (43-for-220) over the remainder of the season.
- Recorded his 11th career multi-HR game and a career-high-tying 5RBI on 6/30 vs. Cleveland...homered from both sides of the plate for the seventh time in his career and second time in 2008 (also 6/9 vs. Minnesota)...included was his fourth career grand slam and second of the season (also 6/27 vs. Chicago-NL).
- Hit his first career "walk-off" home run on 8/5 vs. Detroit, a 14th-inning, three-run shot off Joel Zumaya.

- ▶ Ranked sixth in the American League in walks, seventh in pitches per plate appearance (4.25) and 10th in strikeouts (131)...also ranked among the AL leaders in sacrifice flies (tied for fourth, nine), intentional walks (tied for fifth, 12) and percent of pitches taken (seventh, 62.8).
- ▶ His 22HR ranked second among AL switch-hitters behind Cleveland's Victor Martinez (25) and tied for the third-highest total in Athletics history for a switch-hitter...of his 22 homers, 15 were solo shots and 10 either tied the game or gave the A's the lead.
- ▶ Had three multi-HR games, homering from both sides of the plate each time (4/23 at Baltimore, 7/26 at Seattle and 9/9 at Texas).
- ▶ Became the third player in Oakland history to start at least 30 games at three different positions, joining Jay Payton (2006) and Jason Giambi (1996)...had a .993 fielding percentage at 1B (3E), .986 in CF (2E) and 1.000 in RF (0E).
- ▶ Hit .291 (44-for-151) with 6HR, 22RBI and a .458 on-base percentage vs. left-handed pitchers and .250 (97-for-388) with 16HR, 56RBI and a .348OBP vs. righties.
- ▶ Established a career high with 5RBI on 5/21 at Chicago (AL), becoming the eighth player in Oakland history to drive in five runs without a home run.
- ▶ Compiled a season-high 10-game hitting streak from 5/21-6/1, batting .405 (15-for-37) during the stretch.
- ▶ Committed his first error of the season on 8/2 vs. Los Angeles (AL) in his 98th game...also snapped a career-high 103-game errorless stretch dating back to 9/24/06.
- ▶ Hit .294 (47-for-160) over his final 41 games of the season (beginning 8/12) after batting just .248 (94-for-379) through his first 109 contests.
- ▶ Scored a run in 10 consecutive games from 9/5-15 (15R overall).
- ▶ Served a three-game suspension from 9/18-21 after being ejected on 9/16 vs. Texas for charging the mound when he was hit by a Vicente Padilla pitch in his first at-bat...marked his third straight game of being hit by a pitch (also 9/14 and 9/15 vs. Texas)...also homered in each of those games.

- ▶ Batted .254 (141-for-556) with 106R, 35HR, 95RBI and 97BB in 157 games with Oakland (80 starts at 1B, 71 in LF)...led the team in games played, runs scored, walks, extra-base hits (61), total bases (254), intentional walks (seven) and strikeouts.
- ▶ Hit .291 (41-for-141) with 8HR vs. left-handed pitchers and .241 (100-for-415) with 27HR vs. right-handers.
- ▶ Led all American League switch-hitters and ranked eighth in the AL in home runs...became just the 23rd switch-hitter in Major League history to homer at least 30 times in a season.
- ▶ Ranked sixth in the AL in walks and eighth in runs scored...tied for fourth in the AL with 152K, the highest total by an A's player since Jose Canseco also had 152 in 1991.
- ▶ Became the first player in Oakland history to start at least 70 games at two different positions and was the first to do so in the Majors since Cleveland's Carlos Baerga in 1991...started 63-of-88 games in LF before the All-Star break and 59-of-74 at 1B after the break.
- ▶ Hit .412 (7-for-17) with 2HR and 20RBI with the bases loaded.
- ▶ Reached base safely in 36 consecutive games from 4/7-5/19, going 41-for-131 (.313) with 12HR, 33RBI and 35R...hit his first career grand slam on 4/22 vs. Los Angeles (AL) off Jeff Weaver.
- ▶ Compiled a career-high 11-game hitting streak from 4/30-5/11, batting .341 (14-for-41) with 12R, 6 doubles, 3HR, 10RBI and 8BB during the stretch.
- ▶ Collected a career-high four hits on 9/8 at Tampa Bay, including his second career grand slam off James Shields.
- ▶ Started all seven postseason games at 1B for the Athletics (three vs. Minnesota-ALDS and four vs. Detroit-ALCS), batting .200 (4-for-20) with 1RBI and 7BB.

On a Roll

The Yankees have recorded a winning record in each of the last 16 seasons (1993-2008), becoming the only current Major League team to accomplish the feat...it is the longest streak of consecutive seasons with a record above .500 since the Baltimore Orioles reeled off 18 straight winning seasons from 1968-1985...the last time the Yankees recorded such a streak was an unprecedented run of 39 straight winning seasons from 1926-1964.

- Was 8-2 with a 4.07 ERA in 15 starts for the Yankees before being placed on the disabled list on 6/17 with a mid-foot sprain of the Lisfranc ligament and a partial tear of the peroneal longus tendon in his right foot, missing the remainder of the season...the Yankees were 12-3 in games he started.
- Opponents batted .249 (90-for-361, 4HR); LH .261 (46-for-176, 4HR), RH .238 (44-for-185, 0HR)...held right-handed batters hitless over a stretch of 22 consecutive plate appearances from Aaron Hill's seventh-inning double on 4/1 vs. Toronto to Manny Ramirez' double in the first inning on 4/16 vs. Boston.
- Despite missing most of the 2008 season, his 46 wins since 2006 are tied for the third-most in the American League and eighth-most in the Majors...his .754 combined winning percentage over the last three seasons (2006-08) is the second-highest in the Majors behind only Boston's Jon Lester (.771, 27-8).
- Has thrown 6.0 or more innings in 77 of his 95 career starts (81.1%), going 52-12 in those outings (Yankees are 60-17)...has lasted at least 7.0 innings in 47 career starts (49.5%), going 34-5 in those games...the Yankees are 38-9 in those starts.
- Has allowed an average of 0.49HR/9.0IP in his career (34HR, 628.2IP)...is the lowest such mark since Bruce Berenyi, who allowed just 0.37HR/9.0IP over his seven-year career from 1980-86 with the Cincinnati Reds and New York Mets (min. 90GS)...Wang's average is the fourth-lowest among all Major League pitchers since the advent of the designated hitter in 1973 (min. 90GS).
- Enters the year having not allowed a homer to a right-handed batter in his last 19 starts, dating back to 9/4/07 vs. Seattle (Adrian Beltre)...in fact, Beltre's homer is the only one Wang has allowed to a right-hander over his last 33 starts since San Francisco's Pedro Feliz on 6/23/07 at AT&T Park and the only such homer Wang has allowed over his last 32 home starts, dating back to 6/23/06 (Florida's Miguel Olivo)...has allowed two home runs in a game just three times in his career and only once (4/29/06 vs. Boston) in his last 86 games (85 starts) dating back through 7/3/05 at Detroit.
- Averaged 14.84 pitches per inning in 2008...since 2005, when he debuted, has averaged 14.20 pitches per inning, the second-lowest average in the Majors over the span behind only Greg Maddux (13.51).
- Was 5-0 with a 2.12 ERA in seven starts away from Yankee Stadium...did not throw a wild pitch and has gone 21 consecutive starts without a WP, marking the longest such streak of his career (credit: Elias).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Wang is 23-8 in his career in starts that immediately follow a Yankees loss (with the Yankees as a team going 28-10 in such starts).

(*) Denotes start followed a Yankees loss Bold = Season High

- ▶ Made his first career Opening Day start on 4/1 vs. Toronto, earning the win in a 3-2 Yankees victory in the final Opening Day game at original Yankee Stadium...became the third different Yankee to make an Opening Day start in the last three years (Randy Johnson-2006 and Carl Pavano-2007)...became the youngest Opening Day starter for the Yankees since Andy Pettitte (25 yrs, 290 days) on 4/1/98 at Anaheim...owned the fewest Major League wins (46) for a Yankees Opening Day starter since Orlando Hernandez (29-13) in 2000 at Anaheim...became the third Asian-born pitcher to make an Opening Day start in the Majors, joining Hideo Nomo (three times) and Chan Ho Park (two times)...due to the Opener being postponed one day (rain), Wang missed becoming just the second Yankee to make an Opening Day start on his birthday (3/31)...Catfish Hunter opened the 1976 season vs. Milwaukee on his 30th birthday (4/8/76).
- ▶ Became just the third Yankees pitcher to go 5-0 in the month of April, joining Andy Pettitte (1997) and Mike Mussina (2003)...Mel Stottlemyre is the only other Yankee to record five wins in the month of April, going 5-1 in both 1969 and 1974...allowed 3ER in 22.0IP over his first three starts of the season, compiling a 1.23 ERA.
- ▶ Threw 6.0 scoreless innings in his second start of the season on 4/6 vs. the Tampa Bay Rays, earning the win in a 2-0 shutout...retired the first 15 batters he faced...the shutout was the Yankees' first in the month of April since a 2-0 win on 4/10/03 vs. Minnesota.
- ▶ Recorded his fourth career complete game in his third start of the year on 4/11 at Boston, earning the win in a 4-1 Yankees victory...limited the Red Sox to only 1ER and 2H in the 9.0-inning effort, facing two batters over the minimum (0BB, 3K, 93 pitches) for the Yankees' only complete game of the season...was the Yankees' first complete game since Wang accomplished the feat in a 4-0 shutout on 6/6/07 at Chicago (AL)—the Yankees' only CG of 2007...was the first complete game thrown by a Yankee at Fenway Park since Mike Mussina on 8/28/02 in a 7-0 Yankees victory (three-hitter)...became the first pitcher to allow two or fewer hits in a complete game against the Red Sox since Seattle's Felix Hernandez surrendered one hit in a 3-0 win at Fenway Park one year earlier to the day, 4/11/07 (credit: Elias)...was the earliest into a season a Yankees pitcher hurled a complete-game win since 2003, when David Wells tossed a three-hit, 2-0 shutout vs. Minnesota in the team's ninth game of the season.
- ▶ Tied a career high, allowing 8R and 8ER on 4/16 vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium in 4.0IP, recording a no-decision in a 15-9 Yankees victory...was the first time he failed to complete 5.0IP in a start at Yankee Stadium and just the fifth time in 84 career starts that he failed to reach the mark...entered the fifth staked to a 7-3 lead, but exited after allowing five consecutive hits to start the inning.
- ▶ Earned his 50th career win on 4/22 at Chicago (AL) in his 85th career start...became the first pitcher to accumulate 50 wins in 85 or fewer starts since Dwight Gooden won his 50th game in his 82nd start on 6/29/86 w/ the Mets at Chicago (NL) and the first Yankee since Ron Guidry reached the total in his 82nd start on 8/13/79 vs. Texas...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Wang earned his 50th career win with a total of just 245 strikeouts...became the first pitcher to reach the 50-win plateau with fewer than 250K since Boston's Bob Stanley won No. 50 on 4/15/81 vs. Baltimore with 213K...the only other pitcher in the expansion era to do so was Milwaukee's Lary Sorensen, who also had 245K when he won his 50th game on 9/3/1980 at Kansas City.
- ▶ Tossed 7.0 scoreless innings and struck out a season-high nine batters on 4/27 at Cleveland, recording the win in a 1-0 Yankees victory (4H, 2BB, 1HP)...became the first Yankees pitcher to record the win in two April shutouts since Jimmy Key in 1993.
- ▶ Improved to 6-0 on the season, recording the win in a 5-1 Yankees victory on 5/2 vs. Seattle...also improved to 7-0 with a 2.39 ERA in seven career starts vs. Seattle, holding them to a .195 batting average over the stretch...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only Pedro Martinez began his career with a longer winning streak vs. the Mariners, winning his first 12 starts.
- ▶ Became the first Yankees starter to begin the season 6-0 (from the start of the season) since Mike Mussina won each of his first seven starts in 2003...over a 30-start span from 6/1/07-5/2/08, went 22-3 with a 3.44 ERA (196.1IP, 75ER)...led the Majors in wins and winning percentage (.880) during the stretch...the Yankees were 25-5 in Wang's starts over the span...the last Yankee to win as many games over a 30-start stretch was Ron Guidry, who went 22-3 over 30 starts from 5/21/85-4/24/86.

CHIEN-MING WANG

- ▶ Went a career-high six straight starts without a win from 5/7-6/5...had never gone more than three straight starts without a victory...suffered his first loss of the season on 5/7 vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium in a 3-0 Indians victory, opposing eventual 22-game winner Cliff Lee.

- ▶ Suffered his second straight losing decision on 5/18 vs. the Mets in an 11-2 Mets victory...retired the first nine batters in order before allowing four runs in a 35-pitch fourth inning...had the start pushed back one day due to a mild strain in his right calf...lost consecutive decisions for just the second time in his career (also his first two starts of the 2007 season, 4/24 at Tampa Bay and 4/29 vs. Boston)...the Yankees lost three consecutive games in which Wang started from 5/7-18...was just the second time—also 4/21-5/1/06 (Wang went 0-1 with two no-decisions)...snapped his six start winless streak on 6/10 at Oakland in a 3-1 Yankees victory, allowing only 1ER in 7.1IP.

- ▶ Recorded the win on 6/15 at Houston, throwing 5.0 scoreless innings (6H, 3K) in his final start of the season...exited the game in the middle of the sixth after injuring his foot while scoring on a Derek Jeter single...was examined the next day at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital in New York by Dr. Stuart Hersch and Foot and Ankle Specialist, Dr. Jason Greisberg...was diagnosed with a mid-foot sprain of the Lisfranc ligament and a partial tear of the peroneal longus tendon in his right foot...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/17 (retroactive to 6/16)...wore a protective boot over his foot and was limited to crutches.

- ▶ Was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 6/27 when RHP Sidney Ponson was added to the 25-man roster...missed the final 92 team games of the season.

DID YOU KNOW...Chien-Ming Wang is one of only five players from Taiwan to appear in a Major League game...he is joined by OF Chin-Feng Chen, SS Chin-Lung Hu and LHP Hong-Chih Kuo and RHP Chin-Hui Tsao.

- ▶ Tied a career high in wins for the second consecutive season, going 19-7 with a 3.70 ERA in 30 starts...also established a career high with 104 strikeouts...the Yankees were 21-9 in games he started...opponents batted .265 (199-for-751, 9HR); LH .286 (112-for-391, 7HR), RH .242 (87-for-360, 2HR)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first pitcher to lead the Yankees in wins in consecutive seasons since Andy Pettitte in 1996 (21) and 1997 (18).
- ▶ Tied for second in the Major Leagues with 19 wins (with Cleveland's Fausto Carmona, the Angels' John Lackey, San Diego's Jake Peavy and Cleveland's CC Sabathia), trailing only Boston's Josh Beckett (20)...ranked second in the American League with a 2.75 home ERA and tied for third with 10 home wins...also tied for third in the AL with a .731 overall winning percentage...finished seventh in AL Cy Young Award voting, garnering one first place vote.

CHIEN-MING WANG

- ▶ Averaged an American League-low 14.3 pitches per inning, trailing only San Diego's Greg Maddux (13.65) and Atlanta's Tim Hudson (14.11) among all Major League pitchers...induced 32 double-play groundouts, tying Cleveland's Fausto Carmona for most opponents GIDP in the Majors...also produced a total of 381 opponents groundballs, the third-most among American League pitchers behind Carmona (430) and Toronto's Roy Halladay (389)...had 34 assists without committing an error...was the most assists among AL pitchers without making a miscue.
- ▶ Became the first Yankees pitcher to record at least 19 wins in consecutive seasons since LHP Tommy John in 1979 (21) and 1980 (22) and was just the fourth Yankees pitcher in the post-war era (since 1946) to accomplish the feat, joining John and RHPs Vic Raschi (1948-51) and Mel Stottlemyre (1968-69)...became the first Yankees pitcher to record consecutive seasons with a .730 or higher winning percentage since Jimmy Key in 1993-94...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first pitcher to win at least 10 games in consecutive seasons at Yankee Stadium since John (12-5 in 1979 and 11-4 in 1980) and the first right-hander to do so since Mel Stottlemyre (11-6 in 1968 and 12-5 in 1969).
- ▶ Went 10-3 after the All-Star break, tying for the second-most wins in the Majors in the second half (along with San Diego's Jake Peavy and Arizona's Brandon Webb), trailing only teammate Andy Pettitte (11).
- ▶ Was 10-5 with a 3.20 ERA (107.0IP, 38ER) against teams that finished the season with a winning record...was 9-2 with a 2.59 ERA (76.1IP, 22ER) in 12 starts that followed a Yankees loss in 2007, winning his last seven such starts...started and recorded the win in three of the Yankees' five shutout victories in 2007.
- ▶ Tossed at least 6.0 innings in 27-of-30 starts and lasted at least 7.0 innings in 14 starts, going 11-2 in those games (Yankees were 11-3).
- ▶ Allowed just 3HR over his final 17 starts of the season (108.1IP), including a career-best 55.2-inning homerless stretch from 7/3-8/13...surrendered just two HRs to right-handed batters in 2007 (Pedro Feliz on 6/23 at San Francisco and Seattle's Adrian Beltre on 9/4 at Yankee Stadium).
- ▶ Opened the season on the 15-day disabled list from 3/31-4/23 (missed 18 team games) with a strained right hamstring...suffered the injury on 3/23 while doing conditioning exercises during spring training...made one rehab start with Single-A Tampa on 4/19 vs. Ft. Myers (5.0IP, 5H, 3ER, 1BB, 4K)...was returned from rehab and reinstated from the D.L. on 4/24, making the start that night at Tampa Bay.
- ▶ Fell five outs shy of a perfect game on 5/5 vs. Seattle, retiring the first 22 batters he faced...surrendered a solo-HR to Seattle's Ben Broussard with one out in the eighth inning...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last time a perfect game ended in the seventh inning or later by a home run was on 4/20/90, when Oakland's Ken Phelps hit a pinch-hit home run off Seattle's Brian Holman with two outs in the ninth...the performance marked the first time a Yankees starter had pitched into the eighth inning in 2007 (28 games)...was the second time in five days that a Yankees pitcher took a no-hitter into the seventh (Phil Hughes went 6.1 innings on 5/1 at Texas before being removed due to injury)...the Broussard homer snapped an 0-for-27 stretch by opposing hitters vs. Wang, the longest such streak by a Yankees pitcher in 2007, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- ▶ Recorded his third career complete game on 6/6 at Chicago (AL) in a 5-1 Yankees victory...was the Yankees' only complete game of the season and first since Randy Johnson's 4-2 loss on 8/24/06 at Seattle (a span of 92 team games without a complete game)...was the first CG win by a Yankees pitcher since Wang last accomplished the feat on 7/28/06 vs. Tampa Bay.
- ▶ Struck out a career-high 10 batters over 8.2IP in a 6/17 win vs. the Mets, surpassing his previous single-game career high of eight strikeouts on 4/16/06 at Minnesota...was the first 10-strikeout game by a Yankees pitcher since Randy Johnson recorded 11 strikeouts on 7/19/06 vs. Seattle...was also the only double-digit strikeout game by a Yankee in 2007.
- ▶ Won a career-high seven consecutive decisions over nine starts from 6/1-7/14, with a 2.89 ERA over the stretch (62.1IP, 20ER)...was the longest winning streak by a Yankees starter in 2007.
- ▶ Won his final start of the season on 9/26 at Tampa Bay for his 19th victory of the season...the win clinched a postseason appearance for the Yankees...allowed a two-run home run to Carlos Pena in the fifth inning, snapping a stretch of 110.0 homerless innings for Yankees starters.
- ▶ Made two starts in the Division Series vs. Cleveland, going 0-2 with a 19.06 ERA (5.2IP, 12ER)...started Game 1 of the ALDS for the second consecutive season, allowing 8ER in 4.2IP (H, 4BB, 2K) and taking the loss at Jacobs Field...also started Game 4 at Yankee Stadium on three days rest, the first time in his career he received only three days' rest between starts...allowed 4ER in 1.0-IP and took the loss in the 6-4 Indians victory to clinch the series...is one of only two Taiwan-born pitchers to appear in a postseason game in Major League history (also Hong-Chih Kuo, Los Angeles-NL).

- ▶ In just his first full season in the Majors, finished second behind Minnesota's Johan Santana in American League Cy Young Award Voting by the BBWAA...went 19-6 with a 3.63 ERA in 34 appearances (33 games started)...the Yankees were 22-11 in games he started...opponents batted .277 (233-for-841, 12HR); LH .275 (103-for-375, 5HR), RH .279 (130-for-466, 7HR).

CHIEN-MING WANG

2008 Yankees Season In Review

SPRING TRAINING: The Yankees finished their 28-game Grapefruit League schedule with a 14-12-2 record...completed their 13th consecutive spring training at George M. Steinbrenner Field, which was officially renamed prior to their final home spring game on 3/27...69 players reported to camp (29 non-roster invitees)...the Yankees drew a record 139,496 fans to their home Major League spring training games in 2008, averaging 10,730 fans per game, tops among Grapefruit League participants who played all their spring home games in their spring training facility...the Yankees schedule was highlighted by a game on 3/18 at Virginia Tech in Blacksburg (11-0 win), which was played to honor victims and aid in the healing process following the tragic campus events of 4/16/07...the Yankees led the Grapefruit League with a .294 batting average...1B/OF Shelley Duncan was named the James P. Dawson Award winner for the "Most Outstanding Rookie in Spring Training" by the New York chapter of the BBWAA.

2008 OPENING DAY ROSTER: Of the Yankees' 25-man 2008 Opening Day roster, only 12 were on the club's roster on Opening Day in 2007...the Yankees began the season with eight former first round picks on their Opening Day roster: Johnny Damon (Kansas City, 1992), Phil Hughes (2004), Derek Jeter (1992), Ian Kennedy (2006), Mike Mussina (Baltimore, 1990), Alex Rodriguez (Seattle, 1993) and Billy Traber (New York-NL, 2000)...additionally, bullpen coach Mike Harkey (Chicago-NL, 1987) and third base coach Bobby Meacham (St. Louis, 1981) were first-round picks...five rookies appeared on the Opening Day roster (Albaladejo, Chamberlain, Duncan, Kennedy and Ohlendorf), marking the largest number of rookies on the Yankees' Opening Day roster since 2001 (Michael Coleman, D'Angelo Jimenez, Christian Parker, Scott Seabolt and Alfonso Soriano)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, SS Derek Jeter, C Jorge Posada and RHP Mariano Rivera became the first trio of teammates to play for the Yankees in each of 14 consecutive seasons, surpassing the 13-year marks of Yankees teammates Bill Dickey, Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing (1930-42) and Whitey Ford, Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle (1955-1967)...Elias also notes that Jeter, Rivera and Posada became the first trio of Major Leaguers to play for the same team in 14 straight seasons since Jim Gantner, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount played 15 years together for the Milwaukee Brewers (1978-92).

OPENING DAY: The Yankees opened their 106th season in franchise history on 4/1 vs. the Toronto Blue Jays after enduring a rainout on 3/31...was the final Opening Day in original Yankee Stadium history...with a 3-2 victory, won their 11th consecutive home opener (1998-2008), setting a new record for the longest home opener winning streak in Major League history (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...at 2 hours and 31 minutes, was the shortest Yankees game since 5/18/07 at the Mets (2:18) and the shortest at Yankee Stadium since 9/2/06 vs. Minnesota (2:28, called in the bottom of the 8th inning due to rain)...was the earliest home game played in franchise history...the Yankees have now won 16 of their last 17 home openers and 22 of the last 25.

IN THE STANDINGS: The Yankees completed the 2008 season with an 89-73 record, finishing in third place in the American League East...missed the playoffs for the first time since 1993, snapping a 13-year streak (1995-2007) of consecutive postseason appearances...was the second-longest in Baseball history behind only the Braves' 14-year run from 1991-93 and 1995-2005 (the postseason was cancelled in 1994 due to the players' strike)...recorded their lowest placement in the final standings since coming in fifth in 1992 (76-86).

END OF AN ICON: The 2008 season marked the 84th and final season of play at Yankee Stadium...the club will move into the new Yankee Stadium across 161st Street in 2009...original Yankee Stadium was the home to all of the Yankees' 26 World Championship clubs...constructed in only 284 days at a cost of $2.5 million, it was the first sports facility to be labeled a "stadium"...except for the extension of the right field grandstand in 1937 and the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium remained relatively unchanged until the winter of 1966-67 when it underwent a $1.5 million modernization which mostly consisted of applying 90 tons of paint...after completing the Stadium's 50th-anniversary season in 1973, the Stadium underwent major renovations...subsequent alterations prior to the 1985 and 1988 seasons brought fences in to the configuration that remains today...as one of the world's most prestigious addresses, Yankee Stadium has also been the home for scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events...the Stadium opened its gates to boxing, college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, three Papal masses, religious conventions, concerts, NYU commencement and even the circus.

STADIUM FINALE: The Yankees played their final game at Yankee Stadium on 9/21, defeating the Orioles, 7-3, to complete a three-game sweep...the game's ceremonial first pitch was thrown out by Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth...the Yankees' starting lineup was introduced via recording by longtime Yankees public address announcer Bob Sheppard...LHP Andy Pettitte earned the win, allowing 3R (2ER) in 5.0IP (7H, 1BB, 3K)...RHP Mariano Rivera (1.0IP) threw the final pitch in Yankee Stadium history, inducing a Brian Roberts groundout to 1B Cody Ransom...CF/LF Johnny Damon (1-for-4) hit a three-run HR in the third inning, erasing a 2-0 deficit...C Jose Molina (3-for-4) hit a two-run home run in the fourth inning, marking the final homer in Stadium history.

HOT TICKET: Final 2008 attendance at Yankee Stadium was an all-time and American League-record 4,298,543, marking the eighth consecutive season of increasing attendance...the Yankees averaged 53,068 fans per home game and recorded 58 sellouts...the Yankees became the first Major League franchise to surpass 4 million tickets sold in four consecutive years (2005-08).

NEW FACES: The Yankees used 51 players in 2008, two more than their total in 2007 (49) and their most since 2005 (also 51)...used 27 different pitchers in 2008, one shy of their American League-leading total from 2007...only Cleveland (28) and Texas (30) used more pitchers among AL clubs in 2008...had 10 pitchers who made their first appearance as a Yankee in 2008 (Aceves, Albaladejo, Coke, Giese, Hawkins, Marte, Patterson, Robertson, Sanchez and Traber)...used 15 rookies, including 12 rookie pitchers...only Baltimore used more rookie hurlers in 2008 in the Majors.

SOFT HANDS: The Yankees ranked second in the AL and fifth in the Majors with a .986 fielding percentage (83E, 5,994TC)...matched their club record set in 1995 for the highest fielding percentage, committing their fewest-ever errors in a non-abbreviated season...was their fewest miscues since the strike-shortened 1995 season (74).

ROAD WARRIORS: The Yankees were 41-40 away from Yankee Stadium in 2008, joining Los Angeles (50-31) as the only two AL clubs with a winning road record in 2008.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: At 48-33, the Yankees recorded their 17th consecutive winning record at home...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the longest current streak of any team in the Majors and the longest such streak for any franchise since a 21-year stretch for the Yankees from 1969-89 (which included two years at Shea Stadium, 1974-75).

IN RELIEF: Yankees relievers posted a 3.78 ERA in 2008, improving their mark by over one-half run from 2007 (4.35)...the Yankees bullpen combined to strike out a franchise record 535 batters, leading all Major League relief staffs...led the AL and ranked second in the Majors, averaging 8.66 K/9.0IP...limited opponents to a .235 batting average, ranking third among Major League bullpens...among AL 'pens only Texas (572.2IP) threw more innings in relief than the Yankees (543.1IP).

NOT MUCH NEEDED: The Yankees won 21 games in 2008 when scoring three runs or fewer (21-49 overall)...were 6-36 in such games in 2007...was their most wins in a season when scoring three runs or less since 1978 (23-41)...the Yankees went 27-18 in one-run games in 2008...only Los Angeles (31), Tampa Bay (29) and Texas (28) had more one-run wins in the AL in 2008.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT: The Yankees placed a total of 19 players on the disabled list in 2008, using the D.L. a total of 21 times (Betemit and Posada each had two stints).

ALL-STAR SUMMER: Yankee Stadium hosted the 79th All-Star Game on 7/15 with the American League recording the 4-3 win in 15 innings...as the fourth Midsummer Classic to take place at Yankee Stadium (also 1939, '60 and '77)...only Cleveland's Municipal Stadium hosted as many All-Star Games...overall, it was the eighth MLB All-Star Game to be hosted in New York City (also Polo Grounds in 1934 and '42, Ebbets Field in 1949 and Shea Stadium in 1969)...SS Derek

Jeter, 3B Alex Rodriguez and RHP Mariano Rivera were named to the AL squad...Rodriguez (3,934,518) was the Majors' leading vote-getter for the second consecutive season, marking his 12th All-Star appearance...Jeter and Rivera each made their ninth All-Star appearance and are the only players to be named to the All-Star team with their current team at least nine times, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...Yankees Manager Joe Girardi served as a coach for the AL team and Yankees Head Athletic Trainer Gene Monahan was a member of the AL All-Star staff for the fourth time (also 1977, '86 and '92)...in the XM All-Star Futures Game - which also took place at Yankee Stadium - the World Team was managed by Tino Martinez with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre pitching coach Rafael Chavez also serving on the coaching staff...C Jesus Montero and SS Ramiro Pena played for the World team in the game.

NO MORE THAN FOUR: The Yankees were one of only three Major League teams that did not lose more than four straight games overall in 2008...joined the Marlins and Angels who endured season-high four-game losing streaks as well...in addition, the Yankees were one of only two American League teams (also Los Angeles-AL) that did not lose five consecutive road games in 2008.

IN THE CLUTCH: The Yankees led the AL in 2008 with a .268 batting average with two outs and runners in scoring position (185-for-691) and a .272 average with two outs (492-for-1808)...only St. Louis (.273 and .283) had higher such averages in the Majors...the team's 565 two-strike hits were fourth-most in the Majors and second-most in the AL behind only Minnesota (575).

HOMER HAPPY: According to the Elias Sports Bureau, with the acquisition of C Ivan Rodriguez on 7/30, the Yankees became the first team in Major League history to boast seven teammates (active or disabled) with at least 200 Major League HR: Bobby Abreu, Jason Giambi, Derek Jeter, Jorge Posada, Alex Rodriguez, Ivan Rodriguez and Richie Sexson.

VS. THE BEST: The Yankees combined for a 28-25 record against the American League playoff teams (Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles and Tampa Bay)...were 11-7 against the Rays, making them one of only two AL clubs with a winning record against the AL champs (also Cleveland, 5-2).

IN A PINCH: The Yankees led the American League with four pinch-hit home runs in 2008 and ranked fifth in the Majors in pinch-hit batting average (.256)...marked the Yankees' most pinch-hit homers and highest average since 2004 (5, .308).

COMMUNITY HEROES: SS Derek Jeter was selected as the Yankees' nominee for the Marvin Miller "Man of the Year" Award, which is presented annually to a player elected by his peers as the one who best combines on-field performance with community service...LF Johnny Damon was selected the Yankees' team recipient of the 2008 Roberto Clemente Award, given annually to the Major League Baseball player who combines outstanding skills on the baseball field with devoted work in the community.

New York Yankees™

HISTORY & RECORDS

Fans queue for entrance prior to a 1923 World Series game.
The Yankees won their first world championship that year in the inaugural season of the original Yankee Stadium.

History of the New York Yankees

Considering the New York Yankees have won 39 American League pennants and 26 World Championships, the franchise has surprisingly humble origins. When the American League declared itself a Major League following the 1900 season, it sought to place a team in New York for the 1901 campaign. But due to the political strength of the National League's New York Giants, the American League instead put a team in Baltimore, calling it the Orioles, with the intent to move it to New York as soon as possible.

Managed by John McGraw, the 1901 Orioles finished 68-65 and failed to draw substantial crowds. The following season, McGraw, fearing the team would relocate to New York without him in 1903, precipitated a midseason release from his contract. He immediately teamed with Giants owner Andrew Freedman and Cincinnati Reds owner John T. Brush, helping them acquire a majority interest in the Orioles. With control of Baltimore's players, the pair of owners decimated the squad, divvying up the players between them. On July 17, 1902, the Baltimore Orioles were left with five players on their roster and were forced to forfeit their game against the St. Louis Browns. The American League quickly stepped in and lent Baltimore players from other teams so they could finish the season.

Prior to the 1903 season, the two leagues reached a truce, part of which involved the National League agreeing to allow an American League team in New York City. Race-horse owner

Frank Farrell and ex-New York chief of police Bill Devery purchased the remnants of the Baltimore franchise for $18,000 and reestablished it in upper Manhattan.

The New York Americans, as they were formally named, were New York City's third Major League team, joining the Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League. They played home games at American League Park, a hastily constructed all-wooden structure at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site was one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the team was commonly called the "Hilltoppers" or "Highlanders" and their home field "Hilltop Park." They played their inaugural game on April 22, 1903, at Washington, losing 3-1 to the Senators. The next day, they defeated the Senators, 7-2, recording the very first win in franchise history.

Led by future Hall of Famers Jack Chesboro, Clark Griffith and Wee Willie Keeler, the Highlanders finished with a 72-62 record, 17.0 games out of first place. They nearly captured the American League pennant in 1904—finishing 1.5 games behind the Boston Pilgrims—as Chesboro went 41-12 with a 1.82 ERA in 454.2 innings pitched, setting a modern-era (since 1901) record with his win total. That season marked the first of three second-place finishes for the club between 1904 and 1910.

After a spectacular fire severely damaged the Polo Grounds in 1911, the Highlanders' owners invited the Giants to share Hilltop Park until their home, the Polo Grounds, could be rebuilt. Two years later, the Giants returned the favor and allowed the Highlanders to become tenants in their rebuilt and vastly superior facility. With the move in 1913, the Highlanders officially changed their name to "Yankees," by which they had actually been known for most of their history.

From 1911 to 1919, the Yankees won as many as 80 games in a season only twice. But three key moves—the January 11, 1915, purchase of the ballclub by Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston, the 1918 hiring of Manager Miller Huggins by Ruppert (without Huston's blessing) and the 1919 midseason trade for right-handed pitcher Carl Mays (26 wins in 1920 and 27 wins in 1921)—set the stage for the most course-altering transaction in baseball history.

On January 3, 1920, the Yankees purchased the contract of George Herman "Babe" Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Ruth's impact was immediate. The Yankees won

95 games in 1920, their highest victory total up to that point, then captured their first American League pennant a year later. With the Babe hitting 54 home runs in 1920—more than any other team in the American League—Yankees attendance at the Polo Grounds doubled to 1,289,422. In 1921, the Giants, being outdrawn in their own park, asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. Now bitter rivals, the two teams squared off in the World Series in 1921 and 1922 with the Giants winning both times.

Though he came up on the wrong end in both Series, Yankees pitcher—and 1969 Hall of Fame inductee—Waite Hoyt allowed just one earned run over 35.0 combined innings over the two Fall Classics. Remarkably, he went 2-2 in his five appearances (four starts), including a 1-0, Series-clinching loss (on an unearned run) in Game 8 of the 1921 best-of-nine championship.

With their departure from the Polo Grounds inevitable, the Yankees' owners set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own. Designed to be baseball's first triple-decked structure with an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first baseball facility to be labeled a "stadium."

Construction began on May 5, 1922, and in only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox. An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for a glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees won, 4-1.

Playing in their new stadium, the Yankees won the American League by 16.0 games in 1923, using just eight pitchers all season. Each of their five starters—Bob Shawkey, Joe Bush, Waite Hoyt, Sam Jones and Herb Pennock—won at least 16 games. Yet it was Ruth's tremendous power that people were coming to see and Yankee Stadium quickly became known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series, and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants.

On June 1, 1925, in a 5-3 loss vs. Washington, Huggins inserted a 21-year-old rookie first baseman as a pinch-hitter for light-hitting shortstop Paul "Pee Wee" Wanninger. No one could have imagined at the time that this appearance would be the first of 2,130 consecutive games played by Lou Gehrig, who, with Ruth and later Joe DiMaggio, anchored some of the greatest ballclubs of all time.

After a tough loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1926 World Series, the Yankees rolled to World Championships in both 1927 and 1928, first sweeping Pittsburgh, then the Cardinals the following year. The 1927 club, the second Yankees team to be labeled "Murderers' Row" (the first was the 1920 squad), is often the yardstick by which team greatness is measured. During that season, Ruth broke his own single-season home run record (previously 59 in 1921) with his 60th on September 30, 1927, off Washington's Tom Zachary, and Gehrig added 47 homers and 175 RBI of his own.

In his 15 seasons in pinstripes, Ruth helped build a winning tradition with seven American League pennants and four World Championships (also 1932). He finished his unparalleled career with 714 home runs (including 49 with the Red Sox from 1914-19 and six with the Boston Braves in 1935), 12 American League home run titles and six RBI crowns, including five seasons with more than 150 RBI. A charter member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, he remains widely regarded as the greatest player of all time.

Lou Gehrig

Throughout Ruth's time in pinstripes, he often overshadowed the soft-spoken Manhattan-born Gehrig. Yet the "Iron Horse" posted incredible numbers in his own right.

Joe DiMaggio

From 1926 through 1938, Gehrig drove in at least 112 runs each season. A member of six World Championship clubs (1927-28, 1932, 1936-38), he finished with a .340 lifetime batting average and 493 career home runs in just 8,001 at-bats. He was the AL's starting first baseman in each of the first five Major League Baseball All-Star Games, and in 1934, he became the first of two Yankees in franchise history (also Mickey Mantle in 1956) to win the Triple Crown, hitting .363 with a career-best 49 homers and 165 RBI. He also still holds the American League record for RBI in a single season with 184 in 1931.

After the 1934 season, Ruth's last in New York, the Yankees purchased the contract of a budding star named Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League. Two years later, DiMaggio made his debut in pinstripes and helped the Yankees to an incredible string of four consecutive World Championships under Manager Joe McCarthy from 1936 through 1939. The 1930s also produced one of the game's greatest lefty-righty pitching combinations in future Hall of Famers Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing. A four-time 20-game winner—including 24-7 in 1932 and 26-5 in 1934—Gomez posted a 6-0 record over five World Series. Ruffing, who was acquired in May 1930 from the Boston Red Sox for outfielder Cedric Durst and $50,000, had been 39-96 with the Red Sox since his 1924 rookie season. After coming to the Yankees, however, he forged a legacy worthy of Cooperstown, going 231-124 in pinstripes while posting 20, 20, 21 and 21 wins on the four World Championship clubs from 1936 through 1939. He was also an exceptionally good hitter for a pitcher, totaling 36 career home runs and a .269 lifetime batting average.

From 1931 through part of the 1946 season, the Yankees were led by McCarthy, who compiled a Yankees-record 1,460 wins in his time at the helm. Having also spent time leading the Chicago Cubs (1926-1930) and the Boston Red Sox (1948-50), he stands at eighth place on the all-time managerial wins list with 2,125 victories heading into the 2009 season. With the Yankees, he reached eight World Series (1932, 1936-39, 1941-43), winning a World Championship in all but one—the 1942 Fall Classic against St. Louis.

Sadly, in 1939, Gehrig was diagnosed with a crippling disease, eventually determined to be amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and his streak of 2,130 games came to an end on May 2, when he took himself out of the lineup prior to the Yankees' 22-2 win at Detroit. He never played in a Major League game again.

On July 4 of the same season, the Yankees honored their captain with an emotional Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day at Yankee Stadium, and his uniform No. 4 became the first in Baseball to be retired. He died on June 2, 1941.

With the departure of Gehrig, DiMaggio became the pillar of the next generation of Yankees champions. In his 13 seasons in pinstripes (1936-42 and '46-51), DiMaggio made the AL All-Star team every year, and his club played in the World Series in all but three years (1940, '46, '48), winning nine World Series titles. The legendary "Yankee Clipper" compiled one of the game's most remarkable—and perhaps unbreakable—records in 1941 when he hit safely in an all-time-best 56 consecutive games.

DiMaggio's retirement after the 1951 season at the age of 37 was made easier by the emergence of Mickey Mantle, who played side-by-side with DiMaggio in the outfield in the Yankee Clipper's final campaign.

With Whitey Ford joining future Hall of Famers Yogi Berra and Phil Rizzuto, the Yankees were nearly unstoppable from the late 1940s through the early 1960s. Manager Casey Stengel sublimely handled the Yankees juggernaut following his surprising appointment prior to the 1949 season. The club marched to five consecutive World Series titles from 1949 through 1953; no other team has won as many as four straight. His emphasis on platooning players (often to their chagrin) allowed him to exploit matchups in a way not emphasized in his era. Nicknamed "The Old Perfeessor," with a vernacular called "Stengelese," he remains one of the most colorful personalities in the game's history. In 12 seasons as manager of the Yankees, he brought his club to the World Series 10 times, winning on seven occasions (also 1956 and 1958).

Mantle would achieve greatness despite a case of osteomyelitis and numerous other injuries. The powerful switch-hitter belted 536 home runs, collected 2,415 hits and batted .300 or higher 10 times in an 18-year career. In his first 14 seasons in pinstripes (1951-64), the Yankees missed the World Series only twice (1954 and 1959), winning the Fall Classic seven times. With his .353 batting average, 52 homers and 130 RBI in 1956, he remains the last Yankees player to win the Triple Crown.

Ford, who played his whole career in pinstripes, is the Yankees' all-time wins leader. His lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the second-best career winning percentage (.690) of any modern-era (since 1901) pitcher with 100 or more decisions, trailing only career-Yankee Spud Chandler (.717, 109-43). Ford paced the American League in victories three times and in ERA and shutouts twice. He still holds many World Series records, including those for wins (10), consecutive scoreless innings (33.0) and strikeouts (94).

The heart of the Yankees for 18 seasons, Berra played on an incredible 14 pennant winners and 10 World Championship teams—a record number for any individual player in Baseball history. He is one of only nine players in Major League history to win three MVP Awards, and he was selected to the All-Star team in every season from 1948 through 1962.

Rizzuto played on 10 pennant winners and eight World Series championship teams from 1941 through 1956, capturing the league's MVP award in 1950 by batting .324 with 200 hits and 125 runs scored. Eventually elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994, he gave one of the most memorable induction speeches in the history of the ceremony.

Not every notable Yankee was a future Hall of Famer. In Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium, right-hander Don Larsen authored one of the game's greatest pitching performances when he retired all 27 Dodger batters for the only perfect game in World Series history.

The Yankees opened the 1960s in their usual fashion, winning pennants in the first five seasons (1960-64) and World Series titles in 1961 and 1962. Incredibly, in the 29 seasons from 1936 to 1964, the Yankees won 22 pennants and 16 World Championships. The 1961 club is still regarded as one of the best teams in Baseball history. With Mantle and Roger Maris embroiled in a season-long race to break Ruth's single-season home run record, the Yankees rolled to 109 wins en route to a World Championship. Maris broke Ruth's record when he belted his 61st home run on October 1 off Boston's Tracy Stallard at Yankee Stadium in the last game of the season.

Age finally caught up with the ballclub after a seven-game Series loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1964. The Yankees would finish above fourth place just once in the next nine seasons and actually fell to last place in 1966 for the first time in 53 years.

Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris

The team's fall from grace ended on January 2, 1973, when the most storied franchise in sports history was sold by CBS to a group headed by George M. Steinbrenner III. With the addition of Catfish Hunter, Baseball's first marquee free agent, shrewd trades that brought Ed Figueroa, Mickey Rivers, Chris Chambliss and Willie Randolph to the club, and a strong nucleus that included Thurman Munson, Graig Nettles, Roy White and Sparky Lyle, the Yankees would return to the postseason in 1976, ending an 11-year drought (1965-1975) by winning their first American League East title. Then on October 14, 1976, in the deciding Game 5 of the AL Championship Series vs. the Kansas City Royals, Chambliss launched a ninth-inning, pennant-winning home run to put the Yankees back in the World Series.

This newfound success took place in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. The 1974 and '75 Yankees played in Shea Stadium for two years while vast improvements were made to the original Yankee Stadium (for more details, see "History of Original Yankee Stadium" in this section of the media guide).

After a disheartening four-game sweep by the Cincinnati Reds in the 1976 World Series, the Yankees introduced Reggie Jackson—the most prolific slugger of his era—as the club's newest free-agent acquisition. Jackson capped an exciting 1977 season with one of baseball's greatest individual performances. In Game 6 of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium on October 18, "Mr. October" belted three home runs on three swings of the bat to join Babe Ruth as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

Reggie Jackson hit three home runs in Game 6 of the 1977 World Series.

Bucky Dent hits his famous three-run home run in the one-game AL East playoff contest on Oct. 2, 1978 at Fenway Park.

In 1978, the Yankees overcame a 14.0-game deficit in the American League East to force a one-game playoff with the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park to decide the American League pennant. Shortstop Bucky Dent erased a 2-0, seventh-inning Red Sox lead with a dramatic three-run homer, and the Yankees went on to a 5-4 win en route to a second straight World Championship over the Dodgers.

The 1978 season also saw the emergence of Ron Guidry as one of the franchise's greatest pitchers. A four-time American League All-Star, Guidry compiled one of the most dominating seasons in baseball history while becoming known as "Louisiana Lightning." He went 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA in leading the Yankees to their dramatic comeback, compiling a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the AL Cy Young Award recipient. On June 17, 1978 vs. the California Angels at Yankee Stadium, Guidry set a club record by striking out 18 batters. A four-time All-Star and five-time Gold Glove Award winner, Guidry also racked up 20-win seasons in 1983 (21-9) and 1985 (22-6).

The 1970s ended with tragedy. Thurman Munson, the Yankees' first captain since Gehrig, was killed when his pri-ivate jet crashed on August 2, 1979. Only 32 at the time of his death, Munson was the undisputed leader of the clubs that won three consecutive pennants and two World Championships. After the captain's death, the Yankees would make only one more World Series appearance (1981) in the next 17 years despite compiling the best record in the Major Leagues during the 1980s.

During this period, Don Mattingly became one of the most popular players in franchise history, batting .307 in a 14-year career (1982-95) played entirely in pinstripes. He compiled an incredible six-year stretch from 1984 through 1989, in which he batted .327 and topped 100 RBI five times, including a career-high 145 in 1985, when he captured the AL MVP Award. A year earlier, he outdueled teammate Dave Winfield for the 1984 AL batting crown (.343 to .340), going 4-for-5 on the final day of the season. His performance and loyalty were recognized when he was named the 10th captain in Yankees history from 1991-95.

Winfield, who came to the Yankees as the game's most sought-after free agent in 1981, compiled Hall of Fame credentials in his eight-plus seasons in pinstripes (1981-90). With the Yankees, he belted 205 home runs with 818 RBI and won five Gold Glove Awards.

After a 13-year absence (1982-94), the Yankees returned to postseason play in 1995 as the American League's first-ever "Wild Card" entry. A heart-wrenching five-game loss to the Seattle Mariners in the Division Series marked the start of a 13-year run of consecutive postseason appearances (1995-2007), a record topped only by the Atlanta Braves' 14-season streak (1991-93, 1995-2005).

In 1996 under new skipper Joe Torre, the Yankees returned to the World Series, winning a six-game Fall Classic against the Atlanta Braves. Following a Division Series exit in 1997, the Yankees won three straight World titles from 1998 through 2000, giving them four championships in five years. Their 114 victories in 1998 shattered the 44-year-old American League mark of 111 wins set by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (since broken by Seattle in 2001) and their 125 total victories, including 11 postseason wins, remains the highest single-season total in baseball history.

The Yankees' most recent era of accomplishment has featured a lineup of homegrown talent to rival any period in franchise history. Since the signing of nondrafted free agent Bernie Williams in 1991, the Yankees farm system has produced All-Stars Robinson Cano, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. In addition, shrewd trades and free-agent acquisitions have brought such All-Stars as Wade Boggs, Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jimmy Key, Tino Martinez, Hideki Matsui and Mike Mussina to the Bronx. Another of those players, Paul O'Neill, acquired in a November 3, 1992, trade with Cincinnati, became adored by Yankees fans for his intense and gritty approach. A winner of the 1994 batting title (.359) and often described as a "warrior," he is typically thought of as the heart and soul of the club's turn-of-the-century success.

Rudy Giuliani, George Steinbrenner and Joe Torre

Scott Brosius hits a two-run, ninth-inning, game-tying homer in Game 5 of the 2001 World Series vs. Arizona.

In 2001, the Yankees fell just shy of becoming the second team in history to win four consecutive World Series titles, but they nevertheless captured the hearts of the nation in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of September 11. The Yankees dropped the first two games of the Series at the Arizona Diamondbacks' Bank One Ballpark but rallied to win the next three at Yankee Stadium behind dramatic ninth-inning comebacks in both Games 4 and 5. On consecutive nights, Martinez and Brosius erased two-run, ninth-inning Diamondbacks leads with home runs, and the Yankees won both games in extra innings. It was in Game 4 that Jeter earned his "Mr. November" nickname with a 10th-inning "walk-off" home run. The victories marked the first time in World Series history that a team won two games in the same Series when trailing by at least two runs in the ninth inning.

No one personifies the Yankees' recent title run more than Jeter, who was a rookie on the 1996 squad. Over the last 10 seasons (1999-2008), his 1,947-hit total is tops in the Majors, and his personal career winning percentage of .600 (1,189-794-2) is the best among active Major League players who have played in a minimum of 1,000 games. In 2007, he recorded his sixth 200-hit season, joining Gehrig, who had eight, as one of two players in franchise history with as many as four. In fact, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, no other player has had as many as four 200-hit seasons while playing at least 100 games at shortstop per year.

Posada and Rivera have crafted special places for themselves in the annals of the franchise. Posada, a 24th-round selection in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft, is one of eight catchers in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs in seven seasons while playing a minimum of 50 percent of his games behind the plate. Known for his toughness and durability, the Puerto Rico-born backstop started at least 120 games in seven consecutive seasons from 2000-07. Rivera, with 482 career saves going into 2009, ranks second on Baseball's all-time list behind only Trevor Hoffman (554). His reputation has been cemented by postseason excellence, which includes an 8-1 record and 0.77 ERA in 76 career postseason games (117.1 innings pitched). His Major League-leading 34 career postseason saves is almost as many as the totals of the second, third and fourth place pitchers on the list combined (39). His 2.29 career ERA is the fourth-lowest all time among pitchers with at least 1,000 OIP since ERA was made an official statistic in 1912 in NL and 1913 in AL.

In 2004, the organization acquired Alex Rodriguez in a trade from the Texas Rangers. Since his arrival in the Bronx, the now 12-time All-Star transitioned to a new position at third base and was voted the AL MVP in 2005 and 2007, while becoming the 22nd—and youngest—player in baseball history reach the 500-home run plateau in 2007.

The last several seasons have seen the Yankees concentrate on procuring and nurturing young talent. Two-time 19-game winner Chien-Ming Wang, pitcher Joba Chamberlain and second baseman Robinson Cano are illustrative of the team's commitment to youth and international scouting. Manager Joe Girardi will guide the mix of youth and veterans as he serves his second season as the Bombers' skipper after having been named the 32nd manager in franchise history on October 30, 2007.

The 2008 season will be long remembered as the final curtain call of the original Yankee Stadium. A nostalgia-filled year included the third Papal Mass in Stadium history on April 20 and a 15-inning, 4-3 American League victory in the All-Star Game on July 15. Though the Yankees played their last-ever Yankee Stadium home game on September 21, defeating the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3, the drama of the season didn't end until its final day as Mike Mussina earned a win in the first game of a doubleheader over Boston at Fenway Park to become the oldest first-time 20-game winner in baseball history.

Beginning in 2009, the Yankees will add to their legacy in a new state-of-the-art Yankee Stadium on the north side of 161st Street in the Bronx, across the street from the site of the original. With the interior and exterior reminiscent of the original Yankee Stadium prior to its remodeling in 1974-75, the new Stadium melds the Yankees' rich tradition with the ultimate in fan-friendly amenities. As Derek Jeter said while addressing the crowd following the final home game, "There are a few things with the New York Yankees that never change. That's pride, it's tradition, and most of all, we have the greatest fans in the world."

History of the Yankees Uniform

When the Yankees (then "Highlanders") first took the field for their inaugural season in 1903, their uniform did not much resemble the iconic style for which they are known today. A large ornate "N" decorated one breast and a large ornate "Y" the other. Two years later for the 1905 season, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast, creating a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

It wasn't until 1909 that the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the caps and left sleeves of Highlanders uniforms. The design was created in 1877 by Louis B. Tiffany for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, the first NYC policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former NYC police chief, the design was adopted by the organization. The familiar "NY" eventually migrated from the left sleeve to the left breast of home uniforms from 1912-16, albeit in a larger version than is currently worn today.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees (as they were commonly known by then) made a fashionable debut at their April 11 home opener by wearing pinstripes for the first time in their history. The club was not the first team to wear pinstripes (eight of Baseball's other 15 teams had already worn them at some point), and they would actually abandon the look in the following two seasons (1913-14). By 1915, though, home pinstripes were back for good.

In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 20 years until it was reinstated in 1936. Babe Ruth, whose Yankees career spanned 1920-1934, played his entire Yankees career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs from 1903 until 1921—including pinstripes in 1915, '16, '19 and '21—until they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia in 1922.

The club's road uniforms have remained relatively unchanged since 1918—solid grey with "NEW YORK" in block letters across the chest. The notable exception was from 1927-30, when "NEW YORK" was replaced by "YANKEES." In 1973, with the introduction of more breathable double-knit uniforms, Yankees road jerseys added navy-and-white banded trim to the cuffs of the sleeves as well as white shadowing behind the jersey lettering.

The home uniform remains the Yankees' signature look. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the 1940s—it has remained mostly unchanged for more than 70 years.

For the 2008 season, the Yankees wore an All-Star Game patch on their left sleeve and a Yankee Stadium Final Season tribute patch on their right sleeve. In 2009, the club will wear a patch on both their cap and left sleeve to commemorate their inaugural season at the new Yankee Stadium.

Babe Ruth sports the pinstriped-cap look of 1921.

Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri display the pre-1936 home uniform without insignia.

Origin of Numbered Uniforms

Numbers first appeared on Major League uniforms on June 26, 1916, when the Cleveland Indians wore large numerals on their left sleeves in an experiment that lasted just a few weeks. Another brief trial by Cleveland the next season and a similar sleeve trial by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1923 both proved temporary. It wasn't until the 1929 season that another attempt was made, as both Cleveland and the New York Yankees began their seasons with numbers as a permanent part of their respective uniforms. Though the Yankees are typically credited as being the team with the longest-standing such policy, it should be noted that the Indians began their season two days earlier than the Bombers, as the Yankees' April 16 Opening Day contest was rained out.

The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees roster was made according to the player's position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1, Mark Koenig No. 2, Babe Ruth No. 3, Lou Gehrig No. 4, Bob Meusel No. 5, Tony Lazzeri No. 6, Leo Durocher No. 7, Johnny Grabowski No. 8, Benny Bengough No. 9 and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties). By the mid-1930s, other teams adopted the idea, and uniform numbers became the standard for all teams.

Important Dates in Yankees History

* Event occurred at the original Yankee Stadium

Hilltop Park, first home of the Yankees

Jan. 9, 1903 - Frank Farrell and Bill Devery purchase the defunct Baltimore franchise of the American League for $18,000, then move the team to Manhattan.

March 12, 1903 - The New York franchise is approved as a member of the American League. The team will play in a hastily constructed, all-wood park at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site is one of the highest spots in Manhattan, their home field is referred to as "Hilltop Park."

April 22, 1903 - The Highlanders (as the Yankees were commonly known then) play their first game, a 3-1 loss at Washington.

April 23, 1903 - The Highlanders record the first win in franchise history, a 7-2 victory at Washington. Harry Howell records the win.

April 30, 1903 - The Highlanders notch a 6-2 win vs. Washington in their inaugural home opener at Hilltop Park.

April 11, 1912 - Pinstripes first appear on Highlanders uniforms, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports.

April 1913 - The Highlanders are officially renamed "Yankees" after moving to the Polo Grounds, home of the National League's New York Giants.

Jan. 11, 1915 - Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston purchase the Yankees for $465,000.

April 24, 1917 - George Mogridge becomes the first Yankee to throw a no-hitter in a 2-1 win at Fenway Park.

Jan. 3, 1920 - The Yankees purchase the contract of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Oct. 5, 1921 - The Yankees play their first postseason game in franchise history, as Carl Mays tosses a complete game shutout to defeat the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds in Game 1 of the World Series.

May 5, 1922 - Construction begins on Yankee Stadium.

May 21, 1922 - Col. Ruppert buys out Col. Huston for $1.5 million.

April 18, 1923 - Yankee Stadium opens with a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox before an announced crowd of 74,200. Babe Ruth hits the Stadium's first home run.

Oct. 15, 1923 - The Yankees defeat the New York Giants, 6-4, at the Polo Grounds in Game 6 of the World Series, clinching the first of 26 World Championships.

June 1, 1925 - Lou Gehrig begins his record streak of 2,130 consecutive games played, pinch-hitting for "Pee Wee" Wanniger in a 5-3 loss to Washington at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 6, 1926 - Babe Ruth becomes the first player to hit three home runs in a single World Series game in Game 4 at St. Louis.

Sept. 30, 1927 - Babe Ruth breaks his own single-season Major League record by hitting his 60th home run (off Tom Zachary) in a 4-2 win over Washington at Yankee Stadium.

April 20, 1928 - Yankee Stadium's left field stands are enlarged to three decks.

Oct. 9, 1928 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. the Cardinals at St. Louis' Sportsman's Park, Babe Ruth hits three home runs, marking his second three-homer World Series game.

April 18, 1929 - The Yankees wear numbered uniforms for the first time in their history, two days after the Cleveland Indians permanently adopt them as well (Numbers would become standard for all teams by 1932).

Sept. 24, 1929 - The Yankees celebrate Babe Ruth Day at Fenway Park by winning, 5-3, over Boston. Ruth goes 2-for-3 with a double and Tom Zachary (pitching for the Yankees) records his final decision of the season, improving to 12-0, still a Major League record for most wins in a season without a loss.

Origin of the Names "Highlanders" and "Yankees"

When the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles to New York for the 1903 season, the club made its home at 168th Street and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. As a result, the team became known as the "Hilltoppers" and their field "Hilltop Park," even though their formal team name was "New York Americans" and formal ballpark name "American League Park."

The name "Highlanders," as the team of that era is most popularly remembered today, also started in the club's formative years. It originated not only as a nod to their elevated Manhattan perch, but also as a reference to club president Joseph W. Gordon, whose last name conjured up thoughts of the famous British army unit, the Gordon Highlanders.

Other nicknames for the team were "Porch Climbers," "Burglars," and "Invaders"—all three usually reserved for writers sympathetic to the New York Giants, who held lingering animosity at having American League competition in such close proximity.

As early as 1904, however, the name "Yankees" became common in the press. The earliest known use was in an April 7, 1904, article in the New York Evening Journal that bore the headline "YANKEES WILL START HOME FROM SOUTH TODAY," which was published following a successful spring training spent in the Southern U.S. A week later, the same newspaper's coverage of Opening Day was headlined "YANKEES BEAT BOSTON," and the term also appeared in the article's lead sentence.

"Yankees" was a natural fit given the club's formal name, but likely owes its success to newspaper typesetters and editors grateful for a team name with fewer letters than "Highlanders" or "Hilltoppers." When the franchise moved from Hilltop Park to the Polo Grounds in 1913, it officially changed its name to "New York Yankees."

Sept. 25, 1929 - Manager Miller Huggins, who guided the Yankees to their first six AL pennants and three World Championships, dies of blood poisoning.

June 3, 1932 - Lou Gehrig becomes the first player to hit four home runs in a single game in the Yankees' 20-13 win at Philadelphia. The news is overshadowed by the retirement announcement of New York Giants Manager John McGraw. Gehrig remains the only Yankee to hit four home runs in one game.

Aug. 13, 1932 - Red Ruffing throws a complete game shutout and hits a 10th-inning solo home run off Washington Senators pitcher Al Thomas, giving the Yankees a 1-0 victory at Griffith Stadium. Though not the first to do so, no Major League pitcher has since thrown a complete game shutout and hit a home run in a 1-0 game.

Oct. 1, 1932 - In the fifth inning of the Yankees' 7-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field in Game 3 of the World Series, Babe Ruth gestures toward the bleachers before hitting his second home run of the game. Though Lou Gehrig also hits two homers that day, the game will be remembered for Ruth's much-debated "called shot."

June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag goes 6-for-6 in a 15-3, nine-inning win in Game 1 of a doubleheader at Boston, becoming the first of only two Yankees to go 6-for-6 in a single game (see June 7, 2008 - Johnny Damon).

Nov. 21, 1934 - The Yankees purchase Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League for $50,000.

Joe DiMaggio

May 24, 1936 - Tony Lazzeri hits three home runs (including two grand slams) and a triple, setting an AL record (which still stands through 2008) with 11 RBI in a single game in a 25-2 win at Philadelphia.

April 20, 1937 - The Yankees' 15th season at Yankee Stadium opens with the right-field stands enlarged to three decks. Wooden bleachers are replaced by a concrete structure, and the distance to center field drops from 490 feet to 461 feet.

May 30, 1938 - A franchise-record crowd of 81,841 attends a doubleheader sweep of the Boston Red Sox at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 27, 1938 - Monte Pearson authors the first Yankee Stadium no-hitter by a Yankee, defeating Cleveland, 13-0, in Game 2 of a doubleheader.

May 2, 1939 - Lou Gehrig's playing streak of 2,130 consecutive games ends when he does not make an appearance in a 22-2 Yankees win at Detroit. Babe Dahlgren plays first base for the Yankees and contributes a double and a home run.

July 4, 1939 - "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" is held at Yankee Stadium in between games of a doubleheader vs. Washington. His uniform No. 4 is the first to be retired in Major League Baseball. Gehrig makes his famous "luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech.

May 15, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak begins with a single off Edgar Smith in a 13-1 loss vs. Chicago at Yankee Stadium.

June 2, 1941 - Lou Gehrig dies of Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis at the age of 37 in the Riverdale section of the Bronx.

July 17, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's consecutive-game hitting streak ends at 56 when he goes 0-for-3 in a 4-3 Yankees win at Cleveland. Indians third baseman Ken Keltner twice robs DiMaggio of hits with great fielding plays. DiMaggio hits safely in his next 16 games, giving him hits in 72 of 73 games.

Jan. 25, 1945 - Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2.8 million from the estate of the late Col. Jacob Ruppert. MacPhail replaces Ed Barrow as President and General Manager.

May 28, 1946 - The first night game is played at Yankee Stadium, a 2-1 loss vs. Washington before 49,917 fans.

April 27, 1947 - "Babe Ruth Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and throughout Major League Baseball.

June 13, 1948 - Babe Ruth's uniform No. 3 is retired at Yankee Stadium's 25th Anniversary celebration. The visit marks the Babe's final Stadium appearance.

Aug. 16, 1948 - Babe Ruth dies of throat cancer in New York at age 53.

Oct. 12, 1948 - The Yankees announce that Casey Stengel will replace Bucky Harris as manager.

Oct. 1-2, 1949 - The Yankees come back from a one-game deficit with two games to play, defeating the Boston Red Sox in the final two games of the season at Yankee Stadium, 5-4 and 5-3, respectively, marking the first of five consecutive American League pennants.

Oct. 5, 1949 - In Game 1 of the World Series vs. Brooklyn at Yankee Stadium, Tommy Henrich breaks up a scoreless pitchers' duel between the Yankees' Allie Reynolds and the Dodgers' Don Newcombe, hitting a game-winning solo home run in the bottom of the ninth.

April 17, 1951 - Mickey Mantle makes his Major League debut, going 1-for-4 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. The game also marks Bob Sheppard's first as Yankees public-address announcer. Boston's Dom DiMaggio is the first hitter announced.

Sept. 28, 1951 - In an 8-0 Game 1 win in a doubleheader vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Allie Reynolds becomes the second of four players in Baseball history to toss two no-hitters in the same season (also Johnny Vander Meer in 1938, Virgil Trucks in 1952 and Nolan Ryan in 1973). Reynolds had previously no-hit the Indians at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium on July 12 in a 1-0 win.

Dec. 12, 1951 - Joe DiMaggio officially announces his retirement.

April 17, 1953 - Exactly two years after his Yankees debut, Mickey Mantle hits what is recognized as the game's first "tape-measure" home run, a 565-foot shot off the Senators' Chuck Stobbs at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

Oct. 5, 1953 - Billy Martin singles home the winning run in the fifth inning of a 4-3, Game 6 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. The win clinches the Yankees' fifth-consecutive World Championship.

Oct. 4, 1955 - Brooklyn's Johnny Podres outduels Yankees starter Tommy Byrne and two relievers, 2-0, clinching the Dodgers' first World Series Championship. The World Series loss snaps the Yankees' string of seven consecutive team appearances in the Fall Classic without losing a Series (1943, '47, '49-'53). It also marks the Yankees' first World Series loss to Brooklyn after wins in 1941, '47, '49, '52 and '53.

May 30, 1956 - Batting against Pedro Ramos in Game 2 of a doubleheader vs. Washington, Mickey Mantle nearly hits a home run out of Yankee Stadium, with the ball striking the upper deck frieze in right field.

Oct. 8, 1956 - Don Larsen hurls the only perfect game in World Series history, a 2-0 win over Brooklyn in Game 5 at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 10, 1956 - Johnny Kucks pitches a complete game shutout, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field, 9-0, to win Game 7 of the World Series.

April 22, 1959 - Whitey Ford pitches a 1-0, 14-inning complete game shutout at Washington, allowing just seven hits and striking out 15.

Oct. 1, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 61st home run in the season's final game, establishing a then-Major League record.

June 24, 1962 - Jack Reed's two-run, 22nd-inning home run ends the longest game in Yankees history, a 9-7 win at Detroit.

Oct. 16, 1962 - In Game 7 of the World Series, superb fielding from outfielder Roger Maris holds Matty Alou at third base after a two-out, ninth-inning Willie Mays double. Bobby Richardson then snares a screaming line drive off the bat of Willie McCovey for the game's final out, securing a 1-0, Series-clinching victory over the San Francisco Giants at Candlestick Park. New York scores the game's only run when Tony Kubek grounds into a fifth-inning double play. It would be the last championship for the Yankees for 15 seasons.

May 22, 1963 - In an 8-7, 11-inning win vs. the Kansas City A's, Mickey Mantle hits the upper deck frieze in right field for the second time in his career, this time off righthander Bill Fischer.

Nov. 2, 1964 - CBS purchases 80 percent of the Yankees for $11.2 million. The network later buys the remaining 20 percent.

May 14, 1967 - Mickey Mantle becomes only the sixth player—and second Yankee—to reach the 500 home run plateau, when he connects off Baltimore's Stu Miller at Yankee Stadium.

June 8, 1969 - "Mickey Mantle Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and his uniform No. 7 is retired.

June 24, 1970 - Bobby Murcer hits home runs in four consecutive at-bats over two games of a doubleheader vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 8, 1972 - The Yankees sign a 30-year lease to play in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. Completion is scheduled for 1976.

Jan. 3, 1973 - A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner III as its managing general partner, purchases the Yankees for a net price of $8.7 million from CBS.

April 6, 1974 - The Yankees begin the first of two seasons at Shea Stadium as Yankee Stadium is remodeled. The Yankees will go 90-69 at Shea over the two seasons (1974-75).

Dec. 31, 1974 - Free agent Catfish Hunter signs a then-record five-year contract.

Aug. 1, 1975 - Billy Martin replaces Bill Virdon for his first of five stints as manager.

April 15, 1976 - Remodeled Yankee Stadium opens with an 11-4 win over the Minnesota Twins. The Twins' Dan Ford hits the first home run.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter

April 17, 1976 - Thurman Munson hits the first homer by a Yankee in remodeled Yankee Stadium in a 10-0 win vs. the Minnesota Twins (off Jim Hughes).

Oct. 14, 1976 - Chris Chambliss' ninth-inning home run off Mark Littell in Game 5 of the ALCS vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium gives the Yankees their 30th AL pennant and first trip to the World Series since 1964.

Oct. 19, 1976 - In the first night World Series Game in Yankee Stadium history, the Yankees lose Game 3 to Cincinnati, 6-2.

Nov. 29, 1976 - Free agent Reggie Jackson signs a five-year contract.

Oct. 9, 1977 - The Yankees rally for one run in the eighth inning and three runs in the ninth for a 5-3, series-clinching win in the decisive Game 5 of the 1977 ALCS at Kansas City. Sparky Lyle earns the win for the second consecutive night, finishing the game with 1.1 scoreless innings on no rest following his scoreless 5.1-inning relief appearance at Kauffman Stadium in Game 4.

Sparky Lyle

Oct. 18, 1977 - Reggie Jackson hits three home runs (on three consecutive pitches) in Game 6 of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. He joins Babe Ruth as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

June 17, 1978 - Ron Guidry establishes a franchise record by striking out 18 batters in the Yankees' 4-0 win vs. California at Yankee Stadium.

July 24, 1978 - Billy Martin resigns as manager.

July 25, 1978 - Bob Lemon is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 29, 1978 - On Old-Timers' Day, the Yankees announce that Billy Martin will return as Yankees manager in 1980 and Bob Lemon will become General Manager.

Oct. 2, 1978 - The Yankees, 14.0 games behind Boston as late as July 19, defeat the Red Sox, 5-4, at Fenway Park in only the second one-game playoff in AL history. Bucky Dent's three-run, seventh-inning home run becomes one of the most memorable in Baseball history.

June 18, 1979 - Billy Martin returns as Yankees manager, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 2, 1979 - Yankees Captain Thurman Munson dies in a plane crash in Canton, Ohio, at age 32. His No. 15 is immediately retired.

Aug. 6, 1979 - After delivering a eulogy at Thurman Munson's funeral earlier that morning in Canton, Ohio, Bobby Murcer hits a three-run seventh-inning homer and a two-run ninth-inning single, accounting for all five of the Yankees' runs in an emotional 5-4 comeback win vs. Baltimore at Yankee Stadium.

Dec. 15, 1980 - Free agent Dave Winfield signs a then-record 10-year contract.

Sept. 6, 1981 - Bob Lemon is named manager for a second time, replacing Gene Michael.

April 26, 1982 - Gene Michael becomes manager for a second time, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 3, 1982 - Clyde King is named Yankees manager, replacing Gene Michael.

July 4, 1983 - Dave Righetti pitches the sixth regular season no-hitter in franchise history and the first since 1951 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. Righetti strikes out Wade Boggs for the final out.

July 24, 1983 - The Yankees and Kansas City play the infamous "Pine Tar" game at Yankee Stadium. George Brett hits a two-out, ninth-inning home run off Goose Gossage to give the Royals an apparent 5-4 lead. Manager Billy Martin points out that the pine tar on Brett's bat is above the allowable 18 inches and Brett is subsequently called out for using an illegal bat. The Yankees (temporarily) win 4-3 (see Aug. 18, 1983).

"The Pine Tar Game"

Aug. 18, 1983 - Kansas City's protest is upheld and play is resumed at Yankee Stadium from the point immediately after Brett's home run. Yankees pitcher Ron Guidry plays center field while lefthanded first baseman Don Mattingly plays second base. Royals' reliever Dan Quisenberry retires the Yankees in order in the bottom of the ninth for a 5-4 Royals win.

April 28, 1985 - Billy Martin is named manager for the fourth time, replacing Yogi Berra.

August 4, 1985 - The Yankees celebrate "Phil Rizzuto Day" at Yankee Stadium, dedicating a plaque in his honor and retiring his No. 10. The Yankees lose their scheduled game to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, as Tom Seaver wins his 300th career game.

Oct. 6, 1985 - Phil Niekro tosses a four-hit complete game shutout in an 8-0 victory at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium for his 300th career win.

Oct. 17, 1985 - Lou Piniella is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 18, 1987 - Don Mattingly homers off Texas' Jose Guzman to tie Dale Long's Major League record of hitting a home run in eight consecutive games (Mattingly hits 10 home runs during the streak).

Sept. 29, 1987 - Don Mattingly hits a grand slam off Boston's Bruce Hurst, setting a Major League record (tied by Travis Hafner in 2008) with six grand slams in a season.

June 23, 1988 - Billy Martin is replaced as manager of the Yankees for the fifth and final time. Lou Piniella is named manager for the second time.

Dec. 9, 1988 - The Yankees sign a 12-year television contract with the Madison Square Garden Network.

Dec. 25, 1989 - Billy Martin dies in an automobile accident at age 61.

Sept. 4, 1993 - Jim Abbott tosses a 4-0, no-hit win vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 13, 1995 - Mickey Mantle dies of cancer at age 63 in Dallas, Texas.

Sept. 6, 1995 - Lou Gehrig's Major League record of 2,130 consecutive games played is broken when Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. plays in his 2,131st.

Oct. 4, 1995 - The Yankees play the longest postseason game in their history, a 15-inning, 7-5 win over Seattle at Yankee Stadium, giving them a 2-0 series lead. The contest was the final Yankee Stadium game for Don Mattingly.

Nov. 2, 1995 - Joe Torre is named the 31st manager in franchise history.

Mar. 1, 1996 - The Yankees defeat the Cleveland Indians, 5-2, in the first ever game at Legends Field (renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field in 2008), the club's new spring training home.

May 14, 1996 - Dwight Gooden hurls the eighth regular season no-hitter in Yankees history, a 2-0 blanking of the Seattle Mariners at Yankee Stadium.

June 16, 1996 - Mel Allen, the legendary "Voice of the Yankees" from 1939-64, dies at age 83 in Greenwich, Connecticut.

Aug. 25, 1996 - A monument in honor of Mickey Mantle is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

Oct. 23, 1996 - In Game 4 of the World Series at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, Jim Leyritz hits an eighth inning, three-run, game-tying homer off the Braves' Mark Wohlers, knotting the game at 6-6. The Yankees would win, 8-6, in 10 innings.

Oct. 24, 1996 - The Yankees' Andy Pettitte (8.1IP) outduels Atlanta's John Smoltz (8.0IP), 1-0, in Game 5 in Atlanta, giving the Yankees a 3 games to 2 World Series lead.

Oct. 26, 1996 - In Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium, John Wetteland closes out a 3-2 win vs. Atlanta, giving the Yankees their first World Championship in 18 years.

Jan. 22, 1997 - Don Mattingly officially announces his retirement at a press conference at Yankee Stadium.

May 17, 1998 - David Wells tosses the first regular-season perfect game by a Yankee, the 14th in Baseball history.

David Wells' perfect game

Sept. 25, 1998 - The Yankees establish an American League record with their 112th win of the season (a 6-1 win vs. Tampa Bay at Yankee Stadium), breaking the mark of 111 by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (they complete the season with a then AL-record 114th victory on September 27 vs. Tampa Bay).

Oct. 21, 1998 - The Yankees complete an incredible season with a four-game World Series sweep of the San Diego Padres to capture the franchise's 24th World Championship. The 3-0 win gives the club a 125-50 record over the entire season (114-48 in the regular season, 11-2 in postseason).

March 8, 1999 - Joe DiMaggio dies at age 84 in Hollywood, Florida.

April 25, 1999 - A monument in honor of Joe DiMaggio is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park in front of a sold out Stadium and many of DiMaggio's former teammates. Paul Simon sings "Mrs. Robinson" while standing in center field.

July 18, 1999 - On "Yogi Berra Day," David Cone tosses the 15th regular season perfect game in Baseball history, one season after David Wells accomplishes the feat. Amazingly, Don Larsen—who tossed a perfect game in the 1956 World Series—throws out the ceremonial first pitch.

Oct. 27, 1999 - The Yankees play Baseball's last game of the century and complete a four-game sweep of the Atlanta Braves, capturing their 25th World Championship.

July 8, 2000 - The Yankees and Mets play their first-ever dual stadium day/night doubleheader: Game 1 is a 4-2 Yankees win at Shea Stadium and Game 2 is another 4-2 Yankees win at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 21, 2000 - The Yankees' World Series Game 1 win vs. the Mets at Yankee Stadium marks their 13th consecutive victory in World Series play, breaking the 12-game record of the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees.

Oct. 26, 2000 - The Yankees win World Series Game 5 over the Mets at Shea Stadium, clinching their third consecutive World Championship in the first "Subway Series" since 1956. It marks the first time a club has won three consecutive World Series titles since the 1972-74 Oakland Athletics.

Oct. 13, 2001 - With a 1-0 lead and two-out in the bottom of the seventh of Game 3 of the ALDS in Oakland, Derek Jeter picks up Shane Spencer's errant throw from the outfield and "flips" the ball in a backhand motion to Jorge Posada, who tags Jeremy Giambi for the final out of the inning. The Yankees go on to win the game, 1-0, and the series 3 games to 2. The play will be known as the "Flip Play."

Oct. 30, 2001 - President George W. Bush throws out the first pitch prior to the Yankees' 2-1 World Series Game 3 win vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 31, 2001 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, Tino Martinez's two-out, bottom-of-the-ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings. Shortly after the stroke of midnight, Derek Jeter wins the game with a "walk-off" solo home run in the 10th, earning him the nickname "Mr. November."

Nov. 1, 2001 - In the late innings of Game 5 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, fans serenade Paul O'Neill, who is playing in his last game at Yankee Stadium. Scott Brosius' two-out, bottom-of-the-ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings, and Alfonso Soriano singles in the winning run in the 12th.

May 17, 2002 - Jason Giambi becomes only the 21st player—and second Yankee—to hit a "walk-off" grand slam with his team trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/24/25). His 14th-inning slam off Minnesota's Mike Trombley erases a 12-9 Twins lead, giving the Yankees a 13-12 win.

June 13, 2003 - In a 5-2 win vs. the St. Louis Cardinals at Yankee Stadium, Roger Clemens records both his 300th career win and 4,000 career strikeouts (Edgar Renteria).

Oct. 16, 2003 - In Game 7 of the ALCS vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Aaron Boone becomes only the fifth player—and second Yankee—to end a postseason series with a "walk-off" home run (also Chris Chambliss, 1976 ALCS vs. Kansas City), when his 11th-inning leadoff solo shot (off Tim Wakefield) clinches the Yankees' 39th pennant.

July 1, 2004 - Derek Jeter makes his most famous catch, diving into Yankee Stadium's third base stands to nab a 12th-inning popup off the bat of Boston's Trot Nixon. John Flaherty wins the game with a 13th-inning RBI single.

Sept. 30, 2004 - Bernie Williams launches a "walk-off" home run against the Twins at Yankee Stadium, clinching the Yankees' seventh consecutive American League East crown.

April 26, 2005 - Alex Rodriguez hits three home runs (all off Bartolo Colon) and becomes just the second Yankee in franchise history to record at least 10 RBIs in a single game (also Tony Lazzari, 11 on 5/24/36) in a 12-4 win vs. the Angels at Yankee Stadium.

June 8, 2005 - Alex Rodriguez hits two home runs at Milwaukee, becoming the youngest player in Major League history to reach the 400-homer plateau.

Groundbreaking ceremony for the new Yankee Stadium

June 15, 2005 - The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium to be constructed in Macombs Dam and John Mullaly Parks, which are located on the north side of 161st Street (adjacent to the original Stadium's longtime site).

Sept. 25, 2005 - The Yankees conclude their 81-game home schedule at Yankee Stadium with a season attendance of 4,090,696, establishing a single-season American League record. They become only the third franchise in sports history to reach the 4 million mark, joining the Toronto Blue Jays (1991-93) and Colorado Rockies (1993). The Yankees will subsequently break their home attendance mark in each of the next three seasons (2006-08).

May 16, 2006 - The Yankees tie a franchise record by overcoming a nine-run deficit vs. Texas to win, 14-13, in nine innings. Jorge Posada hits a two-run "walk-off" home run off Akinori Otsuka.

Aug. 16, 2006 - The Yankees break ground for a new Yankee Stadium, scheduled to be ready for Opening Day 2009.

Aug. 4, 2007 - Alex Rodriguez becomes the 22nd and youngest (32 years, 8 days) player in Baseball history to reach the 500-home run mark in a 16-8 win vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium. He is the third player to hit his 500th career homer as a Yankee, joining Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle.

Oct. 30, 2007 - Joe Girardi is named the 32nd manager in Yankees franchise history.

March 27, 2008 - Prior to the Yankees' final home exhibition game of spring training, Legends Field is renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field.

June 7, 2008 - Johnny Damon goes 6-for-6 in the Yankees' 12-11 win vs. Kansas City, matching the franchise record for hits in a nine-inning game (see June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag) and becoming the only Yankee in original Yankee Stadium history to record six hits in a game of any length. Damon's final hit is a "walk-off" single.

September 16, 2008 - Derek Jeter singles off Chicago's Gavin Floyd in the first inning for his 1,270th career hit at Yankee Stadium, surpassing Lou Gehrig for the most all-time hits at the ballpark. Jeter finishes the game 2-for-3 in the 6-2 loss.

September 21, 2008 - The Yankees play their last ever game in the original Yankee Stadium. Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, throws out the ceremonial first pitch, and Jose Molina hits the park's final home run in the fourth inning. Following the Yankees' 7-3 win over Baltimore, Derek Jeter thanks the fans over the Stadium public address system.

September 28, 2008 - On the final day of the season in the first game of a doubleheader at Boston's Fenway Park, Mike Mussina records his 20th win of the year, becoming the oldest pitcher in Major League history to win 20 games for the first time.

November 8, 2008 - Local Bronx high school youth groups are joined by Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jeff Nelson and Paul O'Neill of the Yankees' 1998 World Championship team and Yankees General Partner and Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal in removing home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Yankee Stadium, then installing them in the new Yankee Stadium.

History of Original Yankee Stadium

One year after changing the course of Baseball history with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another acquisition that would forever alter the way the game was watched.

On February 5, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release announcing the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Manhattan-situated Polo Grounds, which the Yankees had been unhappily sharing with their landlord, the New York Giants of the National League, since 1913.

The relationship between the clubs crumbled after the 1920 season when the Yankees' attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to almost 1.3 million, approximately 25 percent more than that of the Giants. In 1921, the Giants asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankees co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans by the architect—the Osborn Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield, as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot-high copper frieze would adorn the front of the roof, which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium a stately dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor left-handed power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (though the right-field fence would shoot out to 429 feet in right-center). The left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, but right-handed hitters would be neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 feet to left-center. The new stadium would also be patron-friendly, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stands and bleachers." (After the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from Midtown Manhattan and relocated between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them with the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Company on May 5, 1922, with the edict that the job be completed "at a definite price" of $2.5 million by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Philip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field, where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win.

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, New York Evening Telegram sportswriter Fred Lieb dubbed it "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series, as the Yankees won their first World Championship, defeating their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the Stadium became the stage for a staggering number of world titles—which now total 26—it would also become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope rose toward the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Advertising signs lined the tops of the bleachers except in right-center, where a lone manually operated wooden scoreboard was large enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues. Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil Baseball's first electronic message board in 1959.

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major face-lift. The triple-decked grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole to its current termination point, and several rows of box seats were removed in order to extend the left-field foul pole distance to 301 feet. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing for "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the grandstand expansion, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced with a concrete structure, and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-distant 461 feet.

In 1932, the Yankees began their tradition of commemorating their heroes with monuments or plaques when they dedicated a monument to Manager Miller Huggins, who had died suddenly during the 1929 season. Five more monuments have since been added (one each for Lou Gehrig, Ruth,

Yankee Stadium in the 1920s

Mickey Mantle and Joe DiMaggio and one to honor the victims and heroes of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001) along with numerous plaques. For years, existing monuments were in the field of play in deep center field, and outfielders occasionally had to work around them to retrieve baseballs hit to that part of the park.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium remained relatively the same until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of the Yankees' new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5 million modernization, most of which was spent on 90 tons of paint. The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the timeworn greenish copper frieze. Also, all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York, which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-anniversary season in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while the majority of the Stadium was torn down and rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization was the removal of the numerous obstructive steel columns that supported the second and third decks, as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans were dramatically improved. Capacity was reduced from 65,010 in 1973 to 54,028 upon reopening as wider plastic seats replaced wooden seats.

Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the copper frieze. However, an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the frieze atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard wall, which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board also included Baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, too, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. With seven additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already grand Stadium received an even more majestic look. A 138-foot Louisville Slugger-shaped smokestack, commonly called "The Bat," was added outside the Stadium near the home-plate entrance.

The renovated Stadium also saw the mammoth fence distances in left and center field greatly reduced as "Death Valley" in left-center was brought in from 457 feet to 430 feet, and straightaway center field was slimmed from 463 feet to 417 feet. Subsequent alterations prior to the 1985 and 1988 seasons have brought fences in to the configuration that remains today.

The remodeled Yankee Stadium opened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota, 11-4. Like its predecessor, it hosted the World Series in its inaugural season. In fact, the remodeled Stadium hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons, as the Yankees followed their 1976 Series loss to Cincinnati by winning back-to-back World Series titles in 1977 and 1978 over the Dodgers.

As one of the world's most prestigious addresses, Yankee Stadium has also been the home for scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or in the offseason, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendlar for the lightweight title just three months after the gates opened on July 23, 1923. When Muhammad Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, it marked the 30th championship fight at the Stadium. All previous title bouts had taken place between 1923 and 1959—perhaps none more memorable than the June 22, 1938, heavyweight championship match between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO in the rematch.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with the 1923 Army-Navy game inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and later professional football matchups. On November 12, 1928, with Notre Dame and Army locked in a scoreless game at halftime, the legendary Knute Rockne made his famous "Win One for the Gipper" pep talk, and the Fighting Irish went on to defeat the Cadets, 12-6.

The New York football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and on December 28, 1958, played in what is widely recognized as "The Greatest Game Ever Played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game, 17-17, on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed into the end zone from the 1-yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions, especially those of the Jehovah's Witnesses. In 1950, the group began holding conventions at the Stadium, including one that drew 123,707 people on August 8, 1958—the largest single-day event in Stadium history. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium held the first-ever Papal Mass in the United States as Pope Paul VI celebrated Mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Pope John Paul II also celebrated Mass at Yankee Stadium on October 2, 1979, during his tour of the United States.

On August 16, 2006, a groundbreaking ceremony was held for a new Yankee Stadium to be ready for the 2009 season. The location chosen for the new building was the north side of 161st Street and River Avenue in the Bronx, directly across the street from the site of the original Stadium.

As part of its final season in 2008, Yankee Stadium hosted a third papal visit on April 20 from Pope Benedict XVI, NYU's commencement ceremony on May 14 (believed to be the first ever college commencement in Stadium history) and a 15-inning 4-3 AL victory in the 2008 All-Star Game on July 15 (the fourth at Yankee Stadium, joining Midsummer Classics in 1939, 1960-Game 2, and 1977).

The building took its final bow on September 21, when the Yankees played the last game in Stadium history. Gates opened at 1:00 p.m., allowing approximately 13,000 fans the opportunity to visit Monument Park and walk around the warning track. With a national Sunday night audience watching on television, all-time Yankees greats, along with the evening's starting lineup, took their positions in the field before Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, tossed out the ceremonial first pitch. Fittingly, the game ended in a Yankees victory, this one over the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3. After the final out, the club assembled by the pitcher's mound at the side of captain Derek Jeter. Over the PA, he thanked the crowd for their years of support, while reminding everyone of the new memories soon to be made.

IN THE BOTTOM of the seventh inning of the Yankees' final home game on September 21, 2008, a taped valedictory was given on the Yankee Stadium video board by longtime public address announcer Bob Sheppard, who was unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover at home from an illness that had kept him away from the Stadium for the entire season. His appearance on screen brought a reverential hush to the crowd as everyone recognized they were about to hear the most perfect of all couplings perhaps for the last time—Bob Sheppard's voice reverberating in the original Yankee Stadium. He said the following:

DiMaggio, Mantle,

Gehrig and Ruth,

A baseball cathedral in truth."

Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day - July 4, 1939

Prior to the Yankees' May 2, 1939, game at Detroit's Briggs Stadium, captain Lou Gehrig gave the umpires his team's lineup card—which did not have his name on it. He watched the entire game from the bench, marking the end of his 2,130-consecutive-games-played streak. "The Iron Horse" was suffering the effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), a disease since known as Lou Gehrig's Disease. He would never play again.

Just over two months later, on July 4, 1939, Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day was held in front of approximately 62,000 fans in Yankee Stadium. Ceremonies were held between games of a doubleheader against the Washington Senators. Gehrig and his teammates were joined by members of the 1927 Yankees. After speeches by Mayor Fiorello La Guardia and Postmaster James A. Farley, Manager Joe McCarthy said his public goodbye to Gehrig: "Lou, what can I say except that it was a sad day in the life of everybody who knew you when you came to my hotel room that day in Detroit and told me you were quitting as a ballplayer because you felt yourself a hindrance to the team.

"My God, man, you were never that."

Various gifts were presented to Gehrig from club employees and the rival New York Giants. His teammates gave him a trophy, which was inscribed with a poem by New York Times writer John Kiernan. As the crowd chanted, "We want Lou; We want Lou..." Gehrig stepped to the microphone to deliver one of the most touching and oft-quoted speeches in American history.

"Fans, for the past two weeks you have been reading about the bad break I got. Yet today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the Earth. I have been in ballparks for 17 years and have never received anything but kindness and encouragement from you fans.

"Look at these grand men. Which of you wouldn't consider it the highlight of his career just to associate with them for even one day? Sure, I'm lucky. Who wouldn't consider it an honor to have known Jacob Ruppert? Also, the builder of baseball's greatest empire, Ed Barrow? To have spent six years with that wonderful little fellow, Miller Huggins? Then to have spent the next nine years with that outstanding leader, that smart student of psychology, the best manager in baseball today, Joe McCarthy? Sure, I'm lucky.

"When the New York Giants, a team you would give your right arm to beat, and vice versa, sends you a gift—that's something. When everybody down to the groundskeepers and those boys in white coats remember you with trophies—that's something. When you have a wonderful mother-in-law who takes sides with you in squabbles with her own daughter—that's something. When you have a father and a mother who work all their lives so you can have an education and build your body—it's a blessing. When you have a wife who has been a tower of strength and shown more courage than you dreamed existed—that's the finest I know.

"So I close in saying that I might have been given a bad break, but I've got an awful lot to live for."

During the ceremony, Gehrig had his No. 4 retired by the Yankees, becoming the first person in sports to be given such an honor. To this day he remains the only Yankee ever to wear the number.

Gehrig died on June 2, 1941, at his home in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. He was 37.

Babe Ruth Day - April 27, 1947

On April 27, 1947,

Babe Ruth Day was celebrated throughout Major League Baseball, as the Babe said goodbye in an on-field ceremony at Yankee Stadium. Dressed in a topcoat and hat, Ruth, weakened by throat cancer, made the following remarks:

"Thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen. You know how bad my voice sounds—well it feels just as bad.

"You know this baseball game of ours comes up from the youth. That means the boys. And after you're a boy and grow up to know how to play ball, then you come to the boys you see representing themselves today in your national pastime. The only real game—I think—in the world is baseball.

"As a rule, some people think if you give them a football, or a baseball, or something like that—naturally they're athletes right away. But you can't do that in baseball. You've gotta start from way down [at] the bottom, when you're 6 or 7 years of age. You can't wait until you're 15 or 16. You gotta let it grow up with you. And if you're successful, and you try hard enough, you're bound to come out on top—just like these boys have come to the top now.

"There has been so many lovely things said about me, and I'm glad that I've had the opportunity to thank everybody. Thank you."

Ruth returned to Yankee Stadium once more, on June 13, 1948, to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Yankee Stadium and have his uniform No. 3 retired.

He died on Aug. 16, 1948, at Memorial Hospital in New York at age 53. His body lay in state at the entrance of Yankee Stadium on Aug. 17 and 18, before his funeral on Aug. 19 at New York's St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Bob Sheppard "The Voice of Yankee Stadium"

With a voice that is as much a part of going to Yankee Stadium as the game itself, Bob Sheppard enters the 59th season since his first game as public address announcer. The "Voice of Yankee Stadium" began his tenure on April 17, 1951—Opening Day of Joe DiMaggio's final season. To commemorate his legendary service to the club, the Yankees have named the media dining room in the new Yankee Stadium "Sheppard's Place."

Born in Ridgewood, Queens, and later moving within the borough to Richmond Hills, Sheppard attended St. John's College, which eventually became St. John's University. Always a talented athlete, he received a full athletic scholarship to the school, playing quarterback on the football team all four years. He later enrolled at Columbia University, where he received his master's degree in speech and worked his way up from teacher-in-training to substitute teacher to permanent teacher to department chairman. In order to supplement his teaching salary, Sheppard played semiprofessional football on Sundays in Long Island with the Valley Stream Red Riders and the Hempstead Monitors, earning $25 a game.

By the time World War II broke out, Sheppard was married with three small children, and he sought out a position as a naval officer to best provide for his family. He finished a two-year tour of duty and was released from his military commitment with honor. He returned to teaching as chairman of the speech department at John Adams High School in Ozone Park, Queens, where he stayed for 25 years.

Sheppard's incredible career behind the microphone started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island, in the late 1940s. An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game. He liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after only one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York football Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered him their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees then heard him and offered him the same role for them for the 1950 season. But Sheppard's teaching schedule could not accommodate the 77-game home schedule for baseball (plus World Series games), and he turned down the offer.

"You must remember that in those days there were a lot of afternoon games," Sheppard said. "It was just not possible to do both things."

But the Yankees were persistent and again offered the PA job to Sheppard for the 1951 season with one attractive addition. The Yankees would allow Sheppard to hire a replacement for any games he would have to miss. The rest, as they say, is history.

"A temporary job," Sheppard said, "that has lasted a half century."

Among the approximately 4,500 baseball games he has worked are an incredible 121 consecutive postseason contests (1951-2006), including 62 games in 22 World Series. Additionally, Sheppard was the public address voice for the football Giants for 50 seasons—from their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956 until his retirement after the 2005 season. Some of the events he lists as the most memorable of his incredible career are: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game 6 of the World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL

Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium, the New York Cosmos (soccer) and St. John's University basketball and football. Sheppard also handled PA duties for five Army-Navy football games in Philadelphia.

Over the years, the eloquent linguist has also written and delivered hundreds of moving tributes and eulogies to departed legends ranging from Mickey Mantle (1995) and Joe DiMaggio (1999) to those lost in the attacks of September 11, 2001, to Ray Charles (2004) and former President Ronald Reagan (2004).

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ballclub. He was even honored with a ceremonial first pitch before Game 2 of the 1998 World Series at Yankee Stadium (he recorded his own introduction). And, during his 50th season as the Yankees' PA announcer in 2000, he presented his most-recent Yankee Stadium microphone to the Baseball Hall of Fame during induction ceremonies in Cooperstown, N.Y.

In one of the game's truly memorable moments, Sheppard introduced President George W. Bush before Game 3 of the 2001 World Series (on October 30) as Mr. Bush became the first sitting President to throw out a ceremonial first pitch at Yankee Stadium.

On September 21, 2008, he provided a valedictory in the bottom of the seventh inning of the final game at Yankee Stadium. Unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover from illness that had kept him away from the Stadium for the entire season, Sheppard gave his tribute through a taped segment played on the video board. He recited, "Farewell, old Yankee Stadium, farewell / What a wonderful story you can tell / DiMaggio, Mantle, Gehrig and Ruth / A baseball cathedral in truth."

The native New Yorker has been elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame. He has been awarded honorary doctorates from St. John's University (Pedagogy) and Fordham University (Rhetoric), and in 2007, received St. John's' Medal of Honor, the highest award that the university can confer on a graduate.

Sheppard has also made cameo appearances in numerous motion pictures and television shows, including *61, It's My Turn, It Could Happen to You, Anger Management, Seinfeld and Mad About You.

"Most men go to work, but I go to a game," Sheppard said. "How many men would love to do that?"

He resides on Long Island with his wife, Mary. They have four children, four grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Voices Before Sheppard

Hard to believe, but Bob Sheppard was not the only Public Address Announcer in the original Yankee Stadium's fabled history. But no one—not even Sheppard himself—could remember who immediately preceded the current Stadium P.A. announcer behind the microphone. After all, the last game by this mystery man would have been 58 years ago, probably the fourth and final game of the 1950 World Series between the Yankees and Philadelphia's "Whiz Kids" Phillies.

But, after years of search and research, the answer may have turned up in the transcript of an interview conducted in 1991 by writer Paul Doherty with Don Carney, the producer-director of Yankees telecasts for more than three decades.

Extolling Sheppard's longevity, Carney told Doherty that "Bob's been around forever. He followed Red Patterson, who was the club's Public Relations Director and also did the P.A."

Carney's words give not only the answer but may also explain the mystery. Sheppard's predecessor was widely but anonymously quoted in the newspapers for an infamous gaffe he made during a Yankees-Philadelphia Athletics game on May 31, 1946. "Will the spectators in the front row please remove their clothing..." he began, with the rest of his announcement: "from the front railing," drowned out by the crowd's laughter.

The story got into the papers, but the identity of the speaker did not. Of course, it didn't. The writers didn't want to embarrass their main conduit for information about the club!

Additional research shows that Yankee Stadium was the last ballpark in the Majors to install a public-address system. It debuted in Game 3 of the 1936 World Series and was manned by Jack Lenz and George Levy, two veterans of the time when information was still relayed to the crowd by megaphone.

The careers of Lenz and Levy began in 1915 when the Yankees and Giants shared the Polo Grounds. When the Yankees hopped across the Harlem River in 1923, Levy stayed with the Giants while Lenz took the Yankee post. "I grabbed the offer," Lenz said. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

To do his job, Lenz sat in a box alongside the Yankees dugout (then on the third-base side of Yankee Stadium) and shouted the batting orders and batteries (each team's pitcher and catcher) as well as the changes throughout the game. Unlike today, players were not announced each time they came to bat and Lenz was called upon only when a change was made.

According to a feature article which appeared in the New York Evening News in the early 1930s to celebrate a career of more than 2,000 consecutive games, Lenz—the "mild-mannered megaphone man"—would receive the lineups and batting orders from both managers approximately 15 minutes before the start of the game (3:15 p.m. in those days). After telephoning the press box with the "necessary dope," Lenz would pick up his megaphone and shout the batting orders and batteries. He directed his voice first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand and again to the lower stands.

Due to the vast size of their new ballpark, the Yankees actually began the 1927 season with two public address announcers to service Yankee Stadium. After the idea proved successful before a crowd of more than 65,000 on Opening Day, the "two-ply announcer system" of Lenz and Levy was used again for the second game when the crowd was only about 7,000. The experiment was likely short lived.

Previous Homes of the Yankees

Hilltop Park

American League Park (commonly known as Hilltop Park) was the Yankees' first home. Hastily constructed in just six weeks on one of the highest points in Upper Manhattan, the all-wooden ballpark sat on a block bounded by Broadway, 165th Street, Fort Washington Avenue and 168th Street, in close proximity to the New York Giants' 155th Street home, the Polo Grounds. The first game at Hilltop Park was played on April 30, 1903—a 6-2 win over Washington, started by Hall of Famer Jack Chesbro.

The ballpark had a covered grandstand ringing the infield from first base to third base and uncovered bleachers running up the foul lines. There was seating for approximately 15,000 people, but as was the case in many ballparks of that time, it could accommodate overflow crowds both in the outfield and along foul ground in the infield, occasionally bringing capacity up toward 25,000.

When a fire ravaged the Polo Grounds on April 14, 1911, the Yankees allowed the Giants to play their home games at Hilltop Park until the Polo Grounds could be rebuilt. From April 15 through May 30, the Giants put together a 20-8 record at their temporary home.

The Yankees were successful in their 10 years at Hilltop Park, compiling a 398-342 all-time record there. The club's final game at the structure came on October 5, 1912—an 8-6 win vs. Washington. After the Yankees' lease at Hilltop Park expired at the end of the season, they decided to leave the rickety ballpark to become renters at the Polo Grounds, where the Giants became their landlords. The move, unthinkable years earlier, was facilitated by the Yankees' post-fire hospitality.

In 1914, Hilltop Park was torn down. Currently, its former location is the site of Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

Hilltop Park (above/below) served as the Yankees' first home. It was built in just six weeks and was located near Broadway and 168th Street in Upper Manhattan.

The Polo Grounds, located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, served as the home of the Yankees from 1913-22.

Polo Grounds

The Yankees called the Polo Grounds home from 1913 through 1922, sharing the park with the New York Giants. Located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, the Polo Grounds was overlooked by a promontory called Coogan's Bluff to the west. To the east was the Harlem River—on the other side of which Yankee Stadium was built in 1923.

The Polo Grounds was constructed with straight sides, and the outfield fences by the foul poles ran parallel to each other and away from home plate. The foul poles in left and right were approximately 277 and 258 feet away from the plate, respectively, while left-center, center and right fields were all in the range of 445-483 feet away from home.

The Yankees compiled a 416-338 all-time regular season record at the uniquely-shaped facility, winning the first two pennants in franchise history while tenants in 1921 and 1922. The club lost both of those World Series to the NL Champion Giants—5 games to 3 in 1921 and 4 games to none with one tie in 1922—in Fall Classics played entirely at the Polo Grounds.

The American Leaguers were welcome tenants as long as they remained less popular than the Giants. But with Babe Ruth's arrival in 1920 and the team's subsequent success, the dynamic quickly changed. After the Yankees started outdrawing the Giants in their own park in 1920 and 1921, the National Leaguers asked the Pinstripers to vacate to a new facility as soon as possible. The 1922 season marked their final season in Manhattan before their April 18, 1923, Yankee Stadium debut in the Bronx.

The Polo Grounds remained home to the Giants until they moved to San Francisco in 1958. It stood empty until 1962 when the Mets arrived to play two seasons there before moving into Shea Stadium. In 1964, the Polo Grounds was demolished. Apartment buildings called the Polo Grounds Towers occupy the site today.

Monument Park

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the dedication of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932, the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed: in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Ed Barrow (1954) and two great Yankees center fielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (1969). After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument in his honor on August 25, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio—who passed away less than two months earlier—was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument. (The two plaques which previously honored DiMaggio and Mantle were donated by the Yankees to the Yogi Berra Museum and Learning Center in Montclair, N.J.).

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flagpole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track approximately 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the baseball.

One tradition of Yankee Stadium before it was remodeled was the policy of allowing fans to exit through the center-field gates via the warning track, where they could pause and reflect on the achievements of these honored legends. After Yankee Stadium was remodeled in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankees' and visitors' bullpens. Additionally, fans were no longer allowed to exit via the warning track, and viewing Monument Park was only possible at a great distance.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980s, plaques were dedicated to Yankees greats Thurman Munson (1980), Elston Howard and Roger Maris (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Whitey Ford and Lefty Gomez (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). Two recent plaques were dedicated to non-uniformed Yankees legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen (1998); and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public-address announcer Bob Sheppard (2000). Yankees greats Don Mattingly (1997), Reggie Jackson (2002), Ron Guidry (2003) and Red Ruffing (2004) are the most recent Bombers to be honored with plaques in Monument Park. Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated by the Knights of Columbus, and a plaque commemorating the New York Yankees' interlocking "NY" insignia was placed on the floor among the stonework of the park's entrance in 2001. The most recent plaque was dedicated in 2008 following the visit of Pope Benedict XVI.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence was moved in, the Yankees were able to open Monument Park for up-close fan viewing. By 1988, long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the area. A special walkway was added with an exhibit honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

In a pregame ceremony on Sept. 11, 2002, the Yankees dedicated a monument in remembrance of the victims and heroes of the 9/11 tragedy. It was the sixth monument dedicated in Yankee Stadium and the first to non-Yankees personnel.

In all, there are six monuments (five for Yankees players or managers and one to commemorate 9/11) and 24 plaques (16 Yankees players or managers, two for Yankees owner/executives, two for public-address/broadcasting personnel, three for papal visit commemorations and one related to the Yankees insignia).

Beginning in 2009, in Yankee Stadium, Monument Park will be located just behind the centerfield fence and will continue to be accessible to fans.

We Remember
On September 11, 2001, despicable acts of terrorism were perpetrated on our country.

In tribute to the eternal spirit of the innocent victims of these crimes and to the selfless courage shown by both public servants and private citizens, we dedicate this plaque.

These valiant souls, with unfettered resolve, exemplify the true

Yankees in Cooperstown

There are 48 members of the Baseball Hall of Fame that have played, managed or been an executive for the New York Yankees at one time or another. The Yankees' first inductee was Babe Ruth, who entered the Hall in its inaugural 1936 class along with Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson and Honus Wagner. The Yankees' most recent inductees are Joe Gordon and Rickey Henderson, who will be formally enshrined in Cooperstown on July 26, 2009.

Currently, the choice of which insignia appears on the cap of each Hall of Famer's plaque belongs to the Hall of Fame itself. The decision is based on the "historical accomplishments" of the player and "where that player makes his most indelible mark" (though the wishes of the inductee are always considered). It is important to remember that caps have not always had insignias and some players' images are cast as profiles without visible insignias.

* Information listed below each photo includes name of Hall of Famer, primary career position, year inducted, years with Yankees, number of games played with Yankees and insignia on Hall of Fame cap.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's No. 4 in 1939, the Yankees have retired 15 uniform numbers to honor 16 players and managers.

1 Billy Martin (Number retired in 1986)
Born: May 16, 1928 in Berkeley, Calif. • Died: Dec. 25, 1989 in Binghamton, N.Y.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: R/R

Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes, and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an integral part in four World Series in the 1950s as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime series batting average is sixth with at least 75 AB on the all-time series list. Combative and daring, Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankees history.

3 Babe Ruth (Number retired in 1948)
Born: Feb. 6, 1895 in Baltimore, Md. • Died: Aug. 16, 1948 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 215 • B/T: L/L

Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American League team. En route to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World Championships. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

4 Lou Gehrig (Number retired in 1939)
Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, N.Y. • Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, N.Y.
Height: 6-1 • Weight: 212 • B/T: L/L

Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games between 1925 and 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939, and made memorable, "Today, I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 motion picture, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939.

5 Joe DiMaggio (Number retired in 1952)
Born: Nov. 25, 1914 in Martinez, Calif. • Died: March 8, 1999 in Hollywood, Fla.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 193 • B/T: R/R

The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, and a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder. Owned a powerful and accurate arm, and was a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. A two-time batting champion and three-time MVP, he powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 Mickey Mantle (Number retired in 1969)
Born: Oct. 20, 1931 in Spavinaw, Okla. • Died: Aug. 14, 1995 in Dallas, Tex.
Height: 6-0 • Weight: 201 • B/T: S/R

"The Mick" was the most feared hitter on some of the most successful teams in history. Could run like the wind and hit tape measure homers, like his famous 565-footer in Washington in 1953. In the 14 seasons between 1951 and 1964, he led the Yanks to 12 Fall Classics and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs and walks in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate, hitting 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Mantle was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

8 Yogi Berra (Number retired in 1972)
Born: May 12, 1925 in St. Louis, Mo.
Height: 5-8 • Weight: 191 • B/T: L/R

A mainstay behind the plate for some of the most dominating teams in history from the end of World War II until the early 1960s. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player Awards. Was selected to play in the All-Star Game in 15 successive seasons (1948-62). Played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led the Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

8 Bill Dickey (Number retired in 1972)
 Born: June 6, 1907 in Bastrop, La. • Died: Nov. 12, 1993 in Little Rock, Ark.
 Height: 6-1 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/R

Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American League record. In 1931, he did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 full seasons, while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankees pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

9 Roger Maris (Number retired in 1984)
 Born: Sept. 10, 1934 in Hibbing, Minn. • Died: Dec. 14, 1985 in Houston, Tex.
 Height: 6-0 • Weight: 197 • B/T: L/R

In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's famous home run record of 60. Maris hit 61 home runs in 1961, a Major League record which stood until 1998 and is still the American League mark. The two-time American League MVP (1960-61) is also considered as one of the best-fielding right fielders in Yankees history.

10 Phil Rizzuto (Number retired in 1985)
 Born: Sept. 25, 1917 in New York, N.Y. • Died: Aug. 13, 2007 in West Orange, N.J.
 Height: 5-6 • Weight: 150 • B/T: R/R

Playing 13 years for the Yankees, "Scooter" went to nine World Series. That stat may best explain why the diminutive shortstop is regarded as a true Yankees legend. He was durable, a skilled bunter and an enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 career batting average. In 1950, Rizzuto earned the AL MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 walks and 125 runs scored. He batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series MVP. He also spent 40 years as a Yankees broadcaster (1957-96) and was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

15 Thurman Munson (Number retired in 1979)
 Born: June 7, 1947 in Akron, Ohio • Died: Aug. 2, 1979 in Canton, Ohio
 Height: 5-11 • Weight: 190 • B/T: R/R

Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on Yankees teams that won three consecutive AL pennants (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75). From 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each season. He hit the first Yankees home run in remodeled Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankees history than August 2, 1979, when Munson passed away in a plane crash.

16 Whitey Ford (Number retired in 1974)
 Born: Oct. 21, 1928 in New York, N.Y.
 Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

"The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on great Yankees teams of the 1950s and early '60s. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best winning percentage (.690) of any left-handed pitcher in the 20th century with 100 or more wins. He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

23 Don Mattingly (Number retired in 1997)
 Born: April 20, 1961 in Evansville, Ill.
 Height: 6-0 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/L

"Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain to be named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6) and most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

32 Elston Howard (Number retired in 1984)

Born: Feb. 23, 1929 in St. Louis, Mo. • Died: Dec. 14, 1980 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 196 • B/T: R/R

Became the first black player in Yankees history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of AL pennant-winning Yankees teams in nine of his first 10 seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field set a powerful example for his teammates.

37 Casey Stengel (Number retired in 1970)

Born: July 30, 1889 in Kansas City, Mo. • Died: Sept. 29, 1975 in Glendale, Calif.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 175 • B/T: L/L

In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Perfessor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as one of the top managerial accomplishments of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of Baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.

44 Reggie Jackson (Number retired in 1993)

Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career home runs, good for 11th place on Baseball's all-time list. In Game 6 of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.

49 Ron Guidry (Number retired in 2003)

Born: Aug. 28, 1950 in Lafayette, La.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: L/L

Known as "Louisiana Lightning," Ron Guidry was a four-time American League All-Star and three-time 20-game winner. He compiled one of the most dominating seasons in Baseball history in 1978, going 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA. He led the Yankees to a dramatic comeback from 14.0 games behind the Boston Red Sox to capture their second straight World Championship. That season, he also compiled a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the American League's Cy Young Award winner. On June 17, 1978 vs. California at Yankee Stadium, Guidry struck out 18 Angels, breaking the club's single-game record. With Willie Randolph, he served as the Yankees' co-captain from 1986 through his retirement in 1989. He remains in the Top 10 on the Yankees' all-time list in games pitched (368), innings pitched (2392.0), wins (170), winning percentage (.651), strikeouts (1778) and shutouts (26).

In November 2008, Monument Park was disassembled and packaged for the move from the original Stadium to the new Yankee Stadium across the street.

All-Time Roster

In the Yankees' 106 seasons in the American League, 1,442 players have appeared in at least one game.

Yankees by the Numbers

In 1929, the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians became the first teams to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees' roster was made according to the player's spot in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1, Mark Koenig No. 2, Babe Ruth No. 3, Lou Gehrig No. 4, Bob Meusel No. 5, Tony Lazzeri No. 6, Leo Durocher No. 7, Johnny Grabowski No. 8, Benny Bengough No. 9, Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties). After some exhaustive research, the Yankees' Media Relations staff compiled the following list of Yankees uniform numbers. The list represents uniform numbers worn by players, coaches (c) and managers (m) on Yankees' active regular-season rosters. Numbers that have since been retired by the Yankees are denoted by boldface text.

Yogi Berra congratulates Roger Maris on hitting his 61st home run on Oct. 1, 1961.

60th Anniversary of the 1949 World Champion Yankees

The 2009 season marks the 60th anniversary of the Yankees' 1949 World Championship season. In his first year as manager, Casey Stengel led the team to a dramatic comeback for the American League title. With two games left to play in the regular season, the Yankees erased a one-game deficit to overtake the Boston Red Sox and win the pennant. The Yankees went on to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers in the World Series for the 12th championship in team history and their second in three years over the Dodgers. It marked the beginning of what would become the first of five consecutive World Series titles won by the Yankees from 1949 through 1953, and the first of seven titles won overall under Stengel (also 1956, '58).

Yankees to Hit for the Cycle

Ten Yankees have hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and home run in the same game) 14 times. Tony Fernandez was the last Yankee to accomplish the feat, performing the act on Sept. 3, 1995 vs. Oakland at Yankee Stadium. He was the first Yankee to hit for the cycle since Bobby Murcer on Aug. 29, 1972 (G1) vs. Texas at Yankee Stadium. The last player to hit for the cycle vs. New York was Detroit's Travis Fryman on July 28, 1993 at Tiger Stadium. It was the first cycle vs. the Yankees since the L.A. Angels Jim Fregosi did it on July 28, 1964.

Cone's Perfect Game

On July 18, 1999, David Cone tossed only the 15th perfect game in Baseball history (since 1901) on a day Don Larsen was on hand to throw out the game's ceremonial first pitch. It came only one season after David Wells accomplished the feat and gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, including Don Larsen in the 1956 World Series. Prior to Wells' and Cone's, perfect games had only been pitched in consecutive seasons once (by Jim Bunning of the Phillies in 1964 and the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax in 1965) and never by pitchers from the same team. Yankee Stadium also became the only park to host as many as three perfect games (Dodger Stadium was the site of perfect games by Koufax in 1965 and Montreal's Dennis Martinez in 1991).

David Cone celebrates with Joe Girardi.

Mike Mussina

The most-recent one-hitter by a Yankees pitcher was thrown by Ted Lilly on 4/27/02 at Seattle (Lilly became the first Yankee pitcher ever to lose a one-hitter in the regular season)...the Yankees' last complete-game one-hit win was by Mike Mussina on 9/2/01 vs. the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park in a 1-0 Yankees' victory...it was Mussina's fourth career complete game one-hitter, tying Randy Johnson for most one-hitters among active pitchers...he retired 26 consecutive batters before Carl Everett singled with two outs in the ninth...it was the first complete-game one-hitter by a Yankee since Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California in a 5-0 Yankee win...the Yankees last authored a combined one-hitter on 6/30/06 vs. the Mets at Yankee Stadium, when five pitchers, led by Mike Mussina (also Ron Villone, Scott Proctor, Kyle Farnsworth and Mariano Rivera), limited the Mets to a sixth-inning single by Endy Chavez off Villone in a 2-0 victory.

Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled three CG one-hitters for New York and both men participated in a fourth...Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two, with one of Bevens' coming in Game Four of the 1947 World Series vs. Brooklyn...Bevens was one out from a no-hitter when the pinch-hitter Cokie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory...it was the last game Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

The Yankees were last held to one hit on 6/30/07 at Yankee Stadium by Oakland Athletics' RHP Chad Gaudin and RHP Rich Harden...the last starter to throw a one-hitter against the Yankees was RHP Mike Maroth on 7/16/04 at Detroit...Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only three men with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913...Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as no-hit spoilers...Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro...in a single month in 1970, Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters...on 5/2/84 at Chicago, Mattingly ruined a perfect game for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown double in the seventh inning, and on 6/29/85 vs. Milwaukee, he also broke up a no-hit bid by Moose Haas, again with a seventh-inning single...on 9/12/81 at Yankee Stadium, Boston LHP Bob Ojeda took a no-hitter into the ninth inning only to have Rick Cerone lead off with a double, followed by a Dave Winfield double.

Yankees Grand Slams

The Yankees hit seven grand slams in 2008, tied for the third-most in the Majors and their most since 2005 (also seven)...on 6/12/08 at Oakland, Hideki Matsui became the first player in franchise history to hit a grand slam on his birthday...Bobby Abreu's grand slam in the 10th inning on 9/24/08 at Toronto gave the Yankees a 6-2 win and was just the third extra-inning grand slam by a Yankee in the last 25 years, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, joining Tino Martinez (5/1/96 at Baltimore, 15th inning) and Jason Giambi (5/17/02 vs. Minnesota, 14th inning)...Alex Rodriguez's ninth-inning, walk-off slam off Baltimore's Chris Ray on 4/7/07 at Yankee Stadium was the eighth time in franchise history that the Yankees won a game with a walk-off grand slam...on 5/17/02 vs. the Minnesota Twins, Jason Giambi became only the 21st player in Major League history—and the second Yankee—to hit a last-inning grand slam to take a team to sudden victory when trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/25/25, hitting a one-out grand slam off Chicago's Sarge Connally in the 10th inning of New York's 6-5 win)...on 9/14/99 at Toronto, Bernie Williams and Paul O'Neill hit grand slams in the seventh and eighth innings respectively, the only time in franchise history that players have hit grand slams in consecutive innings...it was also only the third time in franchise history that the Yankees had two grand slams in the same game (also Tony Lazzeri on 5/24/36 at Philadelphia; and Dave Winfield and Don Mattingly on 6/29/87 at Toronto)...in 1998, Shane Spencer led the club with three grand slams (most ever by a Yankees rookie)...he also became the first Yankees rookie to hit at least two slams in one season since Yogi Berra in 1947...the Yankees gave up nine grand slams in 2000, the most in franchise history (surpassing eight in 1995)...the Yankees hit a franchise-record 10 grand slams in 1987, tying the Major League mark (since exceeded)...Don Mattingly hit a Major League-record six of the 10 grand slams that season (since tied)...four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees - Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965).

Previous Yankee Stadium All-Star Games

The Yankees have hosted four All-Star Games, including the 2008 Midsummer Classic in Yankee Stadium's final season. The Stadium also hosted the All-Star Game in 1977 (48th), 1960 (29th) and 1939 (seventh). Only Cleveland's old Municipal Stadium hosted as many All-Star Games as Yankee Stadium. Overall, New York City has hosted eight MLB All-Star Games, the highest total in Major League history, with the Polo Grounds (1934 and 1942), Ebbets Field (1949) and Shea Stadium (1964) also serving as host sites. The 2008 game marked the first time the Midsummer Classic was held in the host team's final season at its ballpark.

Since the game originated in 1933, the Yankees have had the most All-Star players (112) and the highest total All-Star selections (355) of any Major League Baseball franchise. Mickey Mantle owns the most All-Star selections in club history, having been named to 20 All-Star teams, fourth-most all-time, and Yankees pitcher Lefty Gomez is the only pitcher in All-Star Game history to earn three wins, having made five career All-Star starts. Joe DiMaggio (13 career All-Star nods) and Tom Tresh (three career All-Star selections), own the distinction as the only Yankees rookies to start for the American League (1936 and 1962, respectively). Of the 79 All-Star Games, a Yankees Manager has skipped the American League team 28 times (35%). Currently, third baseman Alex Rodriguez leads the team with 12 career trips to the Midsummer Classic, followed by shortstop Derek Jeter and closer Mariano Rivera with nine All-Star appearances apiece. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Jeter and Rivera are the only players to be named to the All-Star squad with their current team at least nine times. Jeter holds the distinction as the only All-Star MVP in club history, taking home the honor in 2000 after going 3-for-3 with 1 double and 2 RBI in the AL's 6-3 win at Atlanta's Turner Field. He became just the fourth shortstop to earn the award. Rodriguez has led the Majors in All-Star balloting in each of the last two seasons (2007-08).

Seventh All-Star Game American League 3, National League 1 July 11, 1939, Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was chosen to host the 1939 All-Star Game due to the World's Fair which was being held at Flushing Meadows in Queens during the 1939 season. The Cubs' Gabby Hartnett managed the National League squad while Yankees skipper Joe McCarthy led the American League team, which featured 10 Yankees All-Stars, six of whom were starters. Yankees centerfielder Joe DiMaggio was 1-for-4 in the game, hitting a solo home run. Lou Gehrig, who announced his retirement in May of 1939, was an honorary member of the AL squad.

48th All-Star Game National League 7, American League 5 July 19, 1977, Yankee Stadium

Showcasing its renovation, Yankee Stadium hosted the All-Star Game on July 19, 1977, in a game dedicated to Jackie Robinson. With the Yankees defending their 1976 pennant, Billy Martin managed the AL team on his home field. The National League won its sixth consecutive All-Star Game, part of the Senior Circuit's 11-game win streak. Joe Morgan opened the game with a home run off Jim Palmer as the NL squad scored four first-inning runs. Yankees outfielder Reggie Jackson and second baseman Willie Randolph were AL starters. National League Manager Sparky Anderson described the game's final score by saying, "the only reason we're here is to kick the living hell out of those guys."

29th All-Star Game National League 6, American League 0 July 13, 1960 (Game #2), Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was the host site for baseball's second All-Star Game in three days in 1960. The National League completed the All-Star sweep with a 6-0 win, having won Game 1 on July 11 in Kansas City, marking the only year that both All-Star games were won by the same team. Yankees hurler Whitey Ford was the starting pitcher for the AL squad, while fellow Yankees Yogi Berra (catcher), Mickey Mantle (left field), Roger Maris (centerfield) and Bill Skowron (first base) all appeared in the starting lineup. The National League used six different pitchers to combine on the shutout effort and hit an All-Star record-tying four home runs, including one by Willie Mays. The 38,000 fans who attended the game witnessed Ted Williams in his final All-Star appearance.

79th All-Star Game American League 4, National League 3 July 15, 2008, Yankee Stadium

In the final Midsummer Classic at the original Yankee Stadium, the American League emerged with a 4-3 win in 15 innings as Texas' Michael Young brought home Minnesota's Justin Morneau with a "walk-off" sacrifice fly. The 4-hour, 50-minute contest was the longest All-Star Game time-wise and tied for the longest ASG in innings (also 1967 at Anaheim, 2-1 NL win). It was the AL's 12th straight All-Star Game victory and ensured American League homefield advantage in the World Series. SS Derek Jeter started and recorded the game's first hit in the first inning. RHP Mariano Rivera pitched 1.2 scoreless innings. Yankees Manager Joe Girardi joined the AL coaching staff as did Yankees Head Athletic Trainer Gene Monahan, who made his fourth All-Star Game appearance (also 1977, '86 and '92). Pregame ceremonies included 49 Hall of Famers, marking one of the largest gatherings of living baseball HoFers ever. The festivities were highlighted by Yankees Principal Owner/Chairperson George Steinbrenner, who delivered baseballs to the ceremonial first pitch participants (Reggie Jackson, Whitey Ford, Yogi Berra and Goose Gosage).

Yankees Around the Globe

As the game of Baseball continues to grow on a global scale, "America's Pastime" has become infused with talent from all four corners of the world.

On Opening Day of the 2008 season, over 45 percent of all players in Major League Baseball organizations were born outside the United States, hailing from over 35 countries and territories around the world. Of the 855 Major Leaguers on Opening Day rosters, 239 were born outside of the U.S.

As one of the most recognized brands in the world, the New York Yankees are dedicated to making meaningful and lasting footprints throughout the international baseball community.

The Yankees' 2008 Major League Opening Day roster was composed of players from seven different nations (Dominican Republic, Japan, Panama, Puerto Rico, Taiwan, United States and Venezuela). Only the Seattle Mariners (represented by nine different countries) and the Atlanta Braves (represented by eight countries) had more.

On average, 28 percent of each team's roster consisted of players born outside the United States. For the Yankees, that number was 35 percent, with 11 of the Yankees' 31 players on the team's Opening Day roster (including those on the disabled list) having been born in a foreign country. Among American League clubs, only the Mariners (14) had more foreign-born players on their Opening Day roster.

Signing and developing exceptional talent from around the globe has become a trademark of the Yankees organization. Some of the club's acquisitions include the American League's all-time saves leader and Panama native Mariano Rivera, five-time All-Star Jorge Posada of Puerto Rico, two-time All-Star Hideki Matsui from Japan, 2006 "Cy Young" Award runner-up Chien-Ming Wang from Taiwan and 2006 All-Star Robinson Cano of the Dominican Republic.

In January 2007, the Yankees announced a landmark Memorandum of Understanding with the Chinese Baseball Association that formalized the first-ever strategic alliance between a Major League Baseball club and the CBA. At the minor league level, the organization has signed two Chinese minor leaguers, two players from the Israel Baseball League, Cuban-born Juan Miranda and top minor league talent from Australia, Brazil, Mexico and Nicaragua. In addition, the Yankees field two Dominican Summer League teams and operate a state-of-the-art Latin Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

The Latin Béisbol Academy

For the vast majority of the Yankees' Latin American prospects, the Latin Beisbol Academy is the starting point for their professional careers.

Constructed in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, the Yankees built their academy from scratch, allowing player development personnel to manage every detail of the project, from the trainer's room to the clubhouses to the classrooms. The end result is a four-building, four-field complex with the capacity to house up to 110 players. There's also a small apartment building for coaches and instructors. The academy, which officially opened in June 2005 and was completed in the spring of 2006, has a campus feel to it that is not lost on the ballplayers, many of whom are spending time away from their families for the first time.

Previously, the Yankees had leased a variety of facilities in Latin America for scouting and player development use, but it became apparent that it was necessary to find and develop their own facility.

"We've never had as many fields or batting cages," said Mark Newman, Yankees Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations. "We've never had this level of control over player nutrition or this kind of strength and conditioning facility. All of these things enhance our player development efforts. Already, we've seen the physical, mental, emotional and fundamental maturation of players at a more rapid rate, and we should see it to a greater degree in the future."

As a dedicated investor in Latin American talent, the Yankees also look to enhance the training and instruction the players will receive on the field as well as allowing the students at the academy to spend time learning skills that will help them outside of baseball. The complex is staffed with educators who instruct classes on English, teach the Latin prospects "American" customs and are available for one-on-one tutoring sessions. The Yankees also provide Latin American prospects with guest lectures from current and past Major League stars, such as Mariano Rivera, Robinson Cano and Reggie Jackson. In November 2007, Yankees Manager Joe Girardi visited the Beisbol Academy and gave a speech to the Latin coaches and staff followed by an interactive talk with 55 Latin players and eight players from the '06 and '07 draft. He dined with the Yankees' senior Latin staff and watched a Dominican Instructional League game against Toronto.

"The Latin Béisbol Academy was built to instruct, enhance and further develop the inherent skills in young, aspiring baseball players from all parts of Central and South America."

~ Yankees Senior Vice President Felix Lopez

The players and staff are active in local community events as well, hosting annual instructional clinics in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela. In addition, the Yankees' Latin complex has hosted several R.B.I. (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City) tournament games and joined the Yankees organization in the 2007 donation of $65,000 in food and cash to hurricane-damaged areas in the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua. The Yankees have also adopted an orphanage in La Romana in the Dominican Republic, supplying it with food, money and clothing for those in need.

To further the goal of off-the-field instruction, the Yankees created a partnership with Iberoamerican University (UNIBE) in Santo Domingo, a private institution that brings a group of 12 college professors to the academy. The professors teach everything from basic Spanish to three different levels of English, in addition to leading lectures on subjects such as conflict resolution and financial literacy.

The Yankees' Dominican Summer League 1 Team reached the league championship three consecutive seasons from 2005-07, taking home back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006. With the hard work and dedication of the Yankees' Player Development staff, the organization looks forward to the future, when these same young players can be a part of a World Championship in the Bronx.

Yankees, Chinese Baseball Association Reach Landmark Agreement

The New York Yankees and the Chinese Baseball Association held a press conference in Beijing, China, on January 29, 2007, to announce a landmark Memorandum of Understanding that for the first time formalized a strategic alliance between a Major League Baseball club and the Chinese Baseball Association.

The agreement, subject to Major League Baseball's rules, regulations and agreements pertaining to the People's Republic of China, states that the Yankees will provide the CBA with guidance in training baseball players, which will include sending staff (coaches, player development, scouting and training personnel) to China to assist the CBA. The partnership will also allow the CBA to send staff to the Yankees' facilities in the United States in furtherance of those goals.

The Yankees were represented in Beijing by team President Randy Levine, Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Jean Afterman, and Vice President of Corporate Sales and Sponsorship Michael Tusciani. Beijing Womei Advertising Company Limited and SportsCorp China, headed by President and Managing Director Marc Ganis and Managing Director Kenneth Huang, coordinated the meetings and were instrumental in the Yankees' involvement in China.

Yankees Team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman established a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association on Jan. 29, 2007.

"This agreement marks another milestone in Baseball's international evolution," Levine said. "We are excited to begin working alongside our friends in the Chinese Baseball Association, and they will receive our full support throughout this exciting process. The Yankees brand is recognized around the world, and this unprecedented opportunity allows us to further integrate the Yankees name and our proud history of success into baseball's global landscape."

"It is a great honor to be a part of this unique and exciting opportunity," Cashman said. "Throughout China's history it's easy to see their passion for sports and their determination to excel in all athletic fields. With that belief in excellence, we are proud to begin work with the Chinese Baseball Association, and we will provide all of our available tools and resources to help develop and cultivate their baseball program from the ground up."

The CBA was represented by Chairman Hu Jianguo, Secretary General Shen Wei and Deputy Secretary General Tian Yuan.

On June 16, 2007, the Yankees announced the signings of catcher Zhenwang Zhang and left-handed pitcher Kai Liu to minor league contracts, marking the first-ever acquisition by a Major League organization of Chinese baseball players. The two minor leaguers were introduced at a press conference at Yankee Stadium on July 6, 2007, and then reported to the Yankees Complex in Tampa, Fla., to begin their workouts. Both players were members of the Chinese National team that competed in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. Liu is slated to play with the Gulf Coast League Yankees in 2009.

During the 2007 season, the Yankees also opened an office in Beijing in direct support of the agreement and to further pursue the club's promotional endeavors in the country. In addition, the Yankees sent front office personnel to Wuxi, China, to offer valuable instruction at a youth tournament during the 2007 baseball season.

Partners in Japan

During the 2002 season, the Yankees entered into a working agreement with the Yomiuri Giants, winners of 20 Japan Series Championships. Pursuant to the agreement, the teams consented to share baseball information, ideas and strategies. Also in 2002, the Yankees pursued and signed three-time Central League MVP Hideki Matsui. A nine-time Japanese League All-Star and three-time home run champion, Matsui became the first bonafide power hitter to make the transition from Japan to the Major Leagues.

In 2004, the Yomiuri Shimbun, the world's largest daily-circulated newspaper and part of the Yomiuri media conglomerate, entered into a sponsorship agreement with the Yankees, which includes an advertisement on the right field wall of Yankee Stadium. The Yankees are also currently engaged in a sponsorship agreement with the Japanese company Komatsu and have previously had Japanese sponsors in Funai and Gulliver.

The Yankees traveled to Tokyo, Japan, in 2004 to open the regular season against the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. This historic trip marked the 70th anniversary of the Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig All-Star team visit to Japan in 1934. It also recognized and honored the 70-year anniversary of the founding of the Yomiuri Giants franchise, Japan's oldest professional baseball team. The two-game series was just the second-ever Major League season opener to take place in Japan. At the time, the two games were the highest-rated televised Major League games in Japan's history.

During 2008, the Yankees opened a permanent office in Tokyo to pursue business partnerships within Japan and the entire Pacific Rim. The Yankees employ a full-time scout in Japan and have also placed full-time scouts in Taiwan and Australia.

Aided by the popularity of Matsui and Taiwan-born Chien-Ming Wang, Major League Baseball has seen an increase of over $200 million in merchandise sales throughout Asia over the last four years, opening the door for a flood of new advertising and sponsorship opportunities overseas. In another nod to the draw of the Yankees brand across the world, over 80 percent of Yankees games are broadcast in Japan, and New York Yankees baseball is seen in places such as Taiwan, Korea, Latin America, Australia, Europe and Africa.

Yankees Teach in Taiwan

In January 2009, the Yankees, along with pitcher Chien-Ming Wang, joined the Chinese Taipei Baseball Association under the auspices of Major League Baseball in holding a clinic for high school pitchers, catchers and coaches at the National Taiwan Sport University's Taoyuan Campus in Taipei, Taiwan. It marked the Yankees' first-ever large-scale outreach in Taiwan and represented the club's initiative in cultivating baseball talent and increasing brand recognition in Asia and the greater international community.

Led by five members of the Yankees' player development staff from Tampa, Fla., the five-day clinic focused on pitching and catching fundamentals and philosophy. Yankees representatives included special assistant Pat McMahon, extended spring training pitching coach Carlos Chantres, assistant director of baseball operations Eric Schmitt, catching coordinator Julio Mosquera and strength and conditioning coordinator Mike Wickland. Taiwanese participants included approximately 40 pitchers, 10 catchers and 20 coaches, all from the high school level.

The Chinese Taipei Baseball Association oversees all amateur baseball in Taiwan and organizes their Olympic and World Baseball Classic teams. Their interest in working with the Yankees is natural given the club's huge following in Taiwan, which is largely due to the success of Wang, a two-time 19-game winner and Tainan, Taiwan native.

Yankees Take Part in World Baseball Classic

On January 19, 2009, the provisional rosters for the 2009 World Baseball Classic were unveiled. Twelve Yankees were scattered across teams from China (1), the Dominican Republic (6), Italy (1), Mexico (2), Panama (1) and the United States (1). In 2006, the Yankees had five players take part in the WBC with Johnny Damon, Derek Jeter, Al Leiter and Alex Rodriguez playing with Team USA and Bernie Williams taking the field for Team Puerto Rico.

Japanese slugger Hideki Matsui returned to Japan in 2004 when the Yankees opened the season vs. Tampa Bay.

Chien-Ming Wang visits with baseball campers in Taiwan in January, 2009.

U.S. MILITARY ALL-STAR BASEBALL TEAM VISITS YANKEES' LATIN BÉISBOL ACADEMY IN THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

On April 24, 2008, the U.S. Military Baseball Team paid a visit to the Yankees' Latin Béisbol Academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic to join Yankees players for a workout as part of their Armed Forces "Baseball Diplomacy" program in conjunction with the United States Embassy, the Dominican Armed Forces and National Police Sporting Club, and the Dominican Baseball Federation. Following the training session, coaches from the academy joined U.S. military players at Ensanche Luperon, in Santo Domingo, to give a baseball clinic to local children. In return, the Yankees sent coaches and scouts to participate in a clinic on April 26, 2008 at the Olympic Center, also in Santo Domingo.

Steinbrenner Field to host college baseball games

The New York Yankees will host a marquee event that would bring four of the state's college top baseball programs together for a doubleheader at George M. Steinbrenner Field in February 2010. Florida and Florida State would meet in one game, with USF and Miami squaring off in the second at the Yankees' spring training home. The four schools would meet again in 2011 & 2012, perhaps as part of a larger event.

Media Services for Yankees Games

The New York Yankees Media Relations staff would like to welcome you to the inaugural season at Yankee Stadium. Please see below for helpful information and guidelines for the 2009 season. Contact us with any questions or concerns you may have. We look forward to working with you.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM/CREDENTIAL PICK-UP: All media must enter Yankee Stadium via the Press Gate, adjacent to Gate 4. The Press Gate opens four hours prior to game time. BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or credentials issued by the New York Yankees are necessary for admittance. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED. All bags are subject to search upon entry. Photo ID will be required.

ADMISSION TO FIELD AND DUGOUTS: The field and dugouts can be accessed through the tunnel on the Service Level adjacent to the Yankees clubhouse (only during regular clubhouse hours) as well as the outfield side of the Visitors clubhouse on the Service Level. Take the press elevator or stairs from the Press Gate to the Service Level and follow the concourse to the first or third base side. Field is closed to media at the conclusion of the visiting team's batting practice.

CLUBHOUSE: The Yankees Clubhouse is open to those with BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED. The Clubhouse is open from three and a half hours prior to the game until one hour before game time. At times, certain additional restrictions may be imposed. PRIVATE CORRIDORS INSIDE THE CLUBHOUSE, INCLUDING THE TRAINER'S ROOM, PLAYER'S LOUNGE, WEIGHT ROOM, ETC. ARE CLOSED TO MEDIA AT ALL TIMES. Visiting clubhouse is governed by the visiting club.

CREDENTIAL QUESTIONS: Please direct questions to Connie Schwab or Dolores Hernandez in the Yankees Media Relations office at credentials@yankees.com or (718) 579-4460.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: All requests for 2009 single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium may be made online at <https://credentials.mlb.com>. The online application is the only acceptable method for requesting 2009 single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium. Applications must be completed by a Sports Editor or Sports Director and require at least 24 hours notice.

ELEVATOR TO PRESS BOX: The Field Level entrance is directly behind the Press Gate between Gate 4 and the Great Hall. A staircase adjacent to the press elevator also provides access to the Service, Field and Press Box Levels. Entrance on the Service Level is near the Legends Suite Club on the first base side.

FIELD: All media, with BBWAA cards or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees, are permitted on the field in designated areas during pre-game practice. FOR SAFETY PURPOSES, ALL MEDIA MUST LEAVE THE FIELD ONCE THE BATTING CAGE IS REMOVED. DUGOUTS ARE TO BE CLEARED ONE-HALF HOUR PRIOR TO ALL GAMES. PLEASE DISPLAY PASSES AT ALL TIMES.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS: To schedule interviews requiring special arrangements, please e-mail your request to media@yankees.com.

MEDIA GUIDES: Contact the Yankees Media Relations department. Major League media guides are available in the press box and can be obtained from a Yankees media relations representative.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: ANY MEMBER OF THE MEDIA REQUESTING AUTOGRAPHS WHILE CREDENTIALLED WILL HAVE THEIR CREDENTIAL REVOKED.

Servicios Para La Prensa Durante Los Juegos

El departamento de relaciones de prensa de los Yankees de Nueva York quisiera darle la bienvenida a la temporada inaugural en el Yankee Stadium. Por favor vea abajo las pautas para la temporada 2009. Por favor en contacto con nosotros con cualquier pregunta o preocupación que usted pueda tener. Deseamos tener el placer de trabajar con usted este año.

ADmisIÓN AL ESTADIO/ RECOGIDA DE CREDENCIALES: Todos los medios deben de entrar por la entrada de la prensa (Press Gate), adyacente a la entrada número 4 del estadio (Gate 4). La entrada de la prensa (Press Gate) abre cuatro horas antes del principio del juego. Las tarjetas BBWAA, los pases distribuidos por MLB o las credenciales repartidas por los Yankees de Nueva York son necesarios para entrar. NO SE HONRará NINGUNA OTRA CREDENCIAL. Todas las bolsas están sujetas a ser revisada a la entrada. Identificación de foto será requerida.

ADmisIÓN AL TERRENO Y A LAS TRINCHERAS: Al terreno y a las trincheras está accesible por el túnel ubicado en el Service Level adyacente al clubhouse de los Yankees (solamente durante las horas que el clubhouse esté abierto) y también por la parte del jardín ubicado del clubhouse de los visitantes en el Service Level. Desde la entrada de prensa, tome el ascensor o escalera al Service Level y siga el pasillo hacia la primera o tercera base. El terreno cierra a la prensa al concluir la práctica de bateo del equipo visitante.

CLUBHOUSE: El clubhouse de los Yankees es accesible por aquellos que tengan las tarjetas BBWAA, los pases distribuidos por MLB o las credenciales repartidas por los Yankees de Nueva York. Yankees Broadcasters

Michael Kay

In his eighth season as the play-by-play announcer for the YES Network and WWOR-TV, Michael Kay immerses himself in all things New York in order to provide his listeners and viewers with original opinions and the most exclusive, up-to-the-minute Yankees information. Additionally, Kay is the host of YES CenterStage and YESterday's series, hosts his own radio talk show on ESPN 1050 AM in New York and is a frequent contributor to ESPN's Sports Reporters. In 2008, he handled play-by-play duties for ESPN Radio Network's coverage of the American League Divisional Series.

A 19-time Emmy Award nominee and three-time Emmy winner, Kay signed a multi-year extension with the YES Network in 2008 to remain as the club's lead play-by-play voice as well as host on a variety of YES Network programs.

Before joining the YES Network, Kay worked at the MSG Network from 1989-2001 as a Yankees reporter. In 1992, he added the assignment of Knicks locker room reporter to his responsibilities and continued in that role through the 1998-99 season.

In addition to his television work, the Bronx, N.Y., native also worked as a Yankees analyst on WABC Radio from 1992-2002. Kay was a winner with Bob Goldscholl (WBRR) for "Best Sports Reporter" at the 2000 New York Metro Achievement in Radio Awards. After the Yankees' World Series victories in 1996, 1998 and 2000, Kay and radio partner John Sterling were asked by New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani to host the post-parade victory celebration at City Hall.

In 1998, Kay also began co-hosting Sports Talk with John Sterling and Michael Kay, an MSG-produced nightly sports radio call-in show which aired on WABC Radio during the winter months. During the baseball season, Kay and Sterling hosted "Yankee Talk" which aired 90 minutes prior to all weekend Yankees games.

Shortly after graduating from Fordham University in 1982 with a B.A. in Communications, Kay became one of the hot sports reporters in New York City with a style that combined great reporting skills with quality writing. While at Fordham, he honed his skills working for the school newspaper and radio station, working at Sports Phone and as the public address announcer for the New York Pro Summer Basketball League. In 1982, Kay landed a job as a general assignment writer for the New York Post. Two years later he began covering college basketball (1984-85) and then the New Jersey Nets, whom he covered for two seasons before becoming the newspaper's general basketball writer. In 1987, he moved to baseball where he served as his paper's Yankees beat reporter. While he was in that position, he got his first television job with MSG Network as host of the "Hot Stove League" segment of MSG's Sports Night. Kay moved from the Post to the New York Daily News in 1989, where he covered the Yankees until 1992, when he made the jump to radio. With the move, he became the first newspaper reporter in any sport to make the jump into the broadcast booth full-time, performing both play-by-play and analysis.

Kay was given the Dick Young Award for Excellence in Sports Media by the New York Pro Baseball Scouts in 1995. He was also a part of the Yankees/MSG Production team that was nominated for New York Emmy Awards for six consecutive years. In 1998, he was on the MSG team that won for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage-Series". In 1996 and '97, he was a member of the MSG team that won New York Emmys for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage-Single Program" for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and "The Battle for New York: Yankees vs. Mets".

Kay is single and resides in Hartsdale, N.Y. He is active with the Alzheimer's Association in memory of his mother, Rose, who passed away from the disease in 2006, and in 2008, joined Joe Girardi and CBS' Jim Nantz as keynote speakers at "Remember When, Remember Now" at the Grand Central Oyster Bar to benefit Girardi's charity and Alzheimer's research.

Ken Singleton

Former Major League Ken Singleton enters his eighth season as a game analyst and announcer for YES Network broadcasts of the New York Yankees. Known on the diamond as a consistent power hitter, Singleton has proven to be equally as reliable since joining the radio and television broadcast booths.

Prior to joining YES, Singleton divided his time calling play-by-play and providing commentary at the MSG Network. In 1998, he was part of MSG's production team that won four New York Emmys for its Yankees coverage.

Singleton joined the MSG Network in 1997 from The Sports Network (TSN), where he served as analyst for the Montreal Expos from 1985-96. From 1991-96, he also called play-by-play and served as analyst for CIQ Radio, the Expos' flagship radio network. In 1996 and '97, he was named by FOX Sports as a lead analyst for Saturday afternoon baseball broadcasts. In 1997 and '98, he worked as an analyst for Major League Baseball International.

Singleton enjoyed a 15-year Major League career with the New York Mets, Montreal Expos and Baltimore Orioles, batting .282 with 317 doubles and 246 HR. He is one of only six players in Baseball history to hit 35 or more home runs in a season as a switch-hitter. He also ranks among the all-time leaders in most Baltimore offensive categories, including homers, RBI and total bases. During his career, Singleton was named to the American League All-Star team in 1977, '79, and '81. He was named Most Valuable Oriole in 1975, '77, and '79 and was a member of the Orioles' 1983 World Championship team. He was the 1982 recipient of Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award, honoring Singleton's contributions both on and off the field.

A native New Yorker, Singleton played both baseball and basketball in high school, and also played baseball in the Bronx Federation League at Macombs Dam Park on the current site of the new Yankee Stadium. After getting a scholarship to play basketball at Hofstra University and playing baseball as well for one year, Singleton was drafted by the Mets in 1967.

He enjoys golf and reading historical novels and lives with his wife Suzanne in Sparks, Md. He also has three sons and a daughter.

Yankees Broadcasters

David Cone

Former Yankees pitcher David Cone returns to YES for the 2009 season as a Yankees analyst. In addition, he will also host YES' children's-themed Yankees on Deck series and will participate in weekly chats on YESNetwork.com.

Cone began his second stint in the broadcast booth in 2008, having also served as both a game and studio analyst for YES during its inaugural year in 2002.

Cone compiled a 194-126 record, 3.46 ERA and 2,688 strikeouts in his 17-year Major League career with the Kansas City Royals (1986, 1993-94), New York Mets (1987-1992, 2003), Toronto Blue Jays (1992, '95), New York Yankees (1995-2000) and Boston Red Sox (2001). He was a five-time All-Star (1988, 1992, 1994, 1997 and 1999) and captured the American League Cy Young Award in 1994 after posting a 16-5 record with a 2.94 ERA. With the award, he became the first pitcher to win the Cy Young despite not leading the league in any category or pitching for a first-place club.

While with the Yankees, Cone was 64-40 with a 3.91 ERA and 888 strikeouts, and was part of four World Championship teams (1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). He had arguably his finest season in pinstripes in 1998, when he was 20-7 with a 3.55 ERA and 209 strikeouts. A year later, on July 18, 1999, he hurled the 14th perfect game in modern Major League history (since 1901, including postseason) in a 6-0 win vs. the Montreal Expos at Yankee Stadium. The performance also marked the third perfect game ever thrown by a Yankees pitcher, following Don Larsen's in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. Brooklyn and David Wells' vs. Minnesota in 1998.

The Kansas City, Mo. native, was selected by his hometown Kansas City Royals in the third round of the 1981 First-Year Player Draft. He owns an 8-3 career postseason record and also won a title with the 1992 Blue Jays.

Cone and his wife, Lynn, have a son, Brian. In 1996, he established the David Cone Charitable Gift Fund. Cone was honored with numerous awards for his community service as a player and still pursues his charitable endeavors, working with the Maria Faren Children's Hospital at the Westchester Medical Center.

John Flaherty

Former Yankees catcher John Flaherty enters his fourth season as a field reporter, studio analyst and game analyst for YES Network telecasts in 2009.

Drafted by the Boston Red Sox in 1988, Flaherty progressed through the Red Sox farm system before joining their Major League squad in 1992. He played 14 seasons in the Majors with Boston (1992-93), Detroit (1994-96), San Diego (1996-97), Tampa Bay (1998-2002) and the Yankees (2003-05), compiling a .252 batting average with 80 home runs in 1,047 career games.

Flaherty brought his knowledge of the game and his veteran style of leadership to the Yankees clubhouse when he signed as a free agent in 2003. Though he played in 134 games with the Yankees across three seasons, he may be long remembered for his dramatic pinch-hit, "walk-off" single that defeated the Boston Red Sox in the 13th inning of a 5-4 victory on 7/1/04.

Flaherty is a New York City native and a graduate of George Washington University.

Kimberly Jones

Kimberly Jones returns for her fifth season as a Yankees pregame and postgame clubhouse reporter. She is also a contributor to YES Network's This Week in Football and Yankees Hot Stove shows, as well as occasionally hosting talk shows on WFAN-AM 660 in New York.

Jones previously spent four-and-a-half years at the Star-Ledger (Newark, N.J.), where she covered the New York Giants for three seasons and was the NFL columnist for one. For the 2005 NFL season, she continued to contribute as the Ledger's Sunday NFL notes columnist and also appeared as an NFL contributor on Out of Bounds on CN8, The Comcast Network.

Prior to moving to New Jersey, Jones worked at the Central Daily Times (State College, Pa.), where she was the beat writer for Penn State football and men's basketball.

Jones graduated from Penn State with a B.A. in Journalism and an M.S. in Exercise and Sport Science. Following graduation, she completed a one-year internship in the communications department of the Big Ten Conference in suburban Chicago. A native of Daltown, Pa., she currently resides in Bergen County, N.J.

Al Leiter

Entering his fourth year with the YES Network, former Yankees pitcher Al Leiter has established himself as an outstanding color commentator, providing viewers with insight gained from his 19 years as a player in the Major Leagues. Prior to signing with YES, Leiter had worked as a postseason game analyst for FOX Sports and ESPN.

Originally drafted by the Yankees in 1984, Leiter played parts of 19 professional seasons with the Yankees (1987-89, 2005), Toronto Blue Jays (1989-95), Florida Marlins (1996-97, 2005) and New York Mets (1998-2004). A two-time All-Star (1996, 2000), he was a part of two world championship teams (Toronto in 1993 and Florida in 1997) and became the first pitcher in history to record a victory against all 30 Major League teams. On 5/11/96, Leiter tossed the first no-hitter in Marlins history in an 11-0 win vs. Colorado.

Leiter returned to the Yankees in a trade with the Marlins on 7/16/05. His start vs. the Boston Red Sox on 7/17 at Fenway Park marked a span of 16 years and 82 days between Yankees starts (first since 4/26/89 vs. Kansas City), the longest gap between starts by a Yankees pitcher in franchise history.

A native of Bayville, N.J., Leiter has been nearly as busy off the field as he was on it. Since 1996, he has donated more than $1.5 million to various charities in the New York area and South Florida. In 2000, he was honored by Major League Baseball with the Roberto Clemente Award for his contribution to the community and in 2002, he was appointed to the board of directors of the Twin Towers Fund in New York City. He was named the March of Dimes "Sportsman of the Year" in 2003 and the John V. Mara "Sportsman of the Year" in 2004 by the Catholic Youth Organization. With his wife, Lori, he created "Leiter's Landing," a charitable organization committed to the betterment of youth through education, health care and social and community service. Leiter has also been the recipient of numerous other awards and honors as a result of his charity work, including the 2008 "Breakthrough Spirit Award" at the Children's Cancer and Blood Foundation gala in New York City.

Yankees Broadcasters

Paul O'Neill

Paul O'Neill returns for his eighth consecutive season in broadcast television in 2009, serving as a game analyst for the YES Network.

The gritty and revered five-time All-Star outfielder played 17 years in the Major Leagues, spending his final nine seasons in pinstripes. He appeared in six World Series, winning five titles, including four with the Yankees (1996, '98-2000).

Affectionately known as a "warrior" to most Yankees followers, O'Neill began his Major League career in 1985 with the Cincinnati Reds and earned the first of his five World Series championships in 1990. He joined the Yankees in 1993 after eight seasons with the Reds, and in 1994 claimed the American League batting title with a .359 average. From July 1995 to May 1997, he played in 235 consecutive games in right field without making an error. In 2001, at the age of 38, O'Neill became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season.

He lives in his native Cincinnati with his wife, Nevallee, and their three children: Andrew, Aaron and Alexandra. He was named the "Father of the Year" in June 2008 by the National Father's Day Council at its 67th Annual Father of the Year dinner in New York.

Tony Kubek

2009 Ford C. Frick Award Winner

The Yankees congratulate Tony Kubek for being selected as the 2009 Ford C. Frick Award winner for his contributions to broadcasting. Kubek played for the club from 1957-65 and was a member of seven World Series teams, including winners in 1958, '61 and '62. He earned the 1957 "Rookie of the Year" Award as a 21-year old, batting .297 (128-for-431) with 56 runs scored, three home runs and 39 RBI in 127 games while appearing in at least 20 games at five different positions. He was also selected to four All-Star Games (1958, 1959-second game, 1961-both games) and finished his career with a

.266 (1,109-for-4,167) lifetime batting average, 57 home runs and 373 RBI in 1,092 games primarily at shortstop.

Upon his retirement as a player in 1965, Kubek began his broadcasting career for NBC and became known to national audiences while doing "Game of the Week" telecasts until 1989. From 1977-89, he also worked as a television analyst for the Toronto Blue Jays before joining the Yankees booth in 1990, where he stayed until his retirement from broadcasting in 1994. Over his distinguished career, he worked 11 World Series, 14 American League Championship Series and 10 All-Star Games. He becomes the first broadcaster who worked exclusively as an analyst to win the Frick Award, and as the fourth former Major Leaguer to receive the honor, joining Joe Garagiola, Bob Uecker and Jerry Coleman.

Yankees Broadcasters

John Sterling

"Yankees win! Theeeeeee Yankees win!"

If anything has become synonymous with the Yankees' run of success over recent years, it is John Sterling's memorable conclusion to so many Yankees victories. As the radio voice to 162 games a year, plus preseason and postseason, he has called 3,299 games (3,171 regular season/128 postseason) over the last 20 seasons, without missing even one, making him one of the most recognized—and imitated voices—in all of New York sports.

Sterling joined the Yankees broadcast team in 1989 from Atlanta's TBS and WSB Radio, where he called Hawks basketball (1981-89) and Braves games (1982-87). It marked a return to the town where he first achieved fame while hosting a talk show on WMCA from 1971-78, and calling the Nets (1975-80, and as a fill-in, in 1997) and Islanders (1975-78) for WMCA, WVNJ, WVOR-TV and SportsChannel.

Sterling also previously broadcasted Morgan State Football (eight years) and Washington Bullets basketball in 1981. In addition to his seven years at WMCA and a year at WSB in Atlanta, he has also hosted talk shows on WFAN and WABC in New York. He has not missed a broadcast since the fall of 1981.

As the host of the YES Network's acclaimed Yankeeography series, Sterling has won a total of nine Emmy Awards since 2003. He has also been honored by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association with its Radio-TV Excellence Award (1999), and was the winner of the 2001 Whitney Radio Jimmy Cannon Award. In addition, his call of a Jason Giambi home run on WCBS radio in 2002 was voted the "Best Baseball Call" of the year in a poll conducted by MLB.com. In 2002, Sterling was also honored by the NY Air Awards for being a part of the best play-by-play team on radio.

When he's not in the booth, Sterling serves as a master of on-field ceremonies for major Yankees events. He is also well known for his emcee work at City Hall (with his longtime radio partner Michael Kay) at "Key to the City" ceremonies following Yankees World Series victories.

Sterling enjoys attending Broadway shows and boasts an extensive knowledge of the lyrics to many American pop standards. In 2007, he embarked on his own Broadway venture in a cabaret show titled "Baseball and Broadway" in which he both served as emcee and sang alongside Broadway talent.

For the past 16 years, he has been a spokesman for the Leukemia Society of America. He enjoys reading, movies and swimming. He lives in Bergen County, N.J., and is the proud father of four children: daughter Abigail and triplets, Veronica, Bradford and Derek.

Suzyn Waldman

Award-winning journalist Suzyn Waldman begins her 23rd season either covering or broadcasting the New York Yankees. She joined John Sterling in the radio booth in 2005 as the Yankees' color commentator on WCBS-AM radio, becoming the first woman to hold a full-time position as a Major League broadcaster. Waldman has spent more than two decades overcoming all the obstacles that go along with being a female sports broadcaster and has risen to the top of her profession. In 2006, she became a permanent part of the "Women in Baseball" exhibit at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

In 1987, Waldman became the first female voice heard on WFAN-AM in New York, the first all-sports radio station in the country. She was a mainstay on that station for almost 15 years, creating the job of the radio beat reporter, covering both the New York Yankees and New York Knicks. Her news-breaking reports, exclusive interviews and always original and controversial opinions won her countless journalism awards. Her accolades include the "International Radio Award" for her live and emotional reporting from the upper deck of Candlestick Park during the 1989 San Francisco earthquake, the 1996 "NY Sportscaster of the Year" Award from the National Sportscasters & Sportswriters, and the 1999 "Star Award" for radio from the American Women in Radio and TV. Waldman became a popular talk show host at WFAN and co-hosted the coveted midday slot until leaving WFAN in 2002 to join the YES Network.

The word "first" invariably precedes the name of Suzyn Waldman in every facet of her television and radio career. The first woman to work on a nationally-televised baseball broadcast, Waldman added another first, being the first woman to provide play-by-play for a Major League team, when she started broadcasting New York Yankees games for WPIX, MSG Network and WNYW/FOX5 in the mid 1990s. The first woman ever to host an NBA pre-and post-game show, Suzyn worked in that capacity for the NY Knicks on WFAN, provided play-by-play for the WNBA on Lifetime TV and was an analyst on St. John's basketball games for MSG and WFAN.

She has been honored by countless organizations, including the Thurman Munson Foundation, the March of Dimes, the B'nai B'rith, the Jimmy Fund of Boston and the US Federal Women's Program. In 2006, she received the first Women's Global Health Award from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine at the United Nations. She is a tireless motivational speaker at schools and cancer centers around the country, encouraging young women to pursue their dreams despite any pitfalls they may encounter.

Waldman's life and struggles have been the subject of hundreds of magazine and newspaper articles, and chapters in children's and motivational books. She has been profiled on the Today Show, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, ABC's 20/20 and NBC's Dateline.

A native Bostonian with a degree in Economics from Boston's prestigious Simmons College, Suzyn spent 15 years on the Broadway Musical Stage and performed in countless night clubs around the world. She is proudest of her two years starring opposite Richard Kiley in Man of La Mancha. She lives in Westchester with her German Shepherds, Gatsby and A.J.

Yankees en Español

For the 13th consecutive season, the Yankees – in conjunction with WCBS radio – will provide Spanish radio and SAP (second audio programming) for game broadcasts.

Beto Villa

The Venezuelan born Beto Villa has broadcast Yankees games since the beginning of the club's Spanish radio network in 1997, becoming one of the most recognized voices in baseball. The 2009 season will mark Villa's 13th season as the "Spanish voice of the New York Yankees." His famous home run call: "¡Y la bola va atrás, se va, se va, se va, se vaaaaaaaa...y se fue de cuadrangular...Jonrrón de..." has made him very popular in the tri-state area and around the world.

Beto provides Spanish listeners with thorough and thoughtful Yankees coverage. He treasures his pages and pages of statistics of Latin American ballplayers, which he uses during his broadcasts. After beginning his career in 1981, he has had the opportunity to broadcast both the Major League World Series and the Caribbean World Series. He is also the Editor of Latinobaseball.com, a Web site covering Latin American players in the Majors and Winter Leagues.

Series. He is currently the Editor of Latinobaseball.com, a Web site covering Latin American players in the Majors and Winter Leagues. Beto has a daughter, Margarita.

Francisco Rivera

Francisco Rivera, a native of Morovis, Puerto Rico, received his Bachelors Degree in Spanish Literature from Rutgers University. In 1978, he graduated from Miguel Angel Torres School of Communications in Manhattan, a school affiliated with Cambridge University. He began his communications career covering NBA basketball for WADO Radio. In 1992, Rivera was one of the pioneers of the talk show WADO Deportivo, where he worked until 2003.

Since 1995, Rivera has been involved in baseball as a color commentator and play-by-play announcer, covering the Philadelphia Phillies for "Radio Tropical" from 1995 to 1998 and working the American League Championship Series in 2003 and 2004 for ESPN. He has been in the Yankees' broadcast booth since 2005.

Felix DeJesus

Felix DeJesus, a native New Yorker, enters his fourth season as a color commentator for the New York Yankees. He currently writes for Latinobaseball.com and is one of the co-hosts of "El Mundo de Las Grandes Ligas," an internet show on MLB Radio.

DeJesus has been involved with the Hispanic market since 1993 when he became the color commentator for the NFL's Florida Panthers. He has worked in all areas of broadcasting, television, radio and the Internet. From 1998 to 2004, he covered Major League Baseball on television for XTRA Innings in New York. He covered the Caribbean World Series in 2002 for New York's Radio Unica 1660 AM and served as one of the play-by-play voices for the international broadcast of the 2007 Caribbean Series. He has also worked for FOX Sports, ESPN

International and CNN. In 1999, he became the first announcer to broadcast in SAP for NBC News. DeJesus has also served the last three years as the Spanish language translator for Showtime Championship Boxing.

DeJesus graduated from Fordham University in 1988 with a degree in Economics and currently resides in the tri-state area. He and his wife, Melissa, have two sons, Christopher and Brendan.

Carlos Silva

Carlos Silva, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, enters his fourth season producing and engineering Yankee games for WCBS Radio 880 AM. The 2009 season will mark his ninth year exclusively working on Spanish language Yankees broadcasts and his 20th overall season in baseball. Silva has also worked for ESPN Radio and Phillies Spanish Radio as well the NBA's Orlando Magic.

In the offseason, he resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Teresa, and his children Leslie (22), Kimberly (19) and Matthew (9).

George M. Steinbrenner Field

This year marks the 14th season the Yankees will play their spring training games at George M. Steinbrenner Field in Tampa, Fla. The complex has also served as the home of the Single-A Tampa Yankees of the Florida State League since it opened in 1996. The field's dimensions are an exact replica of Yankee Stadium in the Bronx, measuring 318 feet down the left line, 408 feet to center field and 314 feet down the right field line. In 2008, the addition of the Tampa Tribune Deck in right field expanded the Stadium's capacity to 11,076, making it the largest spring training facility in the Grapefruit League.

Fans will also notice another link to the Bronx with a replica of the Yankees' retired numbers placards greeting the Yankees faithful as they enter the complex.

Originally opened in 1996 as Legends Field, the complex was renamed after the Yankees' Principal Owner and Chairman prior to the Yankees' March 27, 2008, spring training game against the Pittsburgh Pirates. On February 14, 2008, Hank and Hal Steinbrenner announced that the New York Yankees would rename the facility to George M. Steinbrenner Field. The name change followed two unanimous resolutions recommending and supporting the change from the Hillsborough County Commission and the Tampa City Council.

"I am humbled and flattered to have this outstanding and totally unexpected honor conferred on me. I extend my thanks to the Tampa City Council and to the Hillsborough County Commissioners for passing resolutions suggesting and recommending the change. I also thank my family for supporting the renaming of the stadium and for everything they have done for so many years that helped bring about this great day," said George M. Steinbrenner said at the time the resolution was passed.

The resolution passed by the Tampa City Council on February 7, 2008, endorsed the naming of Legends Field after George M. Steinbrenner by citing his many charitable donations on behalf of youth activities, hospitals and the arts. The resolution passed by the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioners on February 6, 2008, urged the Yankees to honor George M. Steinbrenner by renaming Legends Field in recognition of his numerous extraordinary contributions to the area.

THE FINAL SEASON: The Official Retrospective* $35

The Final Season: The Official Retrospective recounts the events that took place at Yankee Stadium in 2008.

This coffee-table book offers readers unmatched access to the final Opening Day at Yankee Stadium, Pope Benedict XVI's historic Mass, the 2008 All-Star Game and the final game ever played in The House That Ruth Built. In The Final Season: The Official Retrospective, Presidents Barack Obama, George W. Bush and Jimmy Carter weigh in on the historical significance of the big ballpark in the Bronx. The hardcover book also features never-before-seen photographs of the ballpark taken after the final game was played.

YANKEE STADIUM: The Official Retrospective* $50

Yankee Stadium: The Official Retrospective recounts the story of The House That Ruth Built, exploring the very moments – baseball-related and beyond – that led Sports Illustrated to name Yankee Stadium the No. 1 venue of the 20th century.

With more than 250 photographs – some never before published – and first-person accounts that range from Yankees principal owner George M. Steinbrenner III, Derek Jeter, Yogi Berra and Reggie Jackson to former Presidents Bill Clinton and George H.W. Bush and former New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani, these iconic moments spring to life.

The Final Season: The Official Retrospective* and *Yankee Stadium: The Official Retrospective can both be purchased by calling (800) GO-YANKS, online at yankees.com/publications or at Yankee Stadium.

Prices do not include shipping & handling.

Game times listed as TBA are subject to determination by Major League Baseball and its television partners.

There are two ways to get one.

1 Play Little League Baseball.[®]
Lead your high school baseball team to glory.
Get drafted by the Yankees.[®]
Put up big numbers for the Charleston RiverDogs.[™]
Have a breakout season with the Trenton Thunder.[™]
Get called up to New York.

2 Pick one up at the store.

EITHER WAY, YOU'LL GET THE EXACT SAME CAP. There's no difference between the 59FIFTY that MLB[®] players wear on-field, and the 59FIFTY that fans wear in the stands. They've got the same revolutionary, moisture-wicking Cool Base technology, the same quality craftsmanship and the same 70-year tradition in every stitch.

THE OFFICIAL ON-FIELD CAP OF MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL.
